

KEEPS DEATH HIS COURT

*"Keeps death's court, and from that awful cell, Invites to dine and grinning in his girth."
—Bretton D. Chisholm.*

In a fresh episode of Yorkshire Mary Durham sets her stage for this elegantly told mystery.

A Christmas party at its merry height a murder takes its tragedy... but outside on the terrace the Philip Lawford has been found dead.

All are suspects and all have alibis when Chief Inspector York of Scotland Yard, whose murder was and imposed on Sir York, is called in to solve the seemingly unsolvable mystery. York brilliantly brings the killer to justice, but not before problems in many hearts and one conviction by him.

The author's previous works have been praised as "Excellent" — Daily Mirror;
"Inspiring, abundant, well and sensibly told" — Sunday Express; and all will agree that Mary Durham has, in Keeps Death His Court, set a mystery to challenge the most astute student of modern detective fiction.
