The Liberated Bride Abraham B. Yehoshua, 2003 As Yohanan Rivlin a professor at Haifa University embarks on research into recent Algerian history with the help of a student a young Arab bride from a Galilee village he becomes obsessed with The Extra A.B. Yehoshua, 2016-02-04 An experiment is under way in Tel Aviv and Jerusalem a his son s failed marriage woman recently widowed is starting a trial period in assisted living mainly to placate her over anxious son whilst in Jerusalem her daughter Noga a young harpist returns from her job with a Dutch orchestra to look after the family apartment To enliven her stay Noga's brother finds work for her playing roles as an extra in film TV and in the opera Carmen The random roles Noga is thrust into resonate strangely with her own life which she begins to re evaluate Central to her past is the fact that she refused to have children resulting in the break up of her marriage No one in her family understood her motives for not wanting children and everyone has a different explanation for it Now a chance encounter with her former husband reveals his continuing powerful love as well as a shocking deed she committed during their marriage But Noga is a free spirit neither tied to the past nor defined by it and always keen to push boundaries She lives for her music and is willing to go wherever it takes her The three month experiment proves as much of a test for her as for her mother and both are radically transformed by the end A B Yehoshua is as creative humorous and provocative as ever in The Extra exploring themes familiar to him of love family relationships and artistic ambitions set mainly in an ever changing Jerusalem The Lover A.B. Yehoshua, 2012-05-14 A husband seeks his wife s lover who is lost in the turbulence of Israel s Yom Kippur War As the story of his quest unfolds and grows in intensity the main protagonists are drawn into the search and transformed by it through the different perspective of husband wife teenage daughter young Arab emerges a complex picture of the uneasy present the tension between generations between Israel's past and future between Jews and Arabs The Lover was A B Yehoshua's first novel and immediately brought him international recognition It is brilliant compassionate and highly original and as accomplished as all his later works The Retrospective A.B. Yehoshua, 2013-02-14 An ageing film director Yair Moses has been invited to the Spanish pilgrimage city of Santiago de Compostela to attend a retrospective of his early work As he and Ruth his leading actress and former muse settle into their room at the parador Moses notices a painting depicting the classical story of an elderly prisoner nursing at the breast of a young woman For the first time in decades Moses recalls a similar scene from one of his early films which led to his dramatic estrangement from his screenwriter Trigano Trigano s spirit haunts the retrospective as the director and actress re live each film They question artistic decisions and are surprised at how differently each remembers the past slowly revealing to each other past reasons for decisions taken at the time A troubled Moses decides to seek out the elusive Trigano to settle their differences and to propose a new collaboration But the reluctant screenwriter demands an outrageous price for this reconciliation Moses must commit to a deeply disturbing act of atonement Ultimately reality and the sublime mingle when Moses has an epiphany as he nears the end of his quest and the source of his imagination Searching witty and trenchant this work by an internationally respected and original writer is a meditation on the roots of artistic inspiration the limits and the truth of memory and the struggle for artistic creation The Retrospective Imagination of A. B. Yehoshua Yael Halevi-Wise, 2020-12-15 Once referred to by the New York Times as the Israeli Faulkner A B Yehoshua s fiction invites an assessment of Israel s Jewish inheritance and the moral and political options that the country currently faces in the Middle East The Retrospective Imagination of A B Yehoshua is an insightful overview of the fiction nonfiction and hundreds of critical responses to the work of Israel's leading novelist Instead of an exhaustive chronological biographical account of Yehoshua's artistic growth Yael Halevi Wise calls for a systematic appreciation of the author's major themes and compositional patterns Specifically she argues for reading Yehoshua's novels as reflections on the condition of Israel constructed multifocally to engage four intersecting levels of signification psychological sociological historical and historiosophic Each of the book s seven chapters employs a different interpretive method to showcase how Yehoshua s constructions of character psychology social relations national history and historiosophic allusions to traditional Jewish symbols manifest themselves across his novels The book ends with a playful dialogue in the style of Yehoshua's masterpiece Mr Mani that interrogates his definition of Jewish identity Masterfully written with full control of all the relevant materials Halevi Wise's assessment of Yehoshua will appeal to students and scholars