Suicide in East German Literature Robert Blankenship, 2017 The many fictional suicides in the literature of the German Democratic Republic have been greatly misunderstood The common assumption is that authoritarian oppression in East Germany led to an anomalous abundance of real suicides so that fictional suicides in GDR literature constitute a simple realistic reflection of East German society Robert Blankenship challenges this assumption by providing both a history of suicide in GDR literature and close readings of individual texts revealing that suicides in GDR literature rather than simply reflecting historical suicides contain rich literary attributes such as intertextuality haunting epistolarity and unorthodox narrative strategies Such literariness offered subversive potential beyond suggesting that real people killed themselves in a communist country This first book length study of fictional suicides in East German literature provides insight into the complex and dynamic rhetoric of the GDR Blankenship's underlying claim is that GDR literature ought to be read as literature with literary methodology not despite the country's politically and rhetorically charged nature but precisely because of it Suicide in East German Literature will be of interest to scholars of GDR literature humanities oriented scholars of suicide and those who are interested in the complex relationship between literature and history ROBERT BLANKENSHIP is Assistant Professor of German at California State University Long Beach Landmarks in German Women's Writing Hilary Brown, 2007 This volume focuses on twelve women writers from the Middle Ages to the present day who have made a major contribution to German literature The essays place the writers in the context of their period and examine how their position as women affected what they wrote and the reception of their texts Christa Wolf, Kein Ort, Nirgends, 1984

sustainability in cultural institutions identity politics immersion and digital culture A reader on the positioning of a pioneering German cultural institution that invites us to take a look at what has shaped the profile of its innovative programme With texts and contributions by Fr d rique A t Touati Ed Atkins Sivan Ben Yishai Jens Bisky Emanuele Coccia Brian Eno Naika Foroutan Dorothea von Hantelmann Donna Haraway Susanne Kennedy William Kentridge Signa K stler Bruno Latour Robert Maharajh Bonaventure Soh Bejeng Ndikung Thomas Oberender David O'Reilly Diana Palm Philippe Parreno Nancy Pettinicchio Alex Ross Stephanie Rosenthal Rebecca Saunders Frank Schirrmacher Stephan Schwingeler Tino Sehgal Markus Selg Gabriele St tzer Lucien Strauch      Ambivalent Literary Farewells to the German Democratic Republic John David Pizer, 2021-08-02 This study reverses the question implicit in title of Christa Wolf's now canonical 1990 novella Was bleibt What remains looking instead at what was lost during the process of German reunification It argues that in their work during and after the Wende most literary authors from both East and West Germany responded ambivalently to the reunification Many felt on the one hand a keen sense of loss as the GDR dissolved and an expanded Federal Republic summarily absorbed former Eastern Germany They mourned the ideals of democratic socialism tolerance and internationalism that the GDR had held dear as well as the country's rich cultural life On the other hand however they recognized that the GDR was a fundamentally corrupt surveillance state whose industry weighed heavily on the environment while failing to buoy the country's economy By looking at works by some of the most important authors from either side of the border this study shows that those who unequivocally embraced the reunification were clearly in the minority      GDR Literature in German Curricula and Textbooks Elizabeth Priester Steding, 2023-09-15 This book analyzes the changing portrayal of GDR literature in German Gymnasium textbooks 1985 2015 Addressing the need for textbook research to broaden its focus from GDR history to GDR literature the author presents case studies of well known GDR authors Bertolt Brecht Johannes R Becher Anna Seghers Wolf Biermann and Christa Wolf each examining a particular aspect of the societal discourse about GDR literature and the tension between literary text and historical context Taken together the case studies reveal the frequently underestimated power of ideology in literature textbooks They also show how attempts to package these authors into simplified categories ultimately reveal the profound complexities of the GDR literary legacy By examining the clear tension between literature and politics in textbooks and curricula the author demonstrates how ideological messages are transmitted in all textbooks as well as the importance of attending to overt and covert ideology      Phantom Images Catherine Smale, 2013 Ghosts have made an unexpected reappearance in German literature since 1989 Catherine Smale reads this as symptomatic of writers attempts to renegotiate their personal and collective identity in the wake of German reunification Focusing on two major authors from the former GDR Christa Wolf and Irina Liebmann Smale examines the ways in which their work adopts notions of haunting in its creative engagement with the double legacy of Socialism and National Socialism The ghost has long been regarded as a vehicle for making manifest taboo or unauthorized memories

However Smale goes further demonstrating how the human subject is destabilized by the return of the phantom and is itself rendered insecure and spectral Drawing on a wide range of theoretical reference from the psychoanalytic concept of intergenerational phantoms to Derridean hauntology Smale's study highlights the particular challenge which Wolf and Liebmann pose to the familiar understanding of how German writers have confronted their country's troublesome past Catherine Smale is Lecturer in German at King's College London Heinrich von Kleist Jeffrey L High, Sophia Clark, 2013-12-01 In an authorial class with dramatists and authors of literary prose such as Goethe Schiller Thomas Mann Brecht and Kafka Heinrich von Kleist 1777 1811 remains prominent in international evaluations of artistic genius when measured by enduring popular and artistic reception legal philosophical and scientific criticism and resonance of political rage Scholars have long been fascinated by Kleist's biography and works in no small part due to his influence on authors philosophers political thinkers and filmmakers who regard Kleist as among the most accessible of classic artists one whose relevance requires neither theoretical introduction nor literary historical justification The present volume addresses two centuries of engagement with Kleist and his works from an angle that has proven most important to their popular canonical status his artistic and political legacies What mattered to Kleist has mattered to centuries of readers and thus all the more to artists and thinkers with similarly urgent messages to convey Contemporary Women's Writing in German Brigid Haines, Margaret Littler, 2004-09-23 Six key texts by contemporary women writers are read afresh by leading critics using insights from poststructuralist and new materialist feminist theory Ingeborg Bachmann Christa Wolf and Elfriede Jelinek have long been prominent in the fields of Austrian modernism GDR writing and avant garde Austrian literature The innovative work of Anne Duden Herta and Pauline Miller and Emine Sevgi Zaimar sets out to challenge dominant models of German identity Focusing on the body and suffering they explore textual representations of trauma national identity and displacement Haines and Littler's readings of these distinguished and complex female authors offer new avenues for discussion Both critics and their subjects cast a sceptical eye over existing notions of subjectivity in relation to language gender and race Together they spark controversy and comment in an increasingly important debate Post-fascist Fantasies Julia Hell, 1997 Employing an approach informed by Slavoj Žižek's work on the Communist's sublime body and by British psychoanalytic feminism's concern with feminine subjectivity Hell first examines the antifascist works by exiled authors and authors tied to the resistance movement She then strives to understand the role of Christa Wolf the GDR's most prominent author in the GDR's effort to reconstruct symbolic power after the Nazi period
