Estonia And The Estonians Studies Of Nationalities:

East and Central European History Writing in Exile 1939-1989 Maria Zadencka, Andrejs Plakans, Andreas Lawaty, 2015-07-28 The studies in East and Central European History Writing in Exile 1939 1989 all written by experts in the history of the region give answers to the comprehensive question of how the experience of exile during the time of the Nazi and Communist totalitarianism influenced and still influences history writing and the historical consciousness both in the countries hosting exile historians as well as in the home countries which these historians left The volume comprises difficult to access information about the organization and the work of historians exiled from the Baltic States including Baltic Germans Belorussia Ukraine and Poland And it provides reflections on the intellectuals networking between their own national and the foreign traditions in the exile Contributors are Olavi Arens Mirosław Filipowicz Jörg Hackmann Volodymyr Kravchenko Oleg atyszonek Andreas Lawaty Iveta Leitné Artur M. Karski Andrzej Nowak Gert von Pistohlkors Andrejs Plakans Toivo Raun Rafa Stobiecki Mirosław A. Supruniuk Jaan Undusk and Maria Zadencka Estonia and the Estonians Toivo U Raun, 2002 Between Giants Prit Buttar, 2013-05-20 During World War II Latvia Lithuania and Estonia found themselves trapped between the giants of the Soviet Union and Nazi Germany Over the course of the war these states were repeatedly occupied by different forces and local government organizations and individuals were forced to choose between supporting the occupying forces or forming partisan units to resist their occupation Devastated during the German invasion these states then became the site of some of the most vicious fighting during the Soviet counter attack and push towards Berlin Many would be caught up in the bitter fighting in the region and in particular in the huge battles for the Courland Bridgehead during Operation Bagration when hundreds of thousands of soldiers would fight and die in the last year of the war By the end of the war death and deportation had cost the Baltic States over 20 per cent of their total population and Soviet occupation was to see the iron curtain descend on the region for four decades Using numerous first hand accounts and detailed archival research Prit Buttar weaves a magisterial account of the bitter fighting on the Eastern Front and the three small states whose fates were determined by the fortunes and misfortunes of war The Nationality Question in the Estonian Evangelical Lutheran Church, 1918-1939 Mikko Ketola, 2000 Central and East European Politics Sharon L. Wolchik, Jane Leftwich Curry, 2008 This long needed text explores the other half of Europe the new and future members of the European Union along with the problems and potential they bring to the region and to the world stage Clear and comprehensive it offers an authoritative and up to date analysis of the transformations and realities in Central and Eastern Europe the Baltics and Ukraine Divided into two parts the book presents a set of comparative country case studies as well as thematic chapters on key issues including EU and NATO expansion the economic transition and its social ramifications the role of women persistent problems of ethnicity and nationalism and political reform Leading scholars provide the historical context for the current situation of each country in the region They explain how communism ended and how democratic politics has emerged or is struggling to emerge in its wake how individual countries have transformed their economies how their populations have been affected by rapid and wrenching change and how foreign policy making has evolved For students and specialists alike this book will be an invaluable resource on the newly democratizing states of Europe Encyclopedia of the Developing World Thomas M. Leonard, 2013-10-18 A RUSA 2007 Outstanding Reference Title The Encyclopedia of the Developing World is a comprehensive work on the historical and current status of developing countries Containing more than 750 entries the Encyclopedia encompasses primarily the years since 1945 and defines development broadly addressing not only economics but also civil society and social progress Entries cover the most important theories and measurements of development relate historical events movements and concepts to development both internationally and regionally where applicable examine the contributions of the most important persons and organizations and detail the progress made within geographic regions and by individual countries Ancient Song Recovered Mimi S. Daitz, Veljo Tormis, 2004 Known for over thirty years in the Soviet Union and Eastern Europe the music of Estonian composer Veljo Tormis born 1930 was not heard in the West until the 1990s Tormis has written more than 200 choral works an opera a ballet cantata thirty film scores vocal and instrumental chamber music solo songs and several orchestral pieces Educated at the Tallinn and Moscow Conservatories Tormis has integrated the techniques of 20th century art music with the melodies of the regilaul or ancient Estonian folksong Ancient Song Recovered The Life and Music of Veljo Tormis is the first book in a Western language about a master of 20th century choral music The book includes chapters on Estonian history Tormis's music helped inspire the national independence movement the regilaul and the Estonian choral tradition followed by the biography and discussion of major works Also included is an article by a leading Estonian scholar as well as an article by and an interview with Tormis all of which appear for the first time in English A works list CD discography glossary of names and CD of sound examples conclude this volume by musicologist and choral conductor Mimi S Daitz It will interest scholars of contemporary music the general music public and persons concerned with Soviet cultural history Eastern Europe Bibliography, 1993 A selective work that documents the formative impact of the region's earlier history Includes reference aids and bibliographies general and descriptive histories of the land peoples and economies and works depicting intellectual and cultural life International Journal of the Sociology of Language, 1999 Case Study Soviet Republ Tonu Parming, Elmar Jarvesoo, 2019-04-11 This in depth study of the Estonian Soviet socialist republics SSR describes the current Estonian scene and analyzes the postwar Soviet years concentrating on the factors that have led Estonia to its present status Reference Library of European America Cengage Gale, 1998-06 Presents information on all aspects of European American life including politics employment and income education religion literature performing arts science and medicine and sports Estonia's Transition to the EU Marju Lauristin, Peeter Vihalemm, 2020-11-25 Two decades on from the start of the Singing Revolution and five years on from the Baltic States entry to the European Union the time is ripe to take stock of Estonia's remarkable transition from Soviet Republic to EU member state and address the challenges some new some ongoing and uncertainties that have arisen following the country's entry to the EU This book locates the post accession period within the broader sweep of post communist transition and diagnoses the problems facing Estonia as the global economic downturn takes hold and a new mood of pessimism reigns in Central and Eastern Europe Until recently Estonia enjoyed an international reputation as an emerging high growth tiger economy and reform pioneer not least in the sphere of IT This economic success story however masked the continued problematic political and social legacies of the Soviet period including the issue of ethnic integration which again hit the headlines following riots in Tallinn in April 2007 This fully up to date appraisal the first in English covers all of the key issues and will appeal to specialists in Baltic and Central and Eastern European politics and society as well as to anyone with an interest in European integration more generally This book was published as a special issue of the Journal of Baltic Studies

