Keith Haring is synonymous with the downtown New York art scene of the 1980s. His artwork with its simple bold lines and dynamic figures in motion filtered in to the world's consciousness and is still instantly recognizable twenty years after his death. This Penguin Classics Deluxe Edition features ninety black and white images of classic artwork and never before published Polaroid images and is a remarkable glimpse of a man who in his quest to become an artist instead became an icon. For more than seventy years Penguin has been the leading publisher of classic literature in the English speaking world. With more than 1,700 titles Penguin Classics represents a global bookshelf of the best works throughout history and across genres and disciplines. Readers trust the series to provide authoritative texts enhanced by introductions and notes by distinguished scholars and contemporary authors as well as up to date translations by award winning translators.

Art and Merchandise in Keith Haring's Pop Shop Amy Raffel, 2020-12-30 As one of the first academic monographs on Keith Haring this book uses the Pop Shop a previously overlooked enterprise and artist merchandising as tools to reconsider the significance and legacy of Haring's career as a whole. Haring developed an alternative approach to both the marketing and the social efficacy of art he controlled the sales and distribution of his merchandise while also promulgating his belief in accessibility and community activism. He proved that mass produced objects can be used strategically to form a community and create social change. Furthermore looking beyond the 1980s into the 1990s and 2000s Haring and his shop prefigured artists emerging self aware involvement with the mass media and the art world's growing dependence on marketing and commercialism. The book will be of interest to scholars or students studying art history consumer culture cultural studies media studies or market studies as well as anyone with a curiosity about Haring and his work the 1980s art scene in New York the East Village street art art activism and art merchandising.

American Televangelism and Participatory Cultures Denis J. Bekkering, 2018-10-12 This book examines unintended participatory cultures and media surrounding the American televangelists Robert Tilton and Tammy Faye Bakker Messner. It brings to light heavily ironic fan followings print audio and video projects public access television parodies and other comedic participatory practices associated with these controversial preachers from the 1980s onwards For Tilton s ministry some of these activities and artifacts would prove irksome and even threatening particularly an analog video remix turned online viral sensation In contrast Bakker Messner s campy fans gay men attracted to her ludicrous tragedy would provide her unexpected opportunities for career rehabilitation Denis J Bekkering challenges supply side religious economy and branding approaches suggestions of novelty in religion and new media studies and the emphasis on sincere devotion in research on religion and fandom He also highlights how everyday individuals have long participated in public negotiations of Christian authenticity through tongue in cheek play with purported religious fakes
