Everyday Seema Golestaneh examines how Sufi mystical experience in Iran shapes contemporary life Central to this process is ma rifat or unknowing the idea that as it is ultimately impossible to fully understand the divine humanity must operate from an engaged awareness that it knows nothing Golestaneh shows that rather than considering ma rifat an obstacle to intellectual engagement Sufis embrace that there will always be that which they do not know From this position they affirm both the limits of human knowledge and the mysteries of the profane world Through ethnographic case studies Golestaneh traces the affective and sensory dimensions of ma rifat in contexts such as the creation of collective Sufi spaces the interpretation of Persian poetry formulations of selfhood and non selfhood and the navigation of the socio material realm By outlining the relationship between ma rifat and religious aesthetic and social life in Iran Golestaneh demonstrates that for Sufis the outer bounds of human thought are the beginning rather than the limit Studies on Sufism in Central Asia Devin DeWeese,2023-05-31 Studies on Sufism in Central Asia reproduces 12 studies which explore previously unstudied sources with an eye to identifying prominent developments in the social and organizational history of the major Sufi groupings of the region The chronological range reflected in the studies included here runs from the 13th century to the 17th with a somewhat uneven distribution between the earlier half of the period 13th 15th centuries with six articles Nos II IV V VII VIII and XI and the later half 16th 17th centuries with four pieces Nos III IX X XII and two studies Nos I and VI spanning the entire period In terms of specific Sufi traditions the studies included here reflect DeWeese s attention to groups and individuals that might be identified despite the focus of some of his more recent work on questioning the use and meaning of such labels as Kubrav Yasav and Khw jag n Naqshband with four studies focused entirely on Kubrav circles Nos I II V XI five on Yasav subjects Nos III VII IX X XII and one on the Khw jag n No VIII as well as one dealing with Yasav Naqshband relations No VI and another exploring a group that falls outside these labels No IV Khw jag n and Naqshband history has a strong background presence nevertheless in five other articles Nos I III IV VII and IX reflecting the steady rise of the Naqshband ya to predominance among Central Asian Sufi traditions Sufism and Politics in Morocco Abdelilah Bouasria,2015-02-11 Presenting a political history and sociology of Moroccan Sufism from colonialism to the modern day this book studies the Sufi model of Master and Disciple in relation to social and political life comparing the different eras of acquiescent versus dissident Sufism This comparative fieldwork study offers new perspectives on the connection between the monarchy and mystic realms with a specific coverage of the Boutchichi order and Abdessalam Yassine s Al Adl Wal Ihsane examining the myth of apolitical Sufism throughout the Middle East and North Africa Drawing on Michel Foucault and James Scott this book fuses thinking about the political dimension of Sufism a hidden transcript involving power struggles patronage and justice and its esoteric spiritual ethics of care Addressing the lacuna in English language literature on the Boutchichi Sufi order in Morocco this book will be of interest to students and scholars of Islamic Studies Comparative Politics and the MENA region Insights into Sufism Ruth J. Nicholls,Peter G. Riddell,2020-07-31 Sufism has long constituted one of the most powerful drawcards to people embracing Islam This book considers a broad range of questions relating to Sufism including its history manifestations in various countries and communities its expression in poetry women and Sufism and expressions among popular spirituality In addition the volume challenges the long held view of Sufism as being necessarily peaceful through a consideration in one paper of Sufis engaging in violent Jihad The book works at the interface between the scholarly and the practical using rigorous methodology to ensure that its findings are reliable while also giving attention to how Sufi thinking impacts the daily lives of Sufis This represents an original and important dimension of this study given the significant role played by Sufis throughout Islamic history in enriching discussion of intellectual and charismatic questions as well as informing popular practice among Folk Muslims

Sufism Deepshikha Shahi, 2020-06-22 In an effort to attain a global character the contemporary academic discipline of International Relations IR increasingly seeks to surpass its Eurocentric limits thereby opening up pathways to incorporate non Eurocentric worldviews Lately many of the non Eurocentric worldviews have emerged which either engender a derivative discourse of the same Eurocentric IR theories or construct an exceptionalist discourse which is particularly applicable to the narrow experiential realities of a native time space zone as such they fall short of the ambition to produce a genuinely non derivative and non exceptionalist Global IR theory Against this backdrop Sufism A Theoretical Intervention in Global International Relations performs a multidisciplinary research to explore how Sufism as an established non Western philosophy with a remarkable temporal spatial spread across the globe facilitates a creative intervention in the theoretical understanding of Global IR

