Dalkey Archive Ed José Lezama Lima, 2000 A classic of modern literature Paradiso was first published in Cuba in 1966 Written by Cuba s most important poet it tells the story of Jose Cemi who in the wake of his father s death comes of age in turn of the century Cuba Weaving the exhilarations and defeats of love into extraordinarily erotic verbal tapestries Lezama Lima narrates Cemi s search for his dead father and for an understanding of love and the powers of the mind BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Reading Anew Juan Pablo Lupi, 2012 Writing of the Formless Jaime Rodríguez Matos, 2016-12-01 In this book Jaime Rodr guez Matos proposes the formless as a point of departure in thinking through the relationship between politics and time Thinking through both literary and political writings around the Cuban Revolution Rodríguez Matos explores the link between abstract symbolic procedures and various political experiments that have sought to give form to a principle of sovereignty based on the category of representation. In doing so he proposes the formless as the limit of modern and contemporary reflections on the meaning of politics while exploring the philosophical consequences of a formless concept of temporality for the critique of metaphysics. Rodríguez Matos takes the writing and thought of José Lezama Lima as the guiding thread in exploring the possibility of a politics in which time is imagined beyond the disciplining functions it has had throughout the metaphysical tradition: a time of the absence of time in which the absence of time no longer means eternity.

Secondary Moderns Brett Levinson, 1996. Secondary Moderns examines Lezama Lima's analyses of Latin American history and culture. The study begins by carefully demonstrating how Lezama breaks with the modern Latin American intellectual tradition that has explored the question of Latin America in terms of an identity politics and moves on to a close reading of the theories of aesthetics, representation, resistance, criticism, death, religion, and ethics that Lezama puts forth via his notion of the American expression. The work concludes by analyzing Lezama's politics of affirmation by scrutinizing his writings on Cuba and the Cuban Revolution. Secondary Moderns represents a thorough analysis of Lezama's cultural project, Latin American twentieth-century thought, and the complex intersection of Latin American studies and the post-Heideggerian philosophical tradition. Refuting labels that have too hastily been attached to Lezama's difficult works, those works have been dubbed elitist or transcendentalist; the text strives to establish Lezama as one of the great thinkers of historicity in the modern age. For while many critics have suggested that Latin American modernity is born via a reading and rewriting of Western discourses, Lezama's American expression is the site where this theory is most radically put into practice. The practice moreover permits one to understand not only Latin American cultural theory but Western thought itself; indeed, Lezama's aberrant reading of the West by its very aberrant character reveals aspects of the Western tradition never before explored.

Writing of the Formless Jaime Rodríguez Matos, 2017. This book proposes the formless as a way of thinking through the impasses of contemporary politics. The writing of the formless as it can be traced in the work of Lezama Lima and the Cuban Revolution is the point of departure in thinking through the relationship between politics and time.

Assimilation/generation/resurrection Ben A. Heller, 1997. Cuban author José Lezama Lima (1910-76) produced some of the most enigmatic and important poetry in the Spanish language. He did this during a turbulent moment in Cuban history: a period of social unrest, radical change in political systems, and attempts at cultural self-definition. While some have argued that his poetry evades these circumstances, Assimilation, Generation, Resurrection adopts a contextual approach and reveals the extent of Lezama's engagement with the defining political and cultural issues of his day. It also lays bare the underlying connection of this poetry to a weave of intertexts. Lezama's productive interaction with several traditions, intimidating in its philosophical scope and linguistic complexity, Lezama's poetry has received far less critical attention than his prose The present study rectifies this critical imbalance foregrounding the poetry while discussing three issues that link disparate areas of Lezama's literary production These issues cultural assimilation generation and resurrection are central elements in Lezama's poetics yet are also pertinent to wide ranging debates on Latin American cultural identity This study reads key poems from each of his published books of poetry using an interpretive approach forged from diverse yet cohering sources including Lezama's own theories on reading and writing After a brief methodological excursus and a first contextualization of Lezama's poetics vis a vis a number of other Cuban writers this study considers Lezama's early assimilation of a number of initiatory texts as well as his indirect but crucial response to the social concerns of the 1930s Assimilation Generation Resurrection makes clear that Lezama's poetry owes its existence to an engagement with cultural artifacts and social circumstances more generally Yet it is far more than a response It constantly attempts to go beyond generating the new at the intersection of the old and the as yet uncreated The result of this practice is a poetry that claims the power both to translate over distance and to resurrect by virtue of the image

