Keeping Eyes Healthy And Bright With Chemotherapy:

Beauty Pearls for Chemo Girls Marybeth Maida, Debbie Kiederer, 2009 This beauty bible devoted to chemotherapy patients written by a cancer survivor and a fashion industry insider offers a revolutionary way to help healing women feel and look their best

To Be Alive! Chris Hessler, 2016-10-21 I remember sitting by your bedside when you recalled for me some of your thoughts during your darkest hours in the hospital You expressed them as Who am I Where do I come from Where will I go once I survive Where would the courage come from to conquer fear Deathly sick you were determined to beat the odds You recalled thinking of your Mom the passionate musician the high school valedictorian and straight A college student caring mother of four who fired up her children to make good grades so as to get into the best colleges and universities The children obliged

Braving Chemo Beverly A. Zavaleta MD, 2019-10-21 Getting cancer is like a bomb going off in your life Having chemotherapy can feel like another bomb When faced with chemotherapy you have many questions but searching for answers on the internet can be overwhelming and pamphlets from your oncologist don't begin to tell you all you need to know In Braving Chemo Harvard educated physician and cancer survivor Beverly A Zavaleta MD combines her medical expertise with a survivor's insight to provide practical advice for both chemotherapy patients and cancer caregivers This book will give you clear answers to your most urgent chemotherapy questions such as How to keep your hair from falling out What to eat and how prevent nausea How to face tough feelings such as fear of dying Braving Chemo is a valuable resource about what to expect during chemo how to minimize the side effects and how to live life as normally as possible when life itself is on the line

Chemo Pilgrim Cricket Cooper, 2017-02-01 An original take on the journey into and through healing In the first section of this very personal book of illness spirituality and healing the Rev Cricket Cooper receives a diagnosis of non Hodgkins lymphoma for which she will need to undergo an eighteen week six cycle chemo treatment plan She decides to pair each of the chemo treatments if possible with a pilgrimage to some holy site or religious community The journey's sharp ups and downs lead her to the understanding that there is one path and we travel it together sometimes to unexpected places After counting down the eighteen weeks of the chemo much to her oncologist's and Cooper's chagrin the cancer is not cured and she must move on to radiation therapy The next section follows her month of radiation Cooper's terror of this treatment is allayed when she is able to see the radiation as Healing Light and realize that December her radiation month is also the month of the Jewish Festival of Lights of the Solstice of Christian Advent Nativity Epiphany and other faith based celebrations of light Taking as her meditation the Episcopal Collect for Advent 1 Almighty God give us grace that we may cast away the works of darkness and put upon us the armor of light she explores what this might mean beyond the context of Advent and in her own individual situation The book's final section covers waiting for the all clear report from the doctors and Cooper's residual issues of moving from the status of being a patient to the status of being a Survivor It is a time of relief tinged with at least a bit of uncertainty but buoyed by the knowledge that cancer is not