Sufi Civilities Annika Schmeding, 2023-11-28 Despite its pervasive reputation as a place of religious extremes and war Afghanistan has a complex and varied religious landscape where elements from a broad spectrum of religious belief vie for a place in society It is also one of the birthplaces of a widely practiced variant of Islam Sufism Contemporary analysts suggest that Sufism is on the decline due to war and the ideological hardening that results from societies in conflict However in Sufi Civilities Annika Schmeding argues that this is far from a truthful depiction Members of Sufi communities have worked as resistance fighters aid workers business people actors professors and daily workers in creative and ingenious ways to keep and renew their networks of community support Based on long term ethnographic field research among multiple Sufi communities in different urban areas of Afghanistan the book examines navigational strategies employed by Sufi leaders over the past four decades to weather periods of instability and persecution showing how they adapted to changing conditions in novel ways that crafted Sufism as a force in the civil sphere This book offers a rare on the ground view into how Sufi leaders react to moments of transition within a highly insecure environment and how humanity shines through the darkness during times of turmoil

Sufis in Western Society Markus Dressler, Ron Geaves, Gritt Klinkhammer, 2009-06-02 In recent years Sufism has undergone something of a revival as a spiritual alternative to other manifestations of Islam This book investigates the development of Sufism in Western societies with a regional focus on North America and Europe Exploring a number of issues relating to the dynamic tensions between religious globalization processes and specific sacred localities this book looks at the formation of Sufi movements that have migrated from their place of origin to become global religious networks Sufi groups are highly differentiated and often inaccessible so the origins and development of Sufism in the West have not been widely studied Employing a comparative approach based on regional fieldwork and case studies this book addresses theoretical issues and gives a comprehensive analysis of distinct communities and the development of regional branches of Sufi orders providing an international perspective on Sufism in the West With contributions from well known international experts on the topic the book addresses Sufi orders in the context of the transnational networks in which they are operating and the constraints of the localities in which they live This book will be of interest to scholars and students of religion Islam and Sufism in particular

The Shaping Shaikh Dejan Aždajić, 2020-01-20 Islam is more than a system of rigid doctrines and normative principles It is a diverse mosaic of subjective often contradictory interpretations and discrepant applications that prohibit a narrow one dimensional approach This book argues that to uncover this complex reality and achieve a more accurate understanding of Islam as a lived religion it is imperative to consider Islam from the point of view of human beings who practice their faith Consequently this book provides an important contribution through a detailed ethnographic study of two contemporary Sufi communities Although both groups shared much in common there was a fundamental almost perplexing range of theological convictions and ritual implementations This book explores the mechanism that accounts for such diversity arguing for a direct correlation between Sufi multiformity and the agency of the spiritual leader the Shaikh Empirical research regarding the authority by which Shaikhs subjectively generate legitimate adaptations that shape the contours of religious belief are lacking This study is significant because it focuses on how leadership operates in Sufism highlighting the primacy of the Shaikh in the selection and appropriation of inherited norms

Sufi Essays Seyyed Hossein Nasr,1972-01-01 This book combines scholarly research into certain aspect of Sufi doctrines and history with a penetrating account of the spiritual and metaphysical message and significance of Sufism as a living spiritual tradition In an original discussion unlike anything that has appeared before in studies of Sufism the author places special accent on the pertinence of Sufi teachings to the most acute contemporary problems The book addresses itself to both the ever increasing Western public interested in Sufism and to the Western educated Muslim interested in his own spiritual heritage Dr Nasr draws on his intimate knowledge of the Sufi literature in Arabic and Persian as well as his first hand knowledge of Sufi tradition itself to produce this further volume in his numerous studies on the different facets of Islam

