Cultural Memory and Literature Diane Molloy, 2015-10-20 Cultural memory involves a community's shared memories the selection of which is based on current political and social needs A past that is significant to a national group is reimagined by generating new meanings that replace earlier certainties and fixed symbols or myths This creates literary syncretisms with moments of undecidability The analysis in this book draws on Renate Lachmann's theory of intertextuality to show how novels that blur boundaries without standing in for history are prone to intervene in cultural memory A brief overview of Aboriginal politics between the 1920s and the 1990s in relation to several novels provides historical and political background to the links between and problems associated with cultural memory testimony trauma and Stolen Generations narratives which are discussed in relation to Sally Morgan's My Place and Doris Pilkington's Rabbit Proof Fence There follows an analysis of novels that respond to the history of contact between Aboriginal and settler Australians including Kate Grenville's historical novels The Secret River The Lieutenant and Sarah Thornhill as examples of a traditional approach David Malouf's Remembering Babylon charts how language and naming defined our early national narrative that excluded Aboriginal people Intertextuality is explored via the relation between Thea Astley's The Multiple Effects of Rainshadow Chloe Hooper's The Tall Man and the Royal Commission into Aboriginal Deaths in Custody Kim Scott's Benang from the heart and That Deadman Dance and Alexis Wright's Carpentaria reflect a number of Lachmann's concepts syncretism dialogism polyphony Menippean satire and the carnivalesque Suggested is a new way of reading novels that respond to Australia's violent past beyond trauma studies and postcolonial theory to re-imagine a different syncretic past from multiple perspectives

Travel Writing from Black Australia Robert Clarke, 2015-11-19 Over the past thirty years the Australian travel experience has been Aboriginalized Aboriginality has been appropriated to furnish the Australian nation with a unique and identifiable tourist brand This is deeply ironic given the realities of life for many Aboriginal people in Australian society On the one hand Aboriginality in the form of artworks literature performances landscapes sport and famous individuals is celebrated for the way it blends exoticism mysticism multiculturalism nationalism and reconciliation On the other hand in the media cinema and travel writing Aboriginality in the form of the lived experiences of Aboriginal people has been exploited in the service of moral panic patronized in the name of white benevolence or simply ignored For many travel writers this irony the clash between different regimes of valuing Aboriginality is one of the great challenges to travelling in Australia Travel Writing from Black Australia examines the ambivalence of contemporary travelers engagements with Aboriginality Concentrating on a period marked by the rise of discourses on Aboriginality championing indigenous empowerment self determination and reconciliation the author analyses how travel to Black Australia has become for many travelers a means of discovering new and potentially transformative styles of interracial engagement On Kim Scott Tony Birch,2024-04-30 An illuminating essay on the bestselling Noongar writer and author of the Miles Franklin Award winning novels Benang and That Deadman Dance I value Kim Scott s fiction so highly because I feel that his approach is to put the flags aside That Deadman Dance asks us not to consider who we were so much as who we could be collectively in the future Noongar writer Kim Scott has won the Miles Franklin Award twice for his novels In this moving essay Tony Birch shows how Scott uses fiction as a pathway to truth We meet a writer who inhabits a range of guises faces he wears to interrogate the complex and messy frontier history of colonial encounters The result is new stories for the nation This says Birch is the work that Kim Scott has been doing for many years After The Celebration Ken Gelder,Paul Salzman,2009-01-01 After the Celebration explores Australian fiction from 1989 to 2007 after Australia s bicentenary to the end of the Howard government In this literary history Ken Gelder and Paul Salzman combine close attention to Australian novels with a vivid depiction of their contexts cultural social political historical national and transnational From crime fiction to the postmodern colonial novel from Australian grunge to rural apocalypse fiction from the Asian diasporic novel to the action blockbuster Gelder and Salzman show how Australian novelists such as Frank Moorhouse Elizabeth Jolley Peter Carey Kim Scott Steven Carroll Kate Grenville Tim Winton Alexis Wright and many others have used their work to chart our position in the world The literary controversies over history identity feminism and gatekeeping are read against the politics of the day Provocative and compelling After the Celebration captures the key themes and issues in Australian fiction where we have been and what we have become Poetic Revolutionaries Marion May Campbell,2014-01-10 Poetic Revolutionaries is an exploration of the relationship between radical textual practice social critique and subversion From an introduction considering recent debates regarding the cultural politics of intertextuality allied to avant garde practice the study proceeds to an exploration of texts by a range of writers for whom formal and poetic experimentation is allied to a subversive politics Jean Genet Monique Wittig Angela Carter Kathy Acker Kathleen Mary Fallon Kim Scott and Brian Castro Drawing on theories of avant garde practice intertextuality parody representation and performance such as those of Mikha l Bakhtin Julia Kristeva G rard Genette Margaret A Rose Linda Hutcheon Fredric Jameson Ross Chambers and Judith Butler these readings explore how a confluence of writing strategies covering the structural narratological stylistic and scenographic can work to boost a text s subversive power A Companion to Australian Literature Since 1900 Nicholas Birns,Rebecca McNeer,2007 A fresh twenty first century look at Australian literature in a broad inclusive and multicultural sense The Pain of Unbelonging ,2007-01-01

Beyond the obvious and enduring socio economic ravages it unleashed on indigenous cultures white settler colonization in Australasia also inflicted profound damage on the collective psyche of both of the communities that inhabited the contested space of the colonial world The acute sense of alienation that colonization initially provoked in the colonized and colonizing populations of Australia and New Zealand has recent studies indicate developed into an endemic existential pathology Evidence of the psychological fallout from the trauma of geographical deracination cultural disorientation and ontological destabilization can be found not only in the state of anomie and self destructive patterns of behaviour that now characterize the lives of indigenous Australian and Maori peoples but also in the perpetually faltering identity discourse and cultural rootlessness of the present descendants of the countries Anglo Celtic settlers It is with the literary expression of this persistent condition of alienation that the essays gathered in the present volume are concerned Covering a heterogeneous selection of contemporary Australasian literature what these critical studies convincingly demonstrate is that more than two hundred years after the process of colonisation was set in motion the experience that Germaine Greer has dubbed the pain of unbelonging continues unabated constituting a dominant thematic concern in the writing produced today by Australian and New Zealand authors

Smashing Serendipity Louise K. Hansen, 2023-01-31 Life is tough for the Connell family growing up in a small town where racist attitudes discrimination and violence against Aboriginal people are commonplace Lavinia is lucky her parents ensure her family stays together while other cousins and friends are removed from the state But violence and adversity occur over and over even while young Lavinia also excels at sport and at school drawing on her own inner strength and a physical resourcefulness In time Lavinia will find herself a homeless young widow stripped of hope when her own four children are taken away But she has a way of righting herself using education and determination to bring her small family back together and finding love when she least expects it Smashing Serendipity is the yarn Lavinia tells her children and her grandchildren gathered by the fire on the banks of the river where she grew up the story of one good woman one moordtj yorga that reflects the stories of so many strong determined women of her time
