Inez Linda J. Lumsden,2004-07-08 Inez Milholland was the most glamorous suffragist of the 1910s and a fearless crusader for women s rights Moving in radical circles she agitated for social change in the prewar years and she epitomized the independent New Woman of the time Her death at age 30 while stumping for suffrage in California in 1916 made her the sole martyr of the American suffrage movement Her death helped inspire two years of militant protests by the National Woman s Party including the picketing of the White House which led in 1920 to ratification of the 19th Amendment granting women the right to vote Lumsden's study of this colorful and influential figure restores to history an important link between the homebound women of the 19th century and the iconoclastic feminists of the 1970s

The epicure's almanack of 1815 was the first British good food guide designed to point the reader toward places in and around London where he might dine well and to the best advantage whatever his budget Working alone and on foot Ralph Rylance visited and described some 650 establishments ranging from City chop houses ancient coaching inns and London's first Indian restaurant to humble tripe shops and oyster rooms dockyard taverns and village pubs He concluded his tour with a comprehensive account of London's markets a catalogue of merchants stocking everything from anchovy sauce to kitchen ranges and an alimentary calendar directing both cooks and diners to the best seasonal ingredients Annual updates were promised but never appeared a publishing failure in its own time the Almanack was neither continued nor reprinted and two years after publication all unsold copies were destroyed The present edition is designed to make this engaging and informative text more readily available and to provide a commentary on the book and its author and on the wider topic of eating and drinking in London at the beginning of the nineteenth century The extensive notes to the main text include brief histories of the principal establishments mentioned whenever possible making use of contemporary notices and advertisements and details from a contemporary map of London allow the reader to follow in Ralph Rylance's footsteps as he explores the city's streets Front flap of book jk      Architecture Series: Bibliography , 1990      Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 1990
