Kayode And His Village In Nigeria:

Kayodé and His Village in Nigeria, 1982 YLG Pamphlet, Village And Its Discontents, The: Meaning And Criticism In Late Modernity Antonio Leopold Rappa, 2016-07-14 The Village and Its Discontents Meaning and Criticism in Late Modernity is a hopeful collection of essays about villages in Southeast Asia and across the world The village is an idea a construct and a way of organising society Villages constitute the basic unit of analyses in the arts humanities and the social sciences and these issues are presented through the collection of essays featured in this book The contributors hope to generate interest in studying villages to understand the meanings that attach themselves to the concept of the village and to gain greater insights into multidisciplinary knowledge and analyses in today's highly developed global society Africa's Quiet Revolution Observed from Nigeri Dominic Okereke, 2012-07 This book prescribes rapid revolution in principal sectors of this African economy through radical paradigm changes And the resultant comprehensive transformation will guarantee significantly higher productivities and double digit annual economic growth Included in this paradigm shift is the joint reindustrialization of the African economy and the US ailing industries via a new Strategic trans Atlantic Alliance modeled on the balanced Euro US cooperation after World War II But it first takes readers through a thorough evaluation of the familiar subject corruption which haunts Nigeria the principal economy in the continent The fundamental difference with other texts on the subject is that this book identifies the most debilitating variant of that corruption That variant causes massive capital flight from a post colonial soft economy that is neither capitalist nor socialist The Nigerian corruption thrives on the native Philosophy of Commission hardened by intractable tribalism that coagulated and ossified with the imports substitution pattern preferred by European firms since independence The book then proceeds to earn its priced revolutionary credential by inventing very novel scientific methods that will skillfully turn this insidious source of structural rigidity and arrested development into a force for economic growth A new apex political leadership culture is recommended and to be fortified with a unifying lingua franca An inter ethnic marriage melting pot is advised for intensified nigerianization of Nigerian youths at birth Spiritual diversity is envisaged to significantly diminish religious intolerance and sectarian violence Modern bureaucracy and inward looking tourism are reformulated to reduce effervescent insecurity and minimize capital flight The resultant economic stability will enlarge domestic foreign investment inflow and will reverse the current dis industrialization and massive job loss and the conditions of under full employment Technological Functionalism Economic pan Africanism and the Alternative Policy of Inputs Substitution are among the several brand new blueprints that this book offers for the extensive transformation of Africa's economy into the robust emerging economy that will rival its counterparts in India and China in the immediate future Hausa Cinema of Northern Nigeria Abdalla Uba Adamu, 2025-06-26 This historical account of cinema in Nigeria explores the transcultural transfer of media from India to Africa through films Hausa Cinema of Northern Nigeria examines how the Hindi Cinema of India became the template for storytelling in the Hausa regional cinema of Northern Nigeria and explores the emergence of Indigenous language within cinema in this region Such emergence created points of divergence with the Islamic public culture leading to censorship both within the entertainment industry and the newly re introduced Shari a government of Kano Throughout this book Abdalla Uba Adamu explores the tension between Islamic society and the intrusion of transglobal media influences in cinema in Kano He provides a deeper understanding of global media transnationalism and its impact on Muslim African popular culture This book also discusses how the Muslim Hausa youth used the agencies of transglobal media technologies to transform the Hausa narrative style from a linear and didactic format to a complex configuration By examining the Hausa film industry s history Adamu challenges the notion of cultural and media imperialism and the dominance of media consumption in contemporary African societies Children's Book Review Index ,1985 Oil in Nigeria Jędrzej George Frynas,2000 3 6 Land Use Act You

The Best of You Joseph Aigbojie Etute, 2014-04-14 You were born to be the best of you otherwise you wouldnt have been born at all Your Creator has more important things to do than creating wasted humans that will fail Him in accomplishing the best He had set for them and had prepared for them even before the foundation of the world To now see that in todays world only less than 10 percent of us actually attain the best of us not only saddens me but it creates in me a heavy burden and an agonizing pain far beyond the one that any word can describe I am a work in progress myself I have messed up so much and failed so many times that I have even stopped counting This book narrates all the areas of my life where I have failed and what I would have done differently to bring out the best of me This book gives you all the practical ways of becoming the best of you It is a ten volume series designed and written to help you become the best and nothing but the best

Borders, Human Itineraries, and All Our Relation Dele Adeyemo, Natalie Diaz, Nadia Yala Kisukidi, Rinaldo Walcott, 2023-10-17 Four Alchemists One book A constellation of ideas In November 2022 the first annual Alchemy Lecture took place at York University in Toronto bringing four deep and agile writers from different geographies and disciplines into vibrant conversation on a topic of urgent relevance humans and borders Now in these pages that conversation is captured and expanded in insightful passionate ways Architect artist and urban theorist Dele Adeyemo UK Nigeria calls attention to the complexity of Black infrastructures questioning how the environments that surround us condition the possibility of our being Poet Natalie Diaz US Mojave Akimel O otham writes Like story migration is the sensual movement of knowledge and asks What is the language we need to live right now Philosopher Nadia Yala Kisukidi France suggests there is no diasporic life without the dynamics of fabulation where we pass down from generation to generation the stories of our ancestors who walked barefoot for many months And cultural theorist Rinaldo Walcott Canada asks us to consider inheritances beyond white supremacist logics What might it mean to live a life if we can't risk desiring and working towards utopia As each Alchemist considers the legacies of anti colonial struggle the future of the planet and the textures of Black and Indigenous life their essays speak to each other in multiple ways creating something startling and revelatory a vision of the world as it is and as it could be Yoruba Hometowns Lillian Trager,2001 The pattern of migrants maintaining strong ties with their home communities is particularly common in sub Saharan Africa where it has important social cultural political and economic implications This book explores the significance of hometown connections for civil society and local development in Nigeria Rich ethnographic description and case studies illustrate the links that the Ijesa Yoruba maintain with their communities of origin links that both help to shape social identity and contribute to local development Trager also examines indigenous concepts of development demonstrating how the Yoruba bring their understandings of development to efforts in their own communities Placing her work in the context of national political and economic change she raises questions about the motivations implications and consequences of local development efforts not only for the communities and their members but also for the larger polity Phobians Olusanjo Amusan,199? Trends in Nollywood Ayakoroma, Barclays Foubiri,2015-03-18 Trends in Nollywood A Study of Selected Genres is a welcome addition to the growing body of works on the Nigerian cinema It is part film history and part film theory and criticism The history part traces the origin of the Nigerian cinema up to the present era of video productions The work examines in detail the contextual issues which have helped to define emergent trends within the industry Indirect Subjects Matthew H. Brown,2021-08-23 In Indirect Subjects Matthew H Brown analyzes the content of the prolific Nigerian film industry's mostly direct to video movies alongside local practices of production and circulation to show how screen media play spatial roles in global power relations Scrutinizing the deep structural and aesthetic relationship between Nollywood as the industry is known and Nigerian state television Brown tracks how several Nollywood films in ways similar to both state television programs and colonial cinema productions invite local spectators to experience liberal capitalism not only as a form of exploitation but as a set of expectations about the future This mode of address which Brown refers to as periliberalism sustains global power imbalances by locating viewers within liberalism but distancing them from its processes and benefits Locating the wellspring of this hypocrisy in the British Empire's practice of indirect rule Brown contends that culture industries like Nollywood can sustain capitalism by isolating ordinary African people whose labor and consumption fuel it from its exclusive privileges
