Abandoned Disney Projects explores the fascinating world of unrealized Disney creations from shelved animated films to theme park attractions that never materialized. Delving into the Walt Disney Company's archives, the book uncovers hidden gems and offers insights into the creative process behind these abandoned concepts. Discover how shifting cultural trends and budgetary limitations often led to the demise of promising ideas. Did you know that Musicana, an ambitious animated feature, was abandoned? Or that WestCOT, a planned EPCOT expansion, never saw the light of day? The book examines the reasons why projects are ultimately abandoned and their lasting legacy. It progresses through specific examples of unrealized films, attractions, and themed lands, detailing their initial concepts and development processes. By focusing on the what-ifs of Disney's history, Abandoned Disney Projects provides a unique perspective on the company's creative evolution. My Brother's Keeper Thomas J. Marinello, H. H. Drake Williams, 2010-01-01 My Brother's Keeper is a collection of essays penned by people interested in educating primarily European church leaders, theological educators, and missionaries, as well as other Christian leaders from around the world. All of the authors are related to the ministries of Tyndale Theological Seminary, the Netherlands. This book is in honor of missionary Hebrew scholar and colleague Ellis R. Brotzman upon his retirement. Included is material from the fields of biblical studies, theological studies, and pastoral ministries and missions. The articles represent a sampling of the type of teaching provided at Tyndale since its beginnings in 1985, as well as a taste of the ongoing research of some of its members. Most of the authors have many decades of experience, primarily as missionary professors throughout Europe. Others include those with pastoral ministry experience in Europe and North America. Theological educators, local church leaders, and cross-cultural workers will find this a worthwhile addition to their personal and school libraries.
