Keepers of the Lights Hans Christian Adamson,1955 The saga of our lighthouses and the men who guide those who sail the seas

Guardians of the Lights Elinor De Wire,2015-10-17 In a charming blend of history and human interest this book paints a colorful portrait of the lives of a vanished breed the lighthouse keepers from the year 1716 when the first lighthouse was established in America to the early 1980s when automation replaced the last human guardian of the light A wealth of material from the archives of the 19th and 20th centuries primarily letters diaries and newspaper accounts provides vivid stories about lighthouse keeping in this country the daily work coping with fog storms and other catastrophes legends and ghosts women s and families roles lighthouse children and pets the natural world around lighthouses and the diverse characters of those who held the job Lighthouse keeping was a unique occupation now obsolete and this book is a fitting tribute to these tough usually solitary and dedicated heroes who kept the lights burning every night without fail

Keepers of the Lights Cochren Sallie (author),1901 Women who Kept the Lights Mary Louise Clifford,J. Candace Clifford,2003-06 Hundreds of American women have kept the lamps burning in lighthouses since Hannah Thomas tended Gurnet Point Light in Plymouth Massachusetts while her husband was away fighting in the War for Independence Women Who Kept the Lights details the careers of 32 intrepid women who were official keepers of light stations on the Atlantic Gulf and Pacific Coasts on Lake Champlain and the Great Lakes staying at their posts for periods ranging from a few years to half a century Most of these women served in the nineteenth century when the keeper lit a number of lamps in the tower at dusk replenished their fuel or replaced them at midnight and every morning polished the lamps and lanterns to keep their lights shining brightly Several of these stalwart women were commended for their courage in remaining at their posts through severe storms and hurricanes A few went to the rescue of seamen when ships capsized or were wrecked Their varied stories paint a multifaceted picture of a unique profession in our maritime history Keepers of the Light Phyllis Calvey,2000
