O'Neill, 2016-11-11 This volume is the most comprehensive bibliography of purely biographical material written by Americans It covers every possible field of life but by design excludes autobiographies diaries and journals The Gay & Lesbian Theatrical Legacy Billy J. Harbin, Kim Marra, Robert A. Schanke, 2005 Recovers the hidden history of theater professionals who transgressed the gendered expectations of their time Historical Dictionary of Contemporary American Theater: 1930-2010 James Fisher, 2011-06-01 From legends like Eugene O'Neill Tennessee Williams and Arthur Miller to successful present day playwrights like Neil LaBute Tony Kushner and David Mamet some of the most important names in the history of theater are from the past 80 years Contemporary American theater has produced some of the most memorable beloved and important plays in history including Death of a Salesman A Streetcar Named Desire Barefoot in the Park Our Town The Crucible A Raisin in the Sun and The Odd Couple Historical Dictionary of Contemporary American Theater presents the plays and personages movements and institutions and cultural developments of the American stage from 1930 to 2010 a period of vast and almost continuous change It covers the ever changing history of the American theater with emphasis on major movements persons plays and events This is done through a chronology an introductory essay an extensive bibliography and over 1 500 cross referenced dictionary entries This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about the history of American theater Historical Dictionary of American Theater James Fisher, Felicia Hardison Londré, 2017-11-22 This book covers the history of theater as well as the literature of America from 1880 1930 The years covered by this volume features the rise of the popular stage in America from the years following the end of the Civil War to the Golden Age of Broadway with an emphasis on its practitioners including such diverse figures as William Gillette Mrs Fiske George M Cohan Maude Adams David Belasco George Abbott Clyde Fitch Eugene O'Neill Texas Guinan Robert Edmond Jones Jeanne Eagels Susan Glaspell The Adlers and the Barrymores Tallulah Bankhead Philip Barry Maxwell Anderson Mae West Elmer Rice Laurette Taylor Eva Le Gallienne and a score of others Entries abound on plays of all kinds from melodrama to the newly embraced realistic style ethnic works Irish Yiddish etc and such diverse forms as vaudeville circus minstrel shows temperance plays etc This second edition of Historical Dictionary of American Theater Modernism covers the history of modernist American Theatre through a chronology an introductory essay and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 2 000 cross referenced entries on actors and actresses directors playwrights producers genres notable plays and theatres This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about the American Theater in its greatest era The A to Z of American Theater James Fisher, Felicia Hardison Londré, 2009-09-02

The 50 year period from 1880 to 1929 is the richest era for theater in American history certainly in the great number of plays produced and artists who contributed significantly but also in the centrality of theater in the lives of Americans As the impact of European modernism began to gradually seep into American theater during the 1880s and quite importantly in the 1890s more traditional forms of theater gave way to futurism symbolism surrealism and expressionism American playwrights like Eugene O'Neill George Kelly Elmer Rice Philip Barry and George S Kaufman ushered in the Golden Age of American drama The A to Z of American Theater Modernism focuses on legitimate drama both as influenced by European modernism and as impacted by the popular entertainment that also enlivened the era This is accomplished through a chronology an introductory essay a bibliography and hundreds of cross referenced entries on plays music playwrights great performers like Maude Adams Otis Skinner Julia Marlowe and E H Sothern producers like David Belasco Daniel Frohman and Florenz Ziegfeld critics architects designers and costumes Passing Performances Robert A. Schanke, Kim Marra, 1998