of modern Jewish literature and Jewish studies Five Seasons A.B. Yehoshua, 2012-05-14 In the autumn Molkho s wife dies His years of loving care have ended and his newfound freedom proves unlike the one he had imagined It is an uneasy freedom filled with the erotic fantasies of a man who must fall in love but whose longing for meaningful relationships is held hostage by the spirit of his wife Five Seasons is a subtle and often comic novel about love and renewal and the determination of a seasoned heart to love A Late Divorce A.B. Yehoshua, 2012-05-14 Yehuda Kaminka a retired teacher returns to Israel from the U S to divorce his estranged wife who was committed to a mental asylum after she stabbed him This impending divorce inevitably throws into turmoil the couple's three children and grandson Yehuda's nine days leading up to Passover are remembered by different members of the family A B Yehoshua s brilliance reveals itself in these different voices each a minor masterpiece A Journey to the End of the Millennium A.B. Yehoshua, 2012-07-05 The year is 999 A D Christians in Europe are preparing themselves for the arrival of the Messiah at the millennium and religious fervour is in the air Sailing from the North African port of Tangier to a small distant town called Paris are a Jewish merchant Ben Attar his two beloved wives and his Arab partner Abu Lutfi They have come for a meeting with their third partner the widower Raphael Abulafia who has been forced to turn his back on their previous trading partnership because of his new wife s distrust of the dual marriage of Ben Attar The latter turns this annual trading voyage into a personal quest to legitimise his second wife restore his honour and equally important to show others the richness and humanity in his way of life A confrontation ensues between people of different cultures whose ways of living and loving are so different and yet who are of the same religion believe in the same God and in the same morality Thus we enter a profound human drama whose moral conflicts of fidelity and desire resonate deeply with our times A B Yehoshua has imaginatively recreated a medieval world with its merchant trade in great depth and sensuous detail His evocation of one man's love is lyrical erotic even and A Journey to the End of the Millennium will rank with the best of Yehoshua s work The Only Daughter A.B. Yehoshua, 2022-07-07 Rachele Luzzatto is the only daughter of a Jewish family in northern Italy Curious and intelligent she is caught between her interest in religions her own and others and her father s violent rejection of them all A disagreement ensues between them about the part she is given in the school nativity play At the same time she discovers that her father is ill the severity of his illness is only revealed to her very gradually while her teacher various members of her family and even her rabbi offer her wide ranging and humane support A B Yehoshua paints a complex and humorous picture of conflicting religious identities and historical memory in this tender character study of a young girl at the threshold of adulthood Open Heart A.B. Yehoshua, 2012-07-05 Open Heart is a psychological tour de fource about love and the nature of man's soul From the opening lines of this first person narrative the reader is propelled into the mind of Dr Benjamin Rubin an ambitious young internist who is jockeying for position with the hospital s top surgeons But it isn t until Benjy learns that his position has been terminated and that he has been selected to accompany the hospital administrator and his wife to India to retrieve their ailing daughter that Yehoshua sets his hero on The Jewish Decadence Jonathan Freedman, 2021-04-19 As Jewish writers artists and a journey of self discovery intellectuals made their way into Western European and Anglo American cultural centers they encountered a society obsessed with decadence An avant garde movement characterized by self consciously artificial art and literature philosophic pessimism and an interest in nonnormative sexualities decadence was also a smear whereby Jews were viewed as the source of social and cultural decline In The Jewish Decadence Jonathan Freedman argues that Jewish engagement with decadence played a major role in the emergence of modernism and the making of Jewish culture from the 1870s to the present The first to tell this sweeping story Freedman demonstrates the centrality of decadence to the aesthetics of modernity and its inextricability from Jewishness Freedman recounts a series of diverse and surprising episodes that he insists do not belong solely to the past but instead reveal that the identification of Jewishness with decadence persists today Christian Spirituality Arthur Holder, 2009-09-10 Christian Spirituality The Classics is a unique and comprehensive guide to thirty key Christian spirituality texts Ranging from Origen and Augustine to Jonathan Edwards Thr se of Lisieux and Thomas Merton it offers a view of the texts which is founded in scholarship but which also presents them as living documents that invite even compel contemplative reflection and existential response Each chapter briefly describes the classic text