The Art of American Screen Acting, 1960 to Today Dan Callahan,2019-02-14 Modern screen acting in English is dominated by two key figures Method acting guru Lee Strasberg who taught the the art of experiencing over the art of representing and English theater titan Laurence Olivier who once said of the Method's immersive approach try acting it's so much easier This book explores in detail the work of such method actors as Al Pacino Ellen Burstyn Jack Nicholson and Jane Fonda and charts the shift away from the more internally focused Strasberg based acting of the 1970s and towards the more external way of working exemplified by the career of Meryl Streep in the 1980s Movies of the 80s Jürgen Müller,2002 This book's 140 A-Z entries include synopses film stills and production photos Mr. Broadway Gerald Schoenfeld,2012-03-01 Applause Books Mr Broadway was completed just one month before Gerald Schoenfeld's death in 2008 at the age of 84 Bringing the reader backstage the long term chairman of the Shubert Organization shares his triumphs and failures sings praise and settles scores He recounts nightmarish tales of the Shuberts themselves the meanness of Lee the madness of JJ the turmoil surrounding John's personal life and the drunken ineptitude of Lawrence Shubert Lawrence Jr the man who succeeded them and nearly brought the Shubert legacy to an ignominious end An active participant in that legacy for over 50 years Schoenfeld describes how he and his partner Bernie Jacobs saved the Shubert Organization bringing some of Broadway's greatest hits to the stage from A Chorus Line Equus and Amadeus to Pippin Les Misérables Evita Cats The Phantom of the Opera Godspell Ain't Misbehavin' Dreamgirls Dancin' Sunday in the Park with George The Life and Adventures of Nicholas Nickleby Glengarry Glen Ross The Heidi Chronicles The Gin Game Miss Saigon and Chess

classic problem of constraints on pronominal anaphora within the framework of Cognitive Grammar Van Hoek proceeds from the position that grammatical structure can be characterized in terms of semantic and phonological representations without autonomous syntactic structures or principles such as tree structures or c command She argues that constraints on anaphora can be explained in terms of semantic interactions between nominals and the contexts in which they are embedded Integrating the results of previous work Van Hoek develops a model in which some nominals function as conceptual reference points that dominate over stretches defined by the semantic relations among elements When a full noun is in the domain of a reference point coreference is ruled out since the speaker would be sending contradictory messages about the salience of the noun's referent With profound implications for the nature of syntax this book will interest theoretical linguists of all persuasions

Speech and Thought Representation in English Lieven Vandelandotte, 2009-07-14 This book aims to provide a new linguistically grounded typology of speech and thought representation in English on the basis of the systematic study of deictic syntactic and semantic properties of authentic examples drawn from literary as well as non literary sources In the area beyond direct and indirect speech or thought free indirect discourse has often been implicitly treated as a residual category that can accommodate anything that is neither one nor the other This book takes a fresh look at the evidence in the area of deixis particularly through a close study of pronoun and proper name use and proposes to distinguish the more character oriented free indirect type from a narrator oriented distancing indirect type which is grammatically wholly structured from the narrator's deictic standpoint Unlike free indirect representations which coherently represent the character's viewpoint the distancing indirect type sees narrators appropriating character discourse for their own purposes which may for instance be ironic The distinctions thus drawn shed new light on the much debated dual voice approach to free indirect discourse Included in the scope of this book are subjectified uses of clauses such as I think which no longer primarily construe a cognition process but rather come to function as hedges Such speaker encoding uses are argued to involve an interpersonal type of structure not based on complementation whereas the non subjectified cases receive an interclausal complementation analysis which does not have recourse to the problematic notion of reporting verb This monograph is mainly of interest to researchers and graduate students interested in the syntax semantics and pragmatics of reported speech viewed from a constructional perspective
