Kemble International Report On Slavery In Sudan:

The Kemble International Report on Slavery in Sudan Penn Kemble,2002-07-01 This UNICEF report alleges that slavery exists in Sudan and has been used by the gov t as a tool in fighting the country s civil war CW The CW began in 1983 when rebels seeking autonomy for the largely animist and Christian south took up arms against the Muslim dominated N gov t after the adoption of Islamic law for the country The report states the pattern of slave taking that has developed since the start of the CW is the product of a counterinsurgency strategy pursued by successive gov ts in Khartoum The strategy involves arming militias from N Sudan who attack rebel controlled villages and abduct and enslave Southern Sudanese There are more than 100 000 Sudanese slaves

South Sudan Skills Story Lawrence M. Tombe,2017-09-28 The South Sudan Skills Story is an account about manpower and education development in South Sudan a narrative that includes efforts exerted in attainment of the much needed workforce for fuelling the countrys economy now fatally impacted by the ongoing internal strife Prior to escalation of the armed conflict that broke out in December 2013 hardly four years after the country gained its sovereignty on July 9 2011 the new nation was on course in setting up its new education system and basis of sustainable human development now shattered by the vicious war The conflict has eroded the countrys human potential through loss of life skills wastage and extreme brutalities perpetrated against citizens by the war drivers The education quandary is compounded by displacement of over 3 million people from their homes and localities a dire situation that has caused severe food insecurity affecting over 7 5 million people With over 2 million children forced out of school particularly in the most conflict affected regions of South Sudan including over 1 4 million forced out of the country as refugees to neighbouring countries it means that one in every three children in the country is out of school The scale and magnitude of the unending human dispersal has severely curtailed South Sudans ability to provide education to all its citizens The once adopted slogan of bringing education to all in the country is now a far cry as the new nation heads to total collapse if the conflict is not halted The South Sudan Skills Story urges the leaders of South Sudan who are proponents of the conflict to rise above self serving political cleavages to stop the war for peace so that all the citizens are availed the opportunity to realize their fullest potential for development of the country The narrative concludes that the people of this young nation will remain one of the most undereducated populations in the world as long as the legacy of war violence and impunity prevails in the country

The Kingdom of God Has No Borders Melani McAlister,2018-07-02 Award of Merit 2019 Christianity Today Book Awards History Biography More than forty years ago conservative Christianity emerged as a major force in American political life Since then the movement has been analyzed and over analyzed declared triumphant and more than once given up for dead But because outside observers have maintained a near relentless focus on domestic politics the most transformative development over the last several decades the explosive growth of Christianity in the global south has gone unrecognized by the wider public even as it has transformed evangelical life both in the US and abroad The Kingdom of God Has No Borders offers a daring new perspective on conservative Christianity by shifting the lens to focus on the world outside US borders Melani McAlister offers a sweeping narrative of the last fifty years of evangelical history weaving a fascinating tale that upends much of what we know or think we know about American evangelicals She takes us to the Congo in the 1960s where Christians were enmeshed in a complicated interplay of missionary zeal Cold War politics racial hierarchy and anti colonial struggle She shows us how evangelical efforts to convert non Christians have placed them in direct conflict with Islam at flash points across the globe And she examines how Christian leaders have fought to stem the tide of HIV AIDS in Africa while at the same time supporting harsh repression of LGBTQ communities Through these and other stories McAlister focuses on the many ways in which looking at evangelicals abroad complicates conventional ideas about evangelicalism We can't truly understand how conservative Christians see themselves and their place in the world unless we look beyond our shores

Tipton, 2008-09-15 Since the 2000 presidential election debate over the role of religion in public life has followed a narrow course as pundits and politicians alike have focused on the influence wielded by conservative Christians But what about more mainstream Christians Here Steven M Tipton examines the political activities of Methodists and mainline churches in this groundbreaking investigation into a generation of denominational strife among church officials lobbyists and activists The result is an unusually detailed and thoughtful account that upends common stereotypes while asking searching questions about the contested relationship between church and state Documenting a wide range of reactions to two radically different events the invasion of Iraq and the creation of the faith based initiatives program Tipton charts the new terrain of religious and moral argument under the Bush administration from Pat Robertson to Jim Wallis He then turns to the case of the United Methodist Church of which President Bush is a member to uncover the twentieth century history of their political advocacy culminating in current threats to split the Church between liberal peace and justice activists and crusaders for evangelical renewal Public Pulpits balances the firsthand drama of this internal account with a meditative exploration of the wider social impact that mainline churches have had in a time of diverging fortunes and diminished dreams of progress An eminently fair minded and ethically astute analysis of how churches keep moral issues alive in politics Public Pulpits delves deep into mainline Protestant efforts to enlarge civic conscience and cast clearer light on the commonweal and offers a masterly overview of public religion in America Encyclopedia of African History 3-Volume Set KEVIN SHILLINGTON.,2005

West Africa During the Atlantic Slave Trade Christopher DeCorse,2016-10-06 West Africa during the Atlantic Slave Trade surveys archaeological data from Senegal to the Cameroon It focuses on the past 500 years a period that witnessed dramatic transformations in African political and social systems as well as the consequences of European expansion the advent of the Atlantic slave trade and the expansion of Islamic polities in the West African Sahel The geographical and topical scope of this volume draws together archaeological syntheses of various parts of West Africa and is an important resource for West Africanists and all researchers interested in the indigenous response to European expansion as well as for those examining African continuities in the Americas Proletarian and Gendered Mass Migrations ,2013-05-02 Proletarian and Gendered Mass Migrations connects the 19th and 20th century labor migrations and migration systems in global transcultural perspective It emphasizes macro regional internal continuities or discontinuities and interactions between and within macro regions The essays look at migrant workers experiences in constraining frames and the options they seize or constraints they circumvent It traces the development from 19th century proletarian migrations to industries and plantations across the globe to 20th and 21st century domestics and caregiver migrations It integrates male and female migration and shows how women have always been present in mass migrations Studies on historical development over time are supplemented by case studies on present migrations in Asia and from Asia A systems approach is combined with human agency perspectives Contributors include Rochelle Ball Shelly Chan Dennis D Cordell Michael Douglass Christiane Harzig Dirk Hoerder Muhamad Nadrattuzaman Hosen Hass ne Kassar Kamel Kateb Amarjit Kaur Kiranjit Kaur Gijss Kessler Akram Khater Elizabeth A Kuznesof Vera Mackie Adam McKeown Tomoko Nakamatsu Ooi Keat Gin Aswatini Raharto Marlou Schrover and Patcharawalai Wongboonsin
