Kenneth Slessor:

Kenneth Slessor Selected Poems Kenneth Slessor, 2014 Kenneth Slessor 1901-71 is one of Australia's finest poets and this is the definitive collection of 103 poems all he had ever published. This is the author's selection of his work from 1919 to 1939, first published as One Hundred Poems in 1944 with the addition of three further poems in 1957. It draws from his acclaimed books Earth Visitors 1926, Cuckooz Contrey 1932 and Five Bells 1939. Introduced by Dennis Haskell, this selection includes Slessor's own piece about his work Some Notes on the Poems. From his historical series Five Visions of Captain Cook to his memorial to the loss of a friend Five Bells from the tragic landscape of El Alamein, made famous in Beach Burial to the meditation Out of Time, Slessor's poetry continues to dazzle contemporary audiences. Australian Poetry Paul Kane, 1996-01-01 This book offers a comprehensive and original reading of Australian poetry from the colonial period to the present through the dual lenses of Romanticism and negativity. Paul Kane argues that the absence of Romanticism functions as a crucial presence in the poetry of all the major Australian poets. This absence or negativity is both thematic and structural, and Kane's scrupulous analyses uncover important relations between Romanticism and negativity. Chapters on nine individual poets explore and substantiate the theoretical claims informed by the work of contemporary critics of Romanticism and by various philosophers of negativity. These chapters can serve as a series of self-contained readings of Australian poets for the use of students, scholars, and informed general readers. Australian Poetry is unique in its sustained argument and theoretical sophistication. Creative Lives Penelope Hanley, 2009 Henry Lawson, Miles Franklin, Henry Handel Richardson, Kenneth Slessor, Eleanor Dark, Christina Stead, Kylie Tennant, Patrick White, Thomas Keneally, Mem Fox. Backgazing: Reverse Time in Modernist Culture Paul Giles, 2019-02-14 This volume traces ways in which time is represented in reverse forms throughout modernist culture from the beginning of the twentieth century until the decade after World War II. Though modernism is often associated with revolutionary or futurist directions, this book argues instead that a retrograde dimension is embedded within it. By juxtaposing the literature of Europe and North America with that of Australia and New Zealand, it suggests how this antipodean context serves to defamiliarize and reconceptualize normative modernist understandings of temporal progression. Backgazing thus moves beyond the treatment of a specific geographical periphery as another margin on the expanding field of New Modernist Studies. Instead, it offers a systematic investigation of the transformative effect of retrograde dimensions on our understanding of canonical modernist texts. The title backgazing is taken from Australian poet Robert G. Fitzgerald's 1938 poem Essay on Memory, and it epitomizes how the cultural history of modernism can be restructured according to a radically different discursive map. Backgazing intellectually reconfigures US and European modernism within a planetary orbit in which the literature of Australia and the Southern Hemisphere, far from being merely an annexed margin, can be seen substantively to change the directional compass of modernism more generally. By reading canonical modernists such as James Joyce and T. S. Eliot alongside marginalized writers such as Nancy Cunard and others, and relatively neglected authors from Australia and New Zealand this book offers a revisionist cultural history of modernist time one framed by a recognition of how its measurement is modulated across geographical space
