Dewey and his Influence R.C. Whittemore, 2012-12-06 To those of us who have been privileged to call him colleague Georges Estes Barton is perhaps best and most fondly remembered as the man with a camera At the beginning of every semester he could be observed carefully photographing each of his arriving students and while we used to chaff him about this practice all of us respected the motive behind it For George Barton was and is a dedicated teacher and in his courses no student ever would be suffered to remain simply a face in the crowd His favorite teaching technique has always been Socratic discourse and he is as Professors Roberts and DuBose remind us in their essays for this volume a master of the method In his chosen field of philosophy of education he has long been recognized as a leader serving several terms on the Executive Committee of the Philosophy of Education Society and in 1963 as its President In 1966 St Edwards University conferred upon him the honorary degree LL.D in recognition of his significant contributions to curriculum development Following a distinguished career in general education and educational research at the Rochester Institute of Technology and at the University of Chicago Professor Barton was appointed in 1956 to direct Tulane's Inter Disciplinary Program for the Preparation of Liberally Educated Teachers In February 1962 having seen the program through to a successful conclusion he joined the Department of Philosophy at Newcomb College as Associate Professor of Philosophy

Topsy-turvy 1585 Robin D. Gill, 2004 In 1585 Luis Frois a 53 year old Jesuit who spent all of his adult life in Japan listed 611 ways Europeans and

Japanese were contrary completely opposite to one another Robin D Gill a 53 year old writer who spent most of his adulthood in Japan translates these topsy turvy claims we sniff the top of our melons to see if they are ripe they sniff the bottom of theirs 10% of the book examines their validity 20% of the book and plays with them 70% of the book Readers with the intellectual horsepower to enjoy ideas will be grateful for pages discussing things like the significance of black and white clothing or large eyes vs small ones while others with a keen to collect quirky facts will be delighted to find say that the women in Kyoto were known to urinate standing up or Japanese horses had their stale gathered by long handled ladles etc and serious students of history and comparative culture will gain a better understanding of the nature of radical difference exotic by definition and its relationship with the farsighted policy of accommodation pioneered by Valignano in the Far East
