Keeping The Faith Essays To Mark:

Suffering Divine Things Reinhard Hütter, 2000 How do Christian beliefs and practices interrelate What is the nature and task of theology These questions have reemerged in the contemporary discussion with new vigor In this book Reinhard Hütter explores the link between Christian theory and action rigorously arguing for a renewed understanding of theology as a distinct church practice Using pathos suffering God's saving activity as a powerful theological motif Hütter offers fresh insight into the relationships between the Holy Spirit and the church doctrine and theology and beliefs and practices In addition Hütter shows how reclaiming pathos as a central motif for theology challenges modern and postmodern views focused on human identity agency and creativity as definitive of theology's nature and task Throughout Hütter remains acutely aware of recent trends in theological discourse and develops his argument in conversation with leading contemporary thinkers from North America and Europe His constructive work promises to reclaim theology's crucial role in the life and mission of the church

Nonconformist Theology in the Twentieth Century Alan P.F. Sell, 2012-09-17 This book is the first comprehensive study of the systematic doctrinal and constructive theology produced within the major Nonconformist traditions during the twentieth century By the end of the nineteenth century modern biblical critical methods were fairly widely adopted evolutionary thought was in the air and doctrinal modifications especially concerning the fatherhood of God were underway Sell charts the influence on Nonconformist thinking in the twentieth century of the New Theology associated with R.J. Campbell the First World War the reception of Karl Barth the theological excitement of the 1960s and growing religious pluralism The second lecture concerns the major Christian doctrines of God Christ the Holy Spirit and the Trinity Whereas in the early decades of the century there was considerable emphasis upon the atonement during the concluding two decades the Trinity received more attention than had formerly been the case In Lecture Three attention is directed to ecclesiological and ecumenical themes The Nonconformists are presented as Protestant and as displaying some zeal in propagating their particular understanding of the Church The doctrinal aspects of their national and international moves toward inner family unity and of their broader ecumenical relationships are considered Eschatology is treated in the concluding lecture prior to Sell's assessment of the significance of twentieth century Nonconformist theology and his observations regarding its current state its future content and its practitioners

Essays on the Real Church Dirk J. Smit, 2024-08-15 The spirit of the Reformation is often expressed in the well known slogan that Reformed churches are always being reformed according to God's Word ecclesia reformata semper reformanda secundum verbum Dei Over the last century the spirit of this slogan motivated someone like Dietrich Bonhoeffer to argue that the visible form and life of the church should reflect the truth and message of the church Already in his doctoral dissertation called Sanctorum Communio the communion of the saints the young Bonhoeffer combined theological claims and traditions with social theory and analysis in this spirit in an innovative way to study the nature and integrity and witness of the church At the time this was a radical claim with major consequences and challenges for Protestant churches Their life which meant their order structure actions statements convictions public presence and role was to be measured by their gospel which meant their message proclamation convictions claims They could no longer proclaim one truth yet live a different life It was this spirit which led to the well known Theological Declaration of Barmen in 1934 and to the formation of the Confessing Church in Nazi Germany Many called this a moment of truth a status confessionis It was this same spirit which later inspired the struggle in South Africa for the integrity and faithfulness of the church and for the credibility of its message proclamation and witness The contributions in this volume 52 papers essays sermons studies were all produced in this spirit Most of them have not been published before They were all occasional pieces written over several decades in different contexts and for different purposes and audiences yet they all breathe this self critical spirit of the Reformation considering whether the real church the concrete every day actual living church that people know and experience and perhaps belong to truly strives to embody the gospel itself the message which it claims and proclaims They all inquire under different circumstances and in diverse ways about different social forms of the real church from worship to congregation from denomination to ecumenical church from individual believers to movements and organisations whether and how they embody the truth of the church or not Together these contributions tell a story the story of this spirit in South African circles over several decades but also in the ecumenical church in our globalizing world They offer one small glimpse into different concrete moments in the story of this spirit in the life of this tradition and community of faith Hopefully some of these accounts may resonate with others who also shared the same spirit and still share it today in new and ongoing ways

Lesslie Newbigin Geoffrey Wainwright,2000-10-19 This book offers an intellectual and spiritual biography of Lesslie Newbigin a figure of patristic proportions in the twentieth century history of the Church Drawing on thirty five years of personal and literary acquaintance with his subject and on a thorough examination of the Newbigin archives Geoffrey Wainwright crafts a rich and varied portrait of this outstanding witness to the Gospel

