Structural Analysis of Historical Constructions - 2 Volume Set Claudio Modena, P.B. Lourenço, P. Roca, 2018-10-30 Structural Analysis of Historical Constructions contains about 160 papers that were presented at the IV International Seminar on Structural Analysis of Historical Constructions that was held from 10 to 13 November 2004 in Padova Italy Following publications of previous seminars that were organized in Barcelona Spain 1995 and 1998 and Guimar es Portugal 2001 state of the art information is presented in these two volumes on the preservation protection and restoration of historical constructions both comprising monumental structures and complete city centers These two proceedings volumes are devoted to the possibilities of numerical and experimental techniques in the maintenance of historical structures In this respect the papers originating from over 30 countries are subdivided in the following areas Historical aspects and general methodology Materials and laboratory testing Non destructive testing and inspection techniques Dynamic behavior and structural monitoring Analytical and numerical approaches Consolidation and strengthening techniques Historical timber and metal structures Seismic analysis and vulnerability assessment Seismic strengthening and innovative systems Case studies Structural Analysis of Historical Constructions is a valuable source of information for scientists and practitioners working on structure related issues of historical constructions India and Nepal Makhan Jha, 1998 Based on empirical fieldworkes carried out in different parts of both india and Nepal this volume throws light on the thread anthropological researches in both neighbouring countries The chapters in this book range from tribal situation in india to the Muslim tribes of Lakshadeep island including complex societies industrialization and urbanization and the various aspects of the Sacred Complex studies in india Besides the various aspects of religions of Kathmandu and Janakpur Sustainability in South Asian Cities Subhash Anand, Rituparna Bhattacharyya, Madhushree Das, Tulshi Kumar Das, Pushkar K. Pradhan, 2025-03-03 This book explores some of the common socio economic and environmental challenges faced by the cities of South Asia which remain highly under researched South Asia comprises eight nations India Bangladesh Nepal Sri Lanka Bhutan Maldives Pakistan and Afghanistan consisting of a total population of 1.92 billion in 2022 The majority of the cities in these countries are characterized by haphazard urbanization and multi dimensional poverty alongside its associated ingredients floods water scarcity food crises poor sanitation slums and squatter settlements and pollution among others This comprehensive book is contributed by interdisciplinary scholars and includes 25 case studies The volume brings these socio economic and environmental challenges to the fore for a better and more nuanced understanding The book help policymakers to mitigate the challenges and build sustainable cities South Asia is perhaps one of the most populous areas on the planet with nearly one third of its population with over ten cities larger than 10 million and maybe home to four of the largest cities of the world s largest ten The rights to the city and the right to breathe bread and work are as significant to South Asians The current volume is a timely addition to perhaps aiming for sustainable cities with many case studies on initiatives towards that end The canvas is vast and the coverage is daunting However the editors have a challenging task to balance out keeping the integrity of the theme in focus Professor Avaya Mohapatra Former Head and Professor now retired North Eastern Hill University Meghalaya It would be fair to say that while the fascinating scientific works inquired into by the authors through several chapters the very book is useful as a reference for readers and researchers regarding urban sustainability in South Asian developing countries including Nepal Keep up the good work Professor Vidhya Bir Singh Kansakar a veteran geographer of Nepal This book should become a companion reader for scholars and students studying sustainability It looks comprehensive admirably clear in its objectives and intellectually lively Professor Suman Singh Department of Geography Banaras Hindu University

Renewing Design with Communities Anisha Shekhar Mukherji, Snehan Shu Mukherjee, 2023-04-18 This book looks at alternative ways of analyzing traditional and contemporary architectural design and building practices in South Asia with a special focus on India It showcases how collaborative projects between architects and local communities and drawing from local building traditions can lead to sustainable and equitable practices in architecture The volume includes an analysis of projects in rural tribal and urban areas of India and Nepal and first hand accounts of architects teachers and professionals engaged in the theory and practice of design and architecture It examines the differences between the individualistic and the collective approach and explores the meaning of architecture as a process and as a product and as a decentralized ecologically and locally sensitive way of designing While comparing traditional and modern methods of building it also examines the impact of each method on the community the economy and the surrounding environment This book will be of interest to researchers and students of architecture urban studies urban planning urban ecology urban geography and sustainable development It will also be useful for architects planners urban designers and professionals associated with these disciplines

