Keeping Our Troth:

Keeping Our Troth James Olthuis, 1986 The Athenaeum , 1920 Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers' Monthly Journal , 1895 Towards an Ethics of Community James Olthuis, 2006-01-01 How do we deal with difference personally interpersonally nationally Can we weave a cohesive social fabric in a religiously plural society without suppressing differences This collection of significant essays suggests that to truly honour differences in matters of faith and religion we must publicly exercise and celebrate them The secular sacred public private divisions long considered sacred in the West need to be dismantled if Canada or any nation state is to develop a genuine mosaic that embraces fundamental differences instead of a melting pot that marginalizes An ethics of difference starts with a recognition of difference not as deviance or deficit that threatens but as otherness to connect with cherish and celebrate The book begins with the suggestion that our inability to come to terms with social plurality is not fundamentally the fault of religious differences and that a public private split inadequately deals with matters of basic difference It then explores how encouraging people to live out their respective faiths may open new possibilities for respectful honourable and just negotiations of contemporary dilemmas arising out of the multicultural fabric of Canadian life Towards an Ethics of Community introduces readers to some of the most challenging and divisive dilemmas we face in this increasingly pluralistic postmodern world issues such as family and domestic violence Aboriginal rights homosexuality and public policy and female genital mutilation This is a book truly global in scope and significance Proceedings of [1st]-6th National Conference, American Society for Judicial Settlement of International Disputes. 1910-16 American Society for Judicial Settlement of International Disputes, 1917 In Spirit and in Flesh Daniel Bran Griffith, 2008-12-01 This work contains the collected rituals of an independent working group based in Derbyshire It is an example of an evolving liturgy and the contents are presented in good faith as an inspiration to others Two rituals representing each of the eight Sabbats are presented each taken directly from our coven archive Unlike many books currently on offer this work does not seek to present a sanitised version of Paganism or the Craft this work presents our modus operandi how it is The contents are not offered as a form of forced instruction which the reader is expected to follow slavishly and without question These rituals are simply a guide to show how we have done things There are no chapters in this book dealing with theory how to cast or how to invoke This book is aimed at the experienced practitioner and there are many other useful works that can be used as an adjunct to this work Words for Warriors Diana Paxson, 2012-06-24 Throughout the current modern heathen revival many satr ar heathens Odinists and fellow travellers following the proud warrior traditions of the ancient North have served in the United States Armed Forces Diana L Paxson author of Essential satr and Taking Up the Runes has joined forces with Troth members who are active and retired military personnel and their families from across the US and Canada to provide inspiration counsel and comfort from the lore of our faith as well as practical advice on how to apply that in a military setting Chapters cover our Gods and Goddesses ethics and virtues runes and protections legal and practical issues adjusting to post combat life and advice for chaplains Sized to fit comfortably in a pocket Words for Warriors can go anywhere an active soldier sailor airman or marine can and hopefully come back with them as well