The Evangelical Counter-Enlightenment William R. Everdell,2021-05-21 This contribution to the global history of ideas uses biographical profiles of 18th century contemporaries to find what Salafist and Sufi Islam Evangelical Protestant and Jansenist Catholic Christianity and Hasidic Judaism have in common Such figures include Mu ammad Ibn abd al Wa hab Count Nikolaus Zinzendorf Jonathan Edwards John Wesley Jean Jacques Rousseau and Israel Ba al Shem Tov The book is a unique and comprehensive study of the conflicted relationship between the evangelical movements in all three Abrahamic religions and the ideas of the Enlightenment and Counter Enlightenment Centered on the 18th century the book reaches back to the third century for precedents and context and forward to the 21st for the legacy of these movements This text appeals to students and researchers in many fields including Philosophy and Religion their histories and World History while also appealing to the interested lay reader

Sufi Women of South Asia Tahera Aftab,2022-05-16 In Sufi Women of South Asia Veiled Friends of God the first biographical compendium of hundred and forty one women from the eleventh to the twentieth century Tahera Aftab fills a serious gap in the existing scholarship regarding the historical presence of women in Islam and brings women to the centre of the expanding literature on Sufism The book s translated excerpts from the original Farsi and Urdu sources that were never put together create a much needed English language source base on Sufism and Muslim women The book questions the spurious religious and cultural traditions that patronise gender inequalities in Muslim societies and convincingly proves that these pious women were exemplars of Islamic piety who as true spiritual masters avoided its public display

Women in Sufism Marta Dominguez Diaz,2014-10-24 Exploring the diverse myriad of female religious identities that exist within the various branches of the Moroccan Sufi Order Q diriyya B dsh shiyya today this book evidences a wide array of religious identities from those more typical of Berber culture to those characterised by a sober approach to Sufism as well as those that denote New Age eclecticism The book researches the ways in which religious discourses are corporeally endorsed After providing an overview of the Order historically and today enunciating the processes by which this local tarqa from North eastern Morocco has become the international organization that it is now the book explores the religious body in movement in performance and in relation to the social order It analyses pilgrimage by assessing the annual visit that followers of Hamza B dsh sh make to the central lodge of the Order in Mad gh it explores bodily religious enactments in ritual performance by discussing the central practices of Sufi ritual as manifested in the B dsh shiyya and delves attention into diverse understandings of faith healing and health issues Women and Sufism provides a detailed insight into religious healing sufi rituals and sufi pilgrimage and is essential reading for those seeking to understand Islam in Morocco or those with an interest in Anthropology and Middle East studies more generally

Women Mystics and Sufi Shrines in India Kelly Pemberton, 2013-02-19 Insightful field research into the complexity of women's roles in a subset of Islamic culture Women Mystics and Sufi Shrines in India combines historical data with years of ethnographic fieldwork to investigate women's participation in the culture of Sufi shrines in India and the manner in which this participation both complicates and sustains traditional conceptions of Islamic womanhood Kelly Pemberton grounds her firsthand research into India's Sufi shrines and saints by setting her observations against the historical backdrop of colonial era discourses by British civil servants Orientalist scholars and Muslim reformists and the assumptive portrayals of women's activities in the milieu of Sufi orders and shrines inherent in these accounts These early narratives Pemberton holds are driven by social economic intellectual and political undercurrents of self interest that shaped Western understanding of Indian Muslims and in particular of women's participation in the institutions of Sufism Pemberton's research offers a corrective by assessing the contemporary circumstances under which a woman may be recognized as a spiritual authority or guide despite official denial of such status and by examining the discrepancies between the commonly held belief that women cannot perform in the public setting of shrines and her own observations of women doing precisely that She demonstrates that the existence of multiple models of master and disciple relationships have opened avenues for women to be recognized as spiritual authorities in their own right Specifically Pemberton explores the work of performance recitation and ritual mediation carried out by women connected with Sufi orders through kinship and spiritual ties and she maps shifting ideas about women's involvement in public ritual events in a variety of contexts circumstances and genres of performance She also highlights the private petitioning of saints the Prophet and God performed by poor women of low social standing in Bihar Sharif These women are often perceived as being exceptionally close to God yet are compelled to operate outside the public sphere of major shrines Throughout this groundbreaking study Pemberton sets observed practices of lived religious experiences against the boundaries established by prescriptive behavioral models of Islam to illustrate how the varied reasons given for why women cannot become spiritual masters conflict with the need in Sufi circles for them to do exactly that Thus this work also invites further inquiry into the ambiguities to be found in Islam's foundational framework for belief and practice
