No Regrets in the Evening of Life Neville Buch, 2018-03-14 The type of local and school history before the reader may be unfamiliar It is a definitive and scholarly history in the style of many grammar school histories in Queensland Although it is not unknown for Australian public and private schooling it is unique for Queensland state schools By saying it is a definitive and scholarly history what is meant is not that the history is complete only that it reaches decisive conclusions in a substantive treatment In this particular case the historian is someone who has been trained at the level of a higher degree

Kate Roberts Derec Llwyd Morgan, 1991-01-01 A reprint of the U of Oklahoma Press edition of 1952 with a new forward An introduction to the work of Roberts 1891 1985 the outstanding Welsh short story writer of the 20th century a powerful novelist and an important cultural figure Distributed by Books International Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Kate Roberts Katie Gramich, 2011-02-15 When the Welsh writer Kate Roberts died in 1985 at the age of 94 the Times obituary noted that she was felt by many to rank with Maupassant as one of the leading European short story writers Roberts is widely acknowledged as the major twentieth century novelist and short story writer to have written in the Welsh language being known and revered in Wales as the Queen of our Literature Much of her work has been translated into English and other languages and yet she remains today relatively little known and under appreciated in comparison for example with other female contemporaries who wrote in English such as Virginia Woolf Katherine Mansfield and Elizabeth Bowen This volume seeks to redress the balance bringing the life and work of this extraordinary novelist playwright short story writer journalist and ardent political campaigner to the attention of the wider world audience that the sheer quality of her writing deserves Women's Writing, Englishness and National and Cultural Identity M. Joannou, 2012-07-17 An original mapping of women's writing in the 1940s and 1950s this book looks at Englishness and national identity in women's writing and includes writing from Scotland Wales Ireland the Indian subcontinent and Africa The authors discussed include Virginia Woolf Daphne Du Maurier Doris Lessing and Muriel Spark The Critic Jeannette Leonard Gilder, Joseph Benson Gilder, 1906 The World of Kate Roberts Kate Roberts, 1991 Kate Roberts 1891 1985 was the foremost twentieth century prose writer in the Welsh language She produced a considerable body of fiction seven novels and novellas and nine collections of short stories and was active in the Welsh Nationalist Party as a publisher and a literary and political journalist A contemporary of D H Lawrence Katherine Mansfield and Sherwood Anderson she created the modern form of the short story in Welsh and through six decades of writing earned a place with this century's masters of the genre The World of Kate Roberts offers in English a large selection of stories many previously untranslated that span her long writing career Joseph P Clancy's translations convey the intensity the insight and the distinctive prose style with which this Welsh language writer illuminates her characters often heroic ordinary lives This book contains twenty seven short stories two short novels and Tea in the Heather eight linked stories of childhood in North Wales at the turn of the century Excerpts from her autobiography provide background for the non Welsh reader and an Introduction presents Kate Roberts life and work largely through her own words The experience of poverty is the vital center of Kate Roberts fiction material poverty in the slate quarrying villages of North Wales and the coal mining communities in the south at the turn of the century and during the Depression and the cultural moral and spiritual poverty of contemporary life in a small town This poverty defines the experiences and tests the resources of her characters Her concern was to record to examine and to celebrate without sentimentality the life of the close knit society in which she had grown up What is most characteristically Welsh in Roberts vision is that fellowship membership in a community is essential to the realization of the human self We never saw riches observed Kate Roberts but we had riches that no one can take away from us the riches of a language and a culture Author note Joseph P Clancy a poet and a leading translator from the Welsh is Professor Emeritus of English Literature and Theatre Arts at Marymount Manhattan College

