A History of Indian Philosophy: Volume 1 Surendranath Dasgupta, Dasgupta, 1922 In this benchmark five volume study originally published between 1922 and 1955 Surendranath Dasgupta examines the principal schools of thought that define Indian philosophy A unifying force greater than art literature religion or science Professor Dasgupta describes philosophy as the most important achievement of Indian thought arguing that an understanding of its history is necessary to appreciate the significance and potentialities of India s complex culture Volume I offers an examination of the Vedas and the Brahmanas the earlier Upanisads and the six systems of Indian philosophy Crossing the Stream, Leaving the Cave, 2024-05-07 Crossing the Stream Leaving the Cave brings philosophers from two of the world s great philosophical traditions Platonic and Indian Buddhist into joint inquiry on topics in metaphysics epistemology mind language and ethics An international team of scholars address selected questions of mutual concern to Buddhist and Platonist How can knowledge of reality transform us Will such transformation leave us speechless or disinterested in the world around us What is cause What is self knowledge And how can dreams shed light on waking cognition What do the paradoxes thrown up by abstract thought about fundamental notions such as being and unity reveal Is it possible to attain unity in ourselves and should we even try Would doing so make us happy and is such happiness consistent with both contemplation of reality and action in the world With close readings of texts by Buddhaghosa Nagarjuna Vasubandhu Dignaga Bhaviveka Santideva by Plato Plotinus Porphyry Olympiodorus and Damascius among others these studies consider not just the different answers Buddhists and Platonists might give to these questions but also the criticisms they might bring to each other s positions the sort of arguments they use and the use they put these arguments to Bringing Platonic and the Buddhist perspectives jointly to bear creates a cosmopolitan philosophical exchange which yields greater conceptual clarity on the questions and the terms in which they are cast reveals unnoticed conceptual connections and opens up new possibilities for addressing central philosophical concerns UGC NET Paper 2 _ History Volume - 1 Mr. Rohit Manglik, 2024-03-02 EduGorilla Publication is a trusted name in the education sector committed to empowering learners with high quality study materials and resources Specializing in competitive exams and academic support EduGorilla provides comprehensive and well structured content tailored to meet the needs of students across various streams and levels Puṣpikā: Tracing Ancient India Through Texts and Traditions Nina Mirnig, Peter-Daniel Szanto, Michael Williams, 2013-12-23 It is perhaps commonplace to say that India is one of the world s richest and most enticing cultures One thousand years have passed since Albiruni arguably the first Indologist wrote his outsider s account of the subcontinent and two hundred years have passed since the inception of Western Indology And yet what this monumental scholarship has achieved is still outweighed by the huge tracts of terra incognita thousands of works lacking scholarly attention and even more manuscripts which still await careful study whilst decaying in the unforgiving Indian climate In September 2009 young researchers and graduate students in this field came together to present their cutting edge work at the first International Indology Graduate Research Symposium which was held at Oxford University This volume the first in a new series which will publish the proceedings of the Symposium will make important contributions to the study of the classical civilisation of the Indian sub continent The series edited by Nina Mirnig Peter D niel Sz nt and Michael Williams will strive to cover a wide range of subjects reaching from literature religion philosophy ritual and grammar to social history with the aim that the research published will not only enrich the field of classical Indology but eventually also contribute to the studies of history and anthropology of India and Indianised Central and South East Asia Books in Print ,1977 B.H. Vol. 2 ,1962 Kizil on the Silk Road Rajeshwari Ghose,2008 Recently the academic world celebrated 100 years of the opening of Cave 17 or the Library Cave a veritable treasure house of Silk Road artifacts in Dunhuang the eastern terminus of the silk routes Celebrations recording a hundred years of Tocharian Studies soon followed The complexity of documenting the cultural artifacts of the so called Silk Road becomes clear when it is remembered that between 1900 1925 just six men made what have been called archaeological raids into this remote corner of Central Asia Between them until the 1940s they removed wall paintings manuscripts sculptures and other treasures literally by tons from the lost cities of the Silk Road Today this great Central Asian collection apart from what is in situ is scattered through museums and institutions of at least 12 different countries To even see some of this treasure one has to travel to Great Britain China Finland France Germany India Japan Russia South Korea Sweden Taiwan and the United States and have to visit over 30 institutions The German expedition alone collected manuscripts in more than 20 languages and 25 scripts on silk leather birch bark wood paper and more Little wonder then that the articles on Kizil and generally on the Silk Road lie buried in obscure publications in different languages Chinese German and Russian being the most frequently used apart from English Kathavatthu Arnold C.