Interrogando a Lezama Lima, 1971 Gay Cuban Nation Emilio Bejel, 2001-09 With Gay Cuban Nation Emilio Bejel looks at Cuba's markedly homoerotic culture through writings about homosexuality placing them in the social and political contexts that led up to the Cuban Revolution By reading against the grain of a wide variety of novels short stories autobiographies newspaper articles and films he maps out a fascinating argument about the way in which nationalism and other institutions of power struggle for an authoritative stance on homosexual issues Through close readings of writers such as Jos Mart Ofelia Rodr guez Acosta Carlos Montenegro Jos Lezama Lima Severo Sarduy Achy Obejas Sonia Rivera Vald s and Reinaldo Arenas Gay Cuban Nation shows ultimately that the specter of homosexuality is always lurking in the shadows of nationalist discourse

Reading Lezama's Paradiso William Rowlandson, 2007 This book focuses on the novel Paradiso of Cuban author Jos Lezama Lima 1910 1976 and in particular on the protagonist Jos Cem It examines the development of Cem according to the three distinct phases detailed by Lezama the placentario world of family protection the awakening to the exterior world and the subsequent friendships made and the eventual encounters with Oppiano Licario Cem's progression and his growing ability to interpret and create texts is analysed as analogous to the reader's progression through the novel In this respect both the reader and Cem are obliged to interpret the complex symbolism according to interpretative skills acquired from the text itself In a similar fashion the connection between Cem's guide Licario and the author Lezama is investigated By exploring these connections between reader and protagonist author and character the author of this work suggests a radical and hitherto unexplored approach to the text of Lezama

Secretaries of the Moon Wallace Stevens, José Rodríguez Feo, 1986 The letter from Jose Rodriguez Feo that prompted Stevens's poem was the third in a ten year

correspondence 1944-54 between the poet and the young Cuban who quickly became Stevens's most exciting correspondent. The two shared a Harvard education; both were anxious to see Stevens translated for a Cuban audience and each had an enduring admiration for Santayana whose awareness of the cultural tensions between the Northern and Southern hemispheres formed a basis for the protracted argument between Stevens as the practical Protestant father and the passionate Rodriguez Feo. The Cuban's descriptions of his life at the Villa Olga of his black and white cow Lucera and his mule Pompilio delighted Stevens as did his wide-ranging questions and pronouncements of literary matters. Unaware of the well-known Stevens reticence, Rodriguez Feo elicited a more informal playful response than Stevens's other correspondents. Formal salutations soon gave way to Dear Antillean, Dear Wallachio, Coyle and Filreis present the entire extant correspondence between the two men. The fifty-one Rodriguez Feo letters and ten of the numerous Stevens letters are printed here for the first time and the exchange between the two is unusually complete. The work includes a critical introduction and complete annotation of the letters.

The Dissidence of Reinaldo Arenas Sandro R. Barros, Rafael Ocasio, Angela L. Willis, 2022-02-22 International Latino Book Awards Honorable Mention Best Biography English American Educational Research Association Division B Curriculum Studies Outstanding Book Award Focusing on the didactic nature of the work of Reinaldo Arenas, this book demonstrates the Cuban writer's influence as public pedagogue, mentor, and social activist whose teaching on resistance to normative ideologies resonates in societies past, present, and future. Through a multidisciplinary approach bridging educational, historiographic, and literary perspectives, The Dissidence of Reinaldo Arenas illuminates how Arenas's work remains a cutting-edge source of inspiration for today's audiences, particularly LGBTQI readers. It shows how Arenas's aesthetics contain powerful insights for exploring dissensus, whether in the context of Cuba, broader Pan American, and Latinx U.S. queer movements of social justice or transnational citizenship politics. Carefully dissecting Arenas's themes against the backdrop of his political activity, this book presents the writer's poetry, novels, and plays as a curriculum of dissidence that provides models for socially engaged intellectual activism. Publication of this work made possible by a Sustaining the Humanities through the American Rescue Plan grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities.

Do the Americas Have a Common Literature? Gustavo Pérez Firmat, 1990 This volume takes an important step toward the discovery of a common critical heritage that joins the diverse literatures of North America and Latin America. Traditionally, literary criticism has treated the literature of the Americas as New World literature, examining it in relation to its Old World, usually European, counterparts. This collection of essays redirects the Eurocentric focus of earlier scholarship and identifies a distinctive pan American consciousness. The essays here place the literature of the Americas in a hemispheric context by drawing on approaches derived from various schools of contemporary critical thought: Marxism, feminism, culture studies, semiotics, reception, aesthetics, and poststructuralism. As part of their search for a distinctly New World literary idiom, the contributors engage not only the major North American and Spanish American writers but also such marginal or minor literatures as Chicano African American Brazilian and Qu becois In identifying areas of agreement and confluence this work lays the groundwork for finding historical ideological and cultural homogeneity in the imaginative writing of the Americas Contributors Lois Parkinson Zamora David T Haberly Jos David Sald var Antonio Ben tez Rojo Jos Piedra Doris Sommer Enrico Mario Sant Eduardo Gonz lez John Irwin Wendy B Faris Ren Prieto Jonathan Monroe Gustavo P rez Firmat
