L'homme Foudroyé:

L'homme Foudroyé Blaise Cendrars, 1960 The Embattled Self Leonard V. Smith, 2014-04-11 Situated at the intersection of military history and cultural history The Embattled Self draws on the testimony of French combatants to explore how combatants came to terms with the war Literary Medicine: Brain Disease and Doctors in Novels, Theater, and Film J. Bogousslavsky, S. Dieguez, 2013 An amazing and fascinating look at neurological conditions in fiction and film Classical and modern literature is full of patients with interesting neurological cognitive or psychiatric diseases often including detailed and accurate descriptions which suggests the authors were inspired by observations of real people In many cases these literary portrayals of diseases even predate their formal identification by medical science Fictional literature encompasses nearly all kinds of disorders affecting the nervous system with certain favorites such as memory loss and behavioral syndromes There are even unique observations that cannot be found in scientific and clinical literature because of the lack of appropriate studies Not only does literature offer a creative and humane look at disorders of the brain and mind but just as authors have been inspired by medicine and real disorders clinicians have also gained knowledge from literary depictions of the disorders they encounter in their daily practice This book provides an amazing and fascinating look at neurological conditions patients and doctors in literature and film in a way which is both nostalgic and novel Shades of Sexuality Amanda Leamon, 2023-11-27 Shades of Sexuality Colors and Sexual Identity in the Novels of Blaise Cendrars by Amanda Leamon is currently one of the few studies on the modernist poet and novelist Blaise Cendrars to be written in English Of interest to scholars of Cendrars Modernism Twentieth Century French Literature and early Twentieth Century Art and Humanities Shades of Sexuality is unique among the growing body of criticism and analysis of Cendrars fiction in that it explores the ways in which Cendrars makes use of the spectrum of fragmented colors and other elements of disguise and trompe l'oeil both as an artistic device in the construction of the fictional text and as a recurrent motif in the representation and exploration of the male subject and his relation to woman The author demonstrates how Cendrars effects intersections of gender in the text through the manipulation of colors and their associations with femininity ultimately undermining the illusory façade of male autonomy which dominates his fictional corpus Blaise Cendrars Eric Robertson, 2022-08-04 A new account of the life and work of innovative pseudonymous French poet novelist essayist and film writer Blaise Cendrars In 1912 the young Frédéric Louis Sauser arrived in France carrying an experimental poem and a new identity Blaise Cendrars was born Over the next half century Cendrars wrote innovative poems novels essays film scripts and autobiographical prose His groundbreaking books and collaborations with artists such as Sonia Delaunay and Fernand Léger remain astonishingly modern today Cendrars's writings reflect his insatiable curiosity his vast knowledge which was largely self taught and his love of everyday life In this new account Eric Robertson examines Cendrars's work against a turbulent historical background and reassesses his contribution to twentieth century literature Robertson shows how Cendrars is as relevant today as ever and deserves a wider readership in the English speaking world The Other Shore Michael Jackson,2013 In this book ethnographer and poet Michael Jackson addresses the interplay between modes of writing modes of understanding and modes of being in the world Drawing on literary anthropological and autobiographical sources he explores writing as a technics akin to ritual oral storytelling magic and meditation that enables us to reach beyond the limits of everyday life and forge virtual relationships and imagined communities Although Maurice Blanchot wrote of the impossibility of writing the passion and paradox of literature lies in its attempt to achieve the impossible a leap of faith that calls to mind the mystic s dark night of the soul unrequited love nostalgic or utopian longing and the ethnographer s attempt to know the world from the standpoint of others to put himself or herself in their place Every writer whether of ethnography poetry or fiction imagines that his or her own experiences echo the experiences of others and that despite the need for isolation and silence his or her work consummates a relationship with them Le Corbusier - L'Unité d habitation de Marseille / The Unité d Habitation in Marseilles Jacques Sbriglio,2015-04-24 the Unit in Marseille 1945 1952 was a pioneering achievement at a time when social housing in the post WWII years posed an immense problem Freed from restrictive regulations for the first time Le Corbusier was able to put into practice his concept of modern social housing A milestone of modern architecture and subject of controversial debate the Unit in Marseille continues to attract numerous visitors and students of architecture This volume is the latest addition to Birkh user s series of guides to Le Corbusier s most acclaimed buildings and includes an additional chapter on his Unit s in Rez les Nantes Briey en For t Firminy and Berlin The author a practising architect and well known le Corbusier specialist lives in Marseille and teaches at the Ecole d architecture de Marseille Luminy The Henry Miller Reader Henry Miller,2016-01-26 A collection of works spanning the entire career of great 20th century American writer Henry Miller edited and introduced by Lawrence Durrell In 1958 when Henry Miller was elected to membership in the American Institute of Arts and Letters the citation described him as The veteran author of many books whose originality and richness of technique are matched by the variety and daring of his subject matter His boldness of approach and intense curiosity concerning man and nature are unequalled in the prose literature of our times It is most fitting that this anthology of the best of Henry Miller should have been assembled by one of the first among Miller s contemporaries to recognize his genius the eminent British writer Lawrence Durrell Drawing material from a dozen different books Durrell has traced the main line and principal themes of the single endless autobiography which is Henry Miller s life work I suspect writes Durrell in his Introduction that Miller s final place will be among those towering anomalies of authorship like Whitman or Blake who have left us not simply works of art but a corpus of ideas which motivate and influence a whole cultural pattern Earlier H L Mencken had said his is one of the most beautiful prose styles today and the late Sir Herbert Read had written that what makes Miller distinctive among modern writers is his ability to combine without confusion the aesthetic and prophetic functions Included are stories portraits of persons and places philosophical essays and