s author and audience gives a synopsis of its contents suggests some of its influence in history and then explores aspects of the text s meaning for readers today Key themes include What is the meaning of life How can human beings find truth How can they discover who they really are How can they live together in peace How can they live more fully in God's presence in this world and be united with God in the world to come The scholars who have written these chapters are all experts on their respective topics but they wear their learning lightly Anyone wishing to discover the riches of Christian spirituality will find this the ideal introduction and should be able to progress to a deeper understanding of the texts themselves Silence of a Poet A.B. Yehoshua, 2021-02-01 This new edition of A B Yehoshua s novellas and short stories includes two stories which did not previously appear in the hardback edition published in 1988 and no longer includes Mr Mani which in the intervening years has been developed into a prize winning novel The development of the author's style can be traced from its dark beginnings in stories such as The Yatir Evening Express about a village which decides to vent its frustration at its isolation and insignificance on the evening express Isolation and loneliness are central to Yehoshua's concerns whether it be people s isolation from each other from their community or from their family. The pain of this isolation is intense as in the title story in which the distance between an ageing poet and his simple son is agonising In Facing the Forests a fire watcher s isolation gives rise to deep longings for tragedy a story which has since been seen to symbolise the relationship between Jew and Arab in Israel Several of the stories deal with people thrust into positions of responsibility and the feelings of frustration and impotence which ensue are disturbing murderous even In Three Days and a Child a man agrees to care for the three year old son of a former lover Those three days are marked by a strange detachment and sadistic heart stopping neglect of the child The stories are ironic and understated and the pace masterly This collection confirms Yehoshua s talent as a major short story writer He has been awarded the prestigious Israel Prize for his entire uvre Fashion Business Estelle Hamburger, 1976 Poetic Trespass Lital Levy, 2017-05-09 A Palestinian Israeli poet declares a new state whose language Homelandic is a combination of Arabic and Hebrew A Jewish Israeli author imagines a language plague that infects young Hebrew speakers with old world accents and sends the narrator in search of his Arabic heritage In Poetic Trespass Lital Levy brings together such startling visions to offer the first in depth study of the relationship between Hebrew and Arabic in the literature and culture of Israel Palestine More than that she presents a captivating portrait of the literary imagination s power to transgress political boundaries and transform ideas about language and belonging Blending history and literature Poetic Trespass traces the interwoven life of Arabic and Hebrew in Israel Palestine from the turn of the twentieth century to the present exposing the two languages intimate entanglements in contemporary works of prose poetry film and visual art by both Palestinian and Jewish citizens of Israel In a context where intense political and social pressures work to identify Jews with Hebrew and Palestinians with Arabic Levy finds writers who have boldly crossed over this divide to create literature in the language of their other as well as writers who bring the two languages into dialogue to rewrite them from within Exploring such acts of poetic trespass Levy introduces new readings of canonical and lesser known authors including Emile Habiby Hayyim Nahman Bialik Anton Shammas Saul Tchernichowsky Samir Naggash Ronit Matalon Salman Masalha A B Yehoshua and Almog Behar By revealing uncommon visions of what it means to write in Arabic and Hebrew Poetic Trespass will change the way we understand literature and culture in the shadow of the Israeli Palestinian conflict

Post-Apocalyptic Culture Teresa Heffernan, 2008-12-04 In Post Apocalyptic Culture Teresa Heffernan poses the question what is at stake in a world that no longer believes in the power of the end Although popular discourse increasingly understands apocalypse as synonymous with catastrophe historically in both its religious and secular usage apocalypse was intricately linked to the emergence of a better world to revelation and to disclosure In this interdisciplinary study Heffernan uses modernist and post modernist novels as evidence of the diminished faith in the existence of an inherently meaningful end Probing the cultural and historical reasons for this shift in the understanding of apocalypse she also considers the political implications of living in a world that does not rely on revelation as an organizing principle With fascinating readings of works by William Faulkner Don DeLillo Ford Madox Ford Toni Morrison E M Forster Salman Rushdie D H Lawrence and Angela Carter Post Apocalyptic Culture is a provocative study of how twentieth century culture and society