Groundwater Raya Marina Stephan, James E. Nickum, Philippus Wester, 2023-02-21 Groundwater is invisible but its impact is visible everywhere Everything around us relies on groundwater our drinking water and sanitation our food supply and our natural environment Yet because it is invisible information management and governance of groundwater is often poor and inadequate This book contributes to UN Water Groundwater year 2022 and to the effort of making the invisible visible Through worldwide case studies ranging from the Americas California Brazil to Asia India Iran Lao PDR Nepal Africa Malawi Tanzania South Africa and the MENA region Lebanon Morocco Yemen including cases of transboundary aquifers the chapters in this edited volume reflect important recent advances in interdisciplinary knowledge on the governance management practice and science policy interfaces of groundwater An insightful resource for researchers and planners in the field of environmental policies water laws climate change and groundwater governance this book comes with a new Introduction The other chapters were originally published in Water International

Language Contact in Nepal Bhim Lal Gautam, 2021-03-27 This book examines language contact and shift in Nepal a multilingual context where language attitudes and policies often reflect the complex socio cultural and socio political relationship between minority majority and endangered languages and peoples Presenting the results of a 15 year study and making use of both quantitative and qualitative data the author presents evidence relating to speakers opinions and perceptions of mother tongues including English Hindi Nepali Sherpa Dotyali Jumli and Tharu This book explores an under studied part of the world and the findings will be relevant to scholars working in other multilingual contexts in fields including language policy and planning language contact and change and language attitudes and ideologies      Evolving Narratives of Hazard and Risk Louise Bracken,Hanna A. Ruszczyk,Tom Robinson,2018-02-21 This book presents a range of academic research and personal reflections on the Gorkha earthquake that struck Nepal in 2015 For the first time perspectives from geography disaster risk reduction cultural heritage protection archaeology anthropology social work health and emergency response are discussed in a single volume Contributions are included from practitioners and researchers from Nepal and Durham University in the UK many of whom were in Nepal at the time of the earthquake Evolving Narratives of Hazard and Risk explores the event of the earthquake its consequences and its impacts to provide a holistic and multi perspective understanding of this special hazard and its significant ramifications for social political economic and cultural aspects of life in Nepal The book highlights how these multiple perspectives are needed to inform each other in order to develop and shape new ways of thinking and interacting with environmental hazards This collection of works will be of interest to students and academics of Environment Studies Human Geography and Environmental Policy and will be of particular relevance to those involved in risk research and managing risk and hazard events      Plant Inventory ,1956      Urban Growth and Spatial Transition in Nepal Elisa Muzzini,Gabriela Aparicio,2013-04-02 This book carries out an initial assessment of Nepal s urban growth and spatial transformation with a focus on spatial demographic and economic trends economic growth drivers and infrastructure requirements of Nepal s urban regions      Water and Urban Development Paradigms Jan Feyen,Kelly Shannon,Matthew Neville,2008-09-03 Communication across and integration of disciplines in the urban water sector seems today more imperative than ever before Water is a strategic and shrinking resource It is probably the world s most valuable resource and clean water has even been touted as the next oil Control of water from access to management has always been a

Megacity Yangon Frauke Kraas,Hartmut Gaese,Mi Mi Kyi,2006 Megacities are new urban phenomena results of globalisation and subject to as well as motors of global ecological socio economic and political change New are the dimensions of growth concentrations of population infrastructure economic power and decisions and the simultaneous self energising acceleration processes of development But one must be wary of generalised statements since differences of economic performance social coherence infrastructure conditions and governance structures should not be ignored This publication aims at analysing current transformation processes of Yangon Myanmar as spearhead of national development bridge to Southeast Asia and the world      Urban & Environmental Planning in Nepal Ambika P. Adhikari,1998      Nepal Tourism eBook GURMEET SINGH DANG,      Urban Drought Bhaswati Ray,Rajib Shaw,2018-12-30 This book presents water insecurity issues in urban areas while developing a water security index and explores the innovative approaches to water development and management with examples from Asian cities The urban water crisis is a global phenomenon but it is more obvious in the megacities of the developing world Urban drought although not a familiar term will pose a significant threat to humankind in the near future especially in the context of increasing population in cities Many cities are already unable to provide safe clean water for their citizens Some of the world's largest cities depend heavily on groundwater for their water supply It is unlikely that dependence on aquifers which take many years to recharge will be sustainable As urban populations grow water use will need to shift from agriculture to municipal and industrial uses making decisions about allocating between different sectors difficult Inefficient water use practices by households and industries fragmented management of water between sectors and institutions climate induced water shortages environmental degradation of water sources and inadequate use of alternate sources are also issues of major concern Despite recent advances in the literature there exists a considerable gap in attempting an integrated water resource management approach Covering all aspects of urban drought and water insecurity this book is a valuable resource for students researchers academics policy makers and development practitioners