Passing Performances gathers a range of critical and biographical essays on notable personalities whose major contributions to the stage occurred before 1969 the year of the Stonewall riots that kicked off the gay rights movement in the United States How these theater practitioners variously passed i.e. managed unconventional sexual inclinations both on and offstage significantly determined the course of their personal and professional lives and thus the course of U.S. theater history The actors directors producers and agents examined here include Edwin Forrest Charlotte Cushman and Adah Isaacs Menken whose personal lives and careers traded on the same sex erotics of true love in the antebellum period Elisabeth Marbury Elsie de Wolfe Elsie Janis Nance O'Neill and Alla Nazimova whose intimate female liaisons were variously interpreted around the turn of the century the lavender marriages of Alfred Lunt to Lynne Fontanne and Guthrie McClintic to Katharine Cornell the lesbian collaborations of Margaret Webster and Cheryl Crawford the comic antics of Monty Woolley which negotiated codified constructions of homosexual perversion in the post-Freudian interwar years and the on and offstage performances of Mary Martin and Joe Cino which resisted the paranoid enforcements of heterosexual normality in the McCarthy era Central to these investigations are the complex connections of performances of sexuality and gender and their different implications for men and women practitioners working under pervasive sexism and homophobia The volume also includes striking archival photographs of the performers and their performances and an index to facilitate the cross referencing of subjects intersecting careers Passing Performances will engage both general and academic readers interested in theater gay and lesbian history American studies and biography Robert A Schanke is Professor of Theatre and Chair of the Division of Fine Arts Central College Iowa Kim Marra is Associate Professor of Theatre Arts University of Iowa Vivien Leigh

Michelangelo Capua,2015-09-01 Scarlett O Hara was not beautiful but men seldom realized it when caught by her charm Margaret Mitchell opened Gone with the Wind with this description of Scarlett O Hara but her words can hardly be applied to Vivien Leigh the British actress who gave an unforgettable performance as the Southern belle Leigh possessed a beauty that men seldom failed to recognize and a charm that caught many but her life was far from being all beauty and charm This biography of the beautiful and tortured actress from her birth and childhood in exotic India to her premature death in 1967 gives special attention to her development and career as a stage and film actress which culminated in one Tony award and two Oscars Her ambitious personality and her manic depressive illness including the sexual compulsion that haunted her life her romantic and tragic marriage to Laurence Olivier and her performances in for instance Gone with the Wind and A

Streetcar Named Desire are all detailed Entertaining Lesbians Martha Gever,2012-11-12 Before the rise of celebrities like Ellen DeGeneres and k d lang lesbians were rarely in the limelight and the few that were often did not fare well Times have changed and today s famous lesbians are popular icons Entertaining Lesbians charts the rise of lesbians in the public eye proposing that celebrity has never been a simple matter of opening closet doors portraying positive images or becoming role models Gever traces the history of lesbians in popular culture during the twentieth century from Radclyffe Hall and Greta Garbo to Martina Navratilova and Rosie O Donnell to explore the paradoxes inherent in lesbian celebrity Gregory

Peck Gerard Molyneaux,1995-06-30 Born in 1916 in La Jolla California Gregory Peck took up acting in college on a lark that would lead to a career In his early years he appeared in a series of summer stock engagements and Broadway shows He became a star within a year after arriving in Hollywood during World War II and he won an Academy Award nomination for his second film From the 1940s to the present he has played some of film s most memorable and admired characters This volume provides complete information about Gregory Peck s work in film television radio and the stage Entries are included for all of his performances with each entry providing cast and credit information a plot summary excerpts from reviews and critical commentary A biography and chronology highlight significant events in his life while a listing of his honors and awards summarizes the recognition he has received over the years For researchers seeking additional information the book includes descriptions of special collections holding material related to Peck s work along with an extensive bibliography of books and articles Jayne Mansfield Jocelyn Faris,1994-11-30 People today remember Jayne Mansfield as a famous

Hollywood movie star However she starred in only three American movies before moving to low budget European films She was a master of publicity who appeared in newspapers across the nation almost daily The media focused on her figure and her stormy love life Through her constant exposure in the press she gave the public the false impression that she was a major movie star This book charts the captivating life and career of Jayne Mansfield A biography overviews her rise to fame her three marriages and five children and her death in a grisly automobile accident at an early age The chapters that follow are each devoted to her performances in a particular genre such as film stage and television Each chapter contains annotated entries for her work in that media providing cast and credit listings plot summaries review excerpts and commentary Appendices list her appearances on magazine and record covers and an annotated bibliography discusses additional sources of information
