The Esthetics Basis of the Greek Art of the Fifth and Fourth Centuries B.C. Rhys Carpenter,1959 The Emergence of the Classical Style in Greek Sculpture Richard Neer,2010-10-22 In this wide ranging study Richard Neer offers a new way to understand the epoch making sculpture of classical Greece Working at the intersection of art history archaeology literature and aesthetics he reveals a people fascinated with the power of sculpture to provoke wonder in beholders Wonder not accuracy realism naturalism or truth was the supreme objective of Greek sculptors Neer traces this way of thinking about art from the poems of Homer to the philosophy of Plato Then through meticulous accounts of major sculpture from around the Greek world he shows how the demand for wonder inducing statues gave rise to some of the greatest masterpieces of Greek art Rewriting the history of Greek sculpture in Greek terms and restoring wonder to a sometimes dusty subject The Emergence of the Classical Style in Greek Sculpture is an indispensable guide for anyone interested in the art of sculpture or the history of the ancient world The Journal of Philosophy ,1962 Covers topics in philosophy psychology and scientific methods Vols 31 include A Bibliography of philosophy 1933 The Journal of Hellenic Studies ,1922 The Representation of Space in Graeco-Roman Art Michael Koortbojian,2023-11-06 This book assesses the role of relief in the representation of space in Graeco Roman artistic practice and its study from Winckelmann to the mid twentieth century when Classical art developed as a theoretical discipline The role of relief in the history of ancient sculpture has long been acknowledged yet the problems posed by an engagement with the representation of space have not been a subject of specific and sustained inquiry Neither a conventional history nor a comprehensive historiography this book traces the study of relief of its formal character its artistic purpose its aesthetic significance and its historical treatment The contribution to scholarship is three fold 1 By means of a wide array of examples the book demonstrates that the visual strategies employed to represent space during the Graeco Roman period were a continuously evolving repertory tied to the refinement of techniques and the transformation of styles that those techniques brought into being 2 It examines ideas now commonplace based on scholarship now long neglected if not completely forgotten And 3 it reveals how competing interpretations of the representation of space in relief elaborated new approaches to the monuments and their representations The Art Bulletin ,1929 Includes section Notes and reviews Michigan Library Bulletin ,1916 Michigan Library Bulletin Michigan State Library,1919
