Marchand,2020-06-30 This is the book on porcelain we have been waiting for A remarkable achievement Edmund de Waal author of The Hare with Amber Eyes A sweeping cultural and economic history of porcelain from the eighteenth century to the present Porcelain was invented in medieval China but its secret recipe was first reproduced in Europe by an alchemist in the employ of the Saxon king

Augustus the Strong Saxony's revered Meissen factory could not keep porcelain's ingredients secret for long however and scores of Holy Roman princes quickly founded their own mercantile manufactories soon to be rivaled by private entrepreneurs eager to make not art but profits As porcelain's uses multiplied and its price plummeted it lost much of its identity as aristocratic ornament instead taking on a vast number of banal yet even more culturally significant roles By the nineteenth and twentieth centuries it became essential to bourgeois dining and also acquired new functions in insulator tubes shell casings and teeth Weaving together the experiences of entrepreneurs and artisans state bureaucrats and female consumers chemists and peddlers Porcelain traces the remarkable story of white gold from its origins as a princely luxury item to its fate in Germany's cataclysmic twentieth century For three hundred years porcelain firms have come and gone but the industry itself at least until very recently has endured After Augustus porcelain became a quintessentially German commodity integral to provincial pride artisanal industrial production and a familial sense of home Telling the story of porcelain's transformation from coveted luxury to household necessity and flea market staple Porcelain offers a fascinating alternative history of art business taste and consumption in Central Europe

The Tact of Teaching Max van Manen, 2016-06-16 In The Tact of Teaching bestselling author Max van Manen offers teachers at every stage an original and inspiring interpretation of the notion of pedagogy one that searches for its roots in the experience of in loco parentis Using dozens of anecdotes and scenes taken directly from life in classrooms including many from the often neglected domain of high school The Tact of Teaching explicates the meaning of pedagogical moments the conditions of pedagogy the relation between pedagogy and politics the nature of pedagogical experience and the practical forms of pedagogical understanding The author Presents experiential analysis of the relation between pedagogical reflection and action Explores how pedagogical tact manifests itself what tact accomplishes and how tact does what it does Speaks of hope and humane practice in an era of schooling often given over to mindless technocracy or fashionable despair

The Secret Life of Families Evan Imber-Black, 2009-08-19 Secrets come in all shapes and sizes And for families as well as individuals they are built on a complex web of shifting motives and emotions But today when personal revelations are posted on the Internet or sensationalized on afternoon talk shows we risk losing touch with how important secrets are how they are used and abused their power to harm and heal In this important work Evan Imber Black explores the nature of secrets helping us understand The distinction between healthy privacy and toxic secrecy What to tell and not to tell young children How to safely confront a family zone of silence Why adolescents need to have some secrets and where to draw the line The effect of official secrets like sealed adoption records and medical testing What to consider before revealing an important secret And much more Filled with moving first person stories The Secret Life of Families provides perspective on some of today's most sensitive personal and social issues Giving voice to our deepest fears and to our power to overcome them this is a book that will be talked about for years to come

Sanctum Sanctorum Justin Mandela Roberts, 2019-11-11 This book seeks to answer the question What is holiness What do we talk about when we talk about holiness We might describe many things as holy but as Socrates says what is the essential aspect by which all holy acts are holy Sanctum Sanctorum gives an account of the holy from within the Christian participatory tradition and argues that holiness is included in a special category of divine names that Christian metaphysics calls transcendentals which are five being one truth goodness and beauty Moreover holiness stands in a hierarchical relationship to the other five transcendentals as the culmination or concentration of the rest Only by understanding holiness as the head of the transcendentals as the transcendental can one account for all the complexity the idea of the holy conjures Therefore holiness is the transcendental of the transcendentals It adds the aspect of reverence to existence and as such it is constituted by the formula sanctum sanctorum Holy of holies which extends from the divine nature through the triune life to all creation