Mapping Postmodernism Robert C. Greer,2003-08-11 Helping you navigate the complex debate among Christians over postmodernism Robert C Greer maps four different paths marked out by Francis Schaeffer Karl Barth John Hick and George Lindbeck Ultimately he points to the true Subject who makes knowledge possible through the language of revelation and relationship with God

The Development of Anglican Moral Theology, 1680-1950 Peter H. Sedgwick,2024-01-15 The Development of Anglican Moral Theology is the successor volume to The Origins of Anglican Moral Theology It describes how Anglican theologians interacted closely with the moral philosophers of their day while providing a pastoral resource in the fast changing period between 1680 1950 The book shows how vibrant and intellectually rigorous the tradition was and includes detailed studies of the sermons of Butler Wesley and Newman the writings of William Law and Coleridge and the later work of Maurice Gore Scott Holland Moberly William Temple and Kirk This is the first account of this lively tradition of moral theology

a consideration of the Spirit's role in the interpretation of Scripture and a celebration of renewal scholarship. It examines those who have focused on the Spirit's role in their hermeneutical considerations, recognizing common uniting themes amidst the diversity of scholarly approach and opinion. Working on the principle that the Spirit communicates in ways that seek to unify and celebrate the other Mather works diachronically from 1970, identifying and drawing together these common uniting hallmarks into a collective understanding. Pivotal to Mather's argument is her emphasis that we do not just interpret Scripture but that the Spirit through Scripture and working in our lives in ways that lead us towards Scripture interprets us. The Interpreting Spirit is the first comprehensive analysis of the conversation surrounding pneumatic interpretation that has been taking place particularly among renewal scholars since 1970. It seeks to answer the notoriously difficult question: What does the Spirit do in the process of biblical interpretation? Exploring the Range of Theology Theodore Runyon, 2012-01-25 Every human being is a theologian. We have a curiosity about the ultimate context in which we exist. Theologians help us spell that out and examine what faith is all about. The wide-ranging issues and questions this book addresses begin with the differences between Christianity and other religions, examine the relation between the Bible, science, and evolution, explore the role of religious experience in the birth of faith, and consider the contribution theologians like Paul Tillich, Friedrich Gogarten, Teilhard de Chardin, Jurgen Moltmann, and John Wesley can make to our thought today. Humble Confidence Paul Weston, 2025-01-30 Lesslie Newbigin's development of a fresh paradigm of missionary theology and cultural engagement has solidified his reputation as not just one of the most important missionary theologians of the twentieth century but as continually relevant in the twenty-first. Paul Weston focusses on how the engagement with Michael Polanyi's understanding of personal knowledge illuminates Newbigin's work and contributes to its ongoing significance. Interlinking themes of Revelation, Knowing, and Story, and tracing through Newbigin's engagements with modernity and post-modernity, Weston suggests how the logic of Newbigin's approach continues to provide insight to mission theologians and practitioners. It is Weston's conviction that Humble Confidence presents Newbigin's thinking in a way that can serve the continuing mission of the church. ADRS Newsletter, 1988 An Essay on the Rule of Faith and Creed of Athanasius. 'Shall the rubric preceding the Creed be removed from the Prayer Book? By an English Clergyman, 1875 Keeping the Faith Geoffrey Wainwright, 1988 Gospel-centered Spirituality Allan H. Sager, 1990 An Essay on the Composition of a Sermon Jean Claude, 1788 Naming Grace Mary Catherine Hilker, 1997 It is not a lack of training in the art of rhetoric that accounts for the ineffectiveness of preaching within the Christian churches. More significant is the lack of adequate theological foundations. While recognizing the great contribution that neo-orthodoxy and the dialectical imagination have made, Hilker's major contribution is a scholarly examination of the resources of the sacramental imagination. A Short Essay on Apostasy William Justice Parks, 1890 Keeping Faith Cornel West, 2021-11-18 In this powerful collection by one of today's leading African American intellectuals, Keeping Faith situates the current position of African Americans, tracing the geneology of the Afro American Rebellion from Martin Luther King to the rise of black revolutionary leftists In Cornel West s hands issues of race and freedom are inextricably tied to questions of philosophy and above all to a belief in the power of the human spirit Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,1992 The Mirror of Faith; an Original Essay in Verse John Horner,1857 An essay on the composition of a sermon, tr. by R. Robinson Jean Claude,1779
