Historical Dictionary of

Australia Norman Abjorensen, James C. Docherty, 2014-12-05 Australia's development from the most unpromising of beginnings as a British prison in 1788 to the prosperous liberal democracy of the present is as remarkable as is its success as a country of large scale immigration. Since 1942 it has been a loyal ally of the United States and has demonstrated this loyalty by contributing troops to the war in Vietnam and by being part of the coalition of the willing in the U.S. invasion of Iraq in 2003 and in operations in Afghanistan. In recent years it has also been more willing to promote peace and democracy in its Pacific and Asian neighbors. This fourth edition of Historical Dictionary of Australia covers its history through a chronology, an introductory essay, appendixes, and an extensive bibliography. The dictionary section has over 500 cross-referenced entries on important personalities, politics, economy, foreign relations, religion, and culture. This book is an excellent access point for students, researchers, and anyone wanting to know more about Australia.

Rethinking Work Mark Hearn, Grant Michelson, 2006-02-13 This 2006 book is structured around the themes of time, space, and discourse as they are applied to our working lives.

Teacher for Justice Heather Goodall, Helen Randerson, Devleena Ghosh, 2019-08-26 Teacher for Justice is a major contribution to the history of the women's movement, working class activism, and Australian political internationalism. But it is more than this. By focusing on the life of Lucy Woodcock, an unrecognised and under-researched figure, this book rewrites the history of twentieth century Australia from the perspective of an activist who challenged conventions to fight for gender, race, and class equality, exploring the complex and multi-layered intersections of these aspects. It explores Woodcock's personal relationships and the circles she mixed in, and the friendships she forged, as well as the conventions she challenged as a single woman in possibly a same-sex relationship. The book makes a key contribution to the history of progressive education and the experience of women teachers. Above all, it charts the life of a transnational figure who made connections globally and in particular with refugees and with women in India and the Asian region. It is a detailed, thoroughly researched, and richly textured history which places Woodcock within the context of the times in which she lived.

Joy Damousi, Professor of History, University of Melbourne. Meet Lucy Woodcock, a complex, undaunted woman in a tough and changing world. From her role as a public school principal in Depression and wartime to her union and feminist organising to her transnational engagements for peace, this clear and thoughtful book brings to life forgotten forms of activism. It's the gripping story of how Lucy navigated the minefields of gender, class, race, and coloniality to change her world.

Raewyn Connell, Professor Emerita, University of Sydney. Just over a century ago, the last of the pupil teachers, Lucy Woodcock, co-founded the NSW Teachers Federation. So many of the principles and traditions that underpin our union today can be traced back to the lifelong work of Lucy Woodcock. She fought for the industrial rights of teachers deep in the knowledge of the broader social and economic context in which she lived and worked. Too often, the role of working class women whose influence is profound is ignored. This biography installs Lucy Woodcock into her rightful place as a pivotal player in the history of twentieth century Australia.

Maurie Mulheron, President, NSW Teachers Federation. A fascinating history of a fascinating woman. Lucy's interests were so broad and so modern equal pay racism internationalism Indigenous rights and anti war struggles were all part of Lucy's world She had a vision beyond nationalism championed the cause of world peace when peace was being treated as a dirty word and saw women as global citizens Lucy was one of the heroes of our disgracefully unfinished Equal Pay struggle Hon Dr Meredith Burgmann anti racism and peace activist former President of the NSW Legislative Council September 11, 2001 Susan Hawthorne, Bronwyn Winter, 2002 This collection of pieces by Australian and International feminists brings together the voices of women and discusses the connections between war terrorism fundamentalism racism global capitalism and male violence They have deconstructed this story in a powerful indictment of current global politics The New Province for Law and Order Stuart Macintyre, Joseph Ezra Isaac, 2004-09-21 This 2004 book records analyses and celebrates the centenary of the Australian federal industrial system Overland, 2001 Australian Book Review, 2001 Labour & Industry, 2002