responded to a world in which a belief in the end had been exhausted The Routledge Companion to Theatre-Fiction Graham Wolfe, 2023-11-14 Novelists have long been attracted to theatre Some have pursued success on the stage but many have sought to combine these worlds entering theatre through their fiction setting stages on their novels pages and casting actors directors and playwrights as their protagonists The Routledge Companion to Theatre Fiction has convened an international community of scholars to explore the remarkable array of novelists from many eras and parts of the world who have created fiction from the stuff of theatre asking what happens to theatre on the pages of novels and what happens to novels when they collaborate with theatre From J W Goethe to Louisa May Alcott Mikhail Bulgakov Virginia Woolf and Margaret Atwood some of history s most influential novelists have written theatre fiction and this Companion discusses many of these figures from new angles But it also spotlights writers who have received less critical attention such as Dorothy Leighton Agust n de Rojas Villandrando Ronald Firbank Syed Mustafa Siraj Li Yu and Vicente Blasco Iba ez bringing their work into conversation with a vital field A valuable resource for students scholars and admirers of both theatre and novels The Routledge Companion to Theatre Fiction offers a wealth of new perspectives on topics of increasing critical concern including intermediality theatricality antitheatricality mimesis diegesis and performativity Violent Accounts Robert N Kraft, 2014-03-21 Violent Accounts presents a compelling study of how ordinary people commit extraordinary acts of violence and how perpetrators and victims manage in the aftermath Grounded in extensive qualitative analysis of perpetrator testimony the volume reveals the individual experiences of perpetrators as well as general patterns of influence that lead to collective violence Drawing on public testimony from the amnesty hearings of the South African Truth and Reconciliation Commission the book interweaves hundreds of hours of testimony from seventy four violent perpetrators in apartheid South Africa including twelve major cases that involved direct interactions between victims and perpetrators. The analysis of perpetrator testimony covers all tiers on the hierarchy of organized violence from executives who translated political doctrine into general strategies to managers who translated these general strategies into specific plans to the staff the foot soldiers who carried out the destructive plans of these managers Vivid and accessible Violent Accounts is a work of innovative scholarship that transcends the particulars of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission to reveal broader themes and unexpected insights about perpetrators of collective violence the confrontations between victims and perpetrators in the aftermath of this violence the reality of multiple truths the complexities of reconciliation and lessons of restorative justice The Tunnel Abraham B. Yehoshua, 2020 A NEW YORK TIMES EDITORS CHOICE A FINALIST FOR THE NATIONAL IEWISH BOOK AWARD From the award winning internationally acclaimed Israeli author a suspenseful and poignant story of a family coping with the sudden mental decline of their beloved husband and father an engineer who they discover is involved in an ominous secret military project Until recently Zvi Luria was a healthy man in his seventies an engineer living in Tel Aviv with his wife Dina visiting with their two children whenever possible Now he is showing signs of early dementia and his work on the tunnels of the Trans Israel Highway is no longer possible To keep his mind sharp Zvi decides to take a job as the unpaid assistant to Asael Maimoni a young engineer involved in a secret military project a road to be built inside the massive Ramon Crater in the northern Negev Desert The challenge of the road however is compounded by strange circumstances Living secretly on the proposed route amid ancient Nabatean ruins is a Palestinian family under the protection of an enigmatic archaeological preservationist Zvi rises to the occasion proposing a tunnel that would not dislodge the family But when his wife falls sick circumstances begin to spiral The Tunnel wry wistful and a tour de force of vital social commentary is Yehoshua at his finest Men in Love Luisa Passerini, 2012-07 It has often been assumed that Europeans invented and had the exclusive monopoly over courtly and romantic love commonly considered to be the highest form of relations between men and women This view was particularly prevalent between 1770 and the mid twentieth century but was challenged in the 1960s when romantic love came to be seen as a universal sentiment that can be found in all cultures in the world However there remains the historical problem that the Europeans used this concept of love as a fundamental part of their self image over a long period traces of it still remain and it became very much caught up in the concept of marriage This book challenges the underlying Eurocentrism of this notion while exploring in a more general sense the connection between identity and emotions