The Fiction of Emyr Humphreys Linden Peach,2011-01-15 For over half a century Emyr Humphreys s work as a novelist short story writer poet dramatist and television producer has been extraordinarily impressive This pioneering and stimulating book considers Humphreys s fiction from a range of contemporary critical perspectives and stresses its relevance to the 21st century Drawing on the work of leading modern cultural and literary theorists such as Jacques Derrida and Homi Bhabha psychoanalytic critics such as Melanie Klein and Jacqueline Rose and gender theorists such as Judith Butler Linden Peach brings fresh perspectives to the content structure and developing nature of Humphreys s work employing for example historicist post historicist new geography psychoanalytic and feminist and postfeminist frameworks Through detailed readings which highlight subjects such as gender identity contested masculinities war pacifism strangeness and otherness problematic father and daughter relationships and cultural discourse in complex linguistic environments Peach suggests that Humphreys s work is best understood as dramatic dissident and or dilemma fiction rather than by the term Protestant novelist which Humphreys used to describe himself at the outset of his career Stressing how Humphreys came to see himself as more of a protesting novelist Peach examines how the dilemmas around which his fiction is based originally linked to Humphreys's definition of himself as a protestant writer increasingly become sites in which controversial and often dark themes are explored This approach to Humphreys's work is pursued through exciting readings of some of Humphreys's best and lesser known works including A Man's Estate A Toy Epic Outside the House of Baal the Best of Friends salt of the Earth Unconditional Surrender The Gift of a Daughter Natives Ghosts and Strangers Old people are a Problem The shop and The Woman at the Window The Oxford Encyclopedia of British Literature David Scott Kastan, 2006-03-03 From folk ballads to film scripts this new five volume encyclopedia covers the entire history of British literature from the seventh century to the present focusing on the writers and the major texts of what are now the United Kingdom and the Republic of Ireland In five hundred substantial essays written by major scholars the Encyclopedia of British Literature includes biographies of nearly four hundred individual authors and a hundred topical essays with detailed analyses of particular themes movements genres and institutions whose impact upon the writing or the reading of literature was significant An ideal companion to The Oxford Encyclopedia of American Literature this set will prove invaluable for students scholars and general readers For more information including a complete table of contents and list of contributors please visit www.oup.com/us/eb1 Title News, 1950 Mothers, Wives and Changing Lives Sally Baker, Brian J Brown, 2011-02-15 Despite the great changes that the twentieth century brought to the lives and roles of the women of rural Wales there has been scant attention paid to the topic by social scientists and historians even within Wales Mothers Wives and Changing Lives rectifies that mistake drawing on a wealth of family stories about women's roles in education the church and the family in order to address significant gaps in our knowledge of women and Welsh culture The History of British Women's Writing, 1920-1945 M. Joannou, 2016-01-03 Featuring sixteen contributions from recognized authorities in their respective fields this superb new mapping of women's writing ranges from feminine middlebrow novels to Virginia Woolf's modernist aesthetics from women's literary journalism to crime fiction and from West End drama to the literature of Scotland Ireland and Wales The Oxford Guide to Contemporary World Literature John Sturrock, 1997 opinion the Guide offers a discriminating and sometimes controversial view of a broad range of contemporary literatures MURDERS LIKE PYRAMIDS GILLIAN OGILVIE, 2013 Tubby has covered up three unrelated deaths Or are they Until DI Flick Fraser is told the secret of the pyramids she cannot connect the crimes and trace The Man behind the murders Further deaths spread the investigation far from Flick's home patch British Working Class women authors (born before 1962) a list Stefan Szczelkun, 2025-06-07 A collection of Wikipedia articles edited reformatted and with additions In chronological order References and sections on non literary activity are sometimes omitted hopefully not to the point of misrepresenting the author which might include feminist or political activism To my surprise the biographical material on Wikipedia was sometimes mesmerising although it was uneven Where there were gaps I have tried to fill them from other sources Refer back to the wikipedia articles for more context and references in some cases and if you have a verified source of information please update the Wikipedia article Wikipedia is published under a creative commons licence So this compilation also carries a creative commons licence

Introduction

Looking through Sarah Richardson s Writing on the Line 1996 I was struck by how many of the working class women writers were from North America and how many more were poets Howard Slater had made a list of British working class male novelists and I selected British woman writers from Writing on the Line and found that most of them now have Wikipedia pages I first made a list of links Wanting to take this further I first looked to focus on novels and short story writers but this category started to break up as many writers wrote in many idioms producing fact fiction poetry plays screenwriting and journalism I decided on an arbitrary cut off point of writers born before 1962 When I first made the list I was thinking how few working class women novelists had been published in this period But then the lists of books by each author started to stack up and there s plenty to read and much that I missed even really hearing about Of course it focuses on the most successful others who produced a community published autobiography or self published novel did not get a Wikipedia page and they should really be included every life counts Others only published an autobiography perhaps in the last years of life but were extraordinary writers and people We could also discuss the genre snobbery in literary circles that puts crime young peoples literature romantic and fantasy fiction and perhaps historical based narratives in a lower category than the novel