Ideology and National Identity in Post-communist Foreign Policy Rick Fawn, 2004-03-01 A comparative analysis of the foreign policies of eight post communist states which considers the extent to which official communist ideology has been replaced by nationalism and establishes how these states express their national identities through foreign policy

Guide to the Republics of the Former Soviet Union David T. Twining, 1993-07-27 Chronicles the emergence of fifteen new states from the former Soviet Union Discusses the governments cultures and religions of this new Eurasia

Development and Semi-periphery Renato Boschi, Carlos Henrique Santana, 2013-11-01 Development and Semi periphery presents a collection of articles that focus on comparative analysis of development trajectories in the semi peripheral countries of South America and Central Eastern Europe As opposed to the transitology studies that were prevalent in the 1990s and that treated the neoliberal context in these two regions separately the articles in this book instead offer a new comparative analysis focusing on the consequences of neoliberal reforms and the new actors that deal with their results The essays discuss the various forms of state that have unfolded in different peripheral countries their role in the social engineering of economic models and social policies and the impact of state capacities and ideas on institutional innovation The volume also compares transformations in political culture collective identities and contentious politics in both areas

Gale Encyclopedia of Multicultural America: Acadians-Iranian Americans Rudolph J. Vecoli, Judy Galens, Anna Jean Sheets, Robyn V. Young, 1995 Essays on approximately 150 culture groups of the U S from Acadians to Yupiats covering their history acculturation and assimilation family and community dynamics language and religion

The American Bibliography of Slavic and East European Studies for 1994 Patt Leonard, Rebecca Routh, 1997-05-31 This text provides a source of citations to North American scholarships relating specifically to the area of Eastern Europe and the former Soviet Union It indexes fields of scholarship such as the humanities arts technology and life sciences and all kinds of scholarship such as PhDs

Roots of Rural Ethnic Mobilisation David W. Howell, Gert von Pistohlkors, Ellen Wiegandt, 1993 The 7th volume in the series which studies some of the characteristic historic non dominant ethnic groups of Europe and the ways in which their lives survival and development were affected by governments and the institutions of the state The New Eurasia David T. Twining, 1993-07-30 This unique compilation on the Eurasian states of the former Soviet Union introduces the little known yet strategic heartland of the world Some of the data included has never before been published none has been assembled in such a manner in which interrelationships of culture history diplomacy economics and defense are so clear and understandable Following an overview of the Soviet Union and its recent history the guide examines each region and each state Data is provided on the political structure and policies the military and the economy The remnants of the Soviet Union such as the military space complex are described as are the key emerging leaders The volume concludes with a bibliography and general subject index As a guide to the new republics no other source reference or text has accomplished this comprehensive undertaking It is indispensable for students and scholars alike and all who need to understand the contours of the new Eurasia with which the world must live for the foreseeable future A unique compilation on the new Eurasian states of the former Soviet Union Region, State and Identity in Central and Eastern Europe Judy Batt, Katarzyna Wolczuk, 2013-01-11 The papers that comprise this collection examine the role of competing European national ethnic and regional identities over the introduction of new regional levels of government in the former Soviet and now Central and Eastern European states
