Boots on the Ground by Dusk Mary Tillman, Narda Zacchino, 2008-04-29 On April 22 2004 Lieutenant David Uthlaut received orders from Khost Afghanistan that his platoon was to leave the town of Magarah and have boots on the ground before dark in Manah a small village on the border of Pakistan It was an order the young lieutenant protested vehemently but the commanders at the Tactical Command Center disregarded his objections Uthlaut split his platoon into two serials with serial one traveling northwest to Manah and serial two towing a broken Humvee north toward the Khost highway By nightfall Uthlaut and his radio operator were seriously wounded and an Afghan militia soldier and a U S soldier were dead The American soldier was Pat Tillman The Tillman family was originally informed that Pat who had given up a professional football career to serve his country had been shot in the head while getting out of a vehicle At his memorial service twelve days later they were told that he was killed while running up a hill in pursuit of the enemy He was awarded a Silver Star for his courageous actions A month and two days after his death the family learned that Pat had been shot three times in the head by his own troops in a friendly fire incident Seven months after Pat's death the Tillmans requested an investigation Boots on the Ground by Dusk is a chronicle of their efforts to ascertain the true circumstances of Pat's death and the reasons why the Army gave the family and the public a false story Woven into the account are valuable and respectful memories of Pat Tillman as a son brother husband friend and teammate in the hope that the reader will better comprehend what is really lost when our sons and daughters are killed or maimed in war In the course of three and a half years there have been six investigations several inquiries and two Congressional hearings The Tillmans are still awaiting an outcome

Boots on the Ground by Dusk, 2008 Pat Tillman was seen by many as an American hero A star college football player turned pro he walked away from a multimillion dollar NFL contract after the 9/11 attacks choosing to enlist in the U S Army He graduated from their elite Ranger school and was deployed to Iraq in 2003 On April 22 2004 Pat Tillman was killed in Afghanistan The administration and the Pentagon immediately portrayed his death as the result of a dramatic gun battle with the enemy and Pat was posthumously awarded the Silver Star and a promotion in recognition of his bravery But as would later emerge Army officials were all along hiding the truth Pat was killed by his fellow Rangers The Tillmans discovered this fact five weeks after Pat's death and six separate investigations have since been launched largely due to the family's passionate insistence But even now the true circumstances remain murky and fraught with contradictions Here is Mary Tillman's story as she describes her attempts to uncover the truth about what happened to Pat and why the government went to such great lengths to keep the circumstances secret In the process she paints an
