Gammage, Antwanisha Alameen-Shavers, 2019-03-22 Challenging Misrepresentations of Black Womanhood investigates the typecasting of Black womanhood and the larger sociological impact on Black women's self-perceptions. It details the historical and contemporary use of stereotypes against Black women and how these women work to challenge and dispel false perceptions. The book highlights the role of racist ideas in the reproduction and promotion of stereotypes of Black femaleness in media literature, artificial intelligence, and the perceptions of the general public. Contributors in this collection identify the racist and sexist ideologies behind the misperceptions of Black womanhood and illuminate twenty-first century stereotypical treatment of Black women such as Michelle Obama and Serena Williams and explore topics such as comedic expressions of Black motherhood, representations of Black women in television dramas and literature, and identity reclamation and self-determination. Challenging Misrepresentations of Black Womanhood establishes the criteria with which to examine the role of stereotypes in the lives of Black women and more specifically its impact on their social and psychological well-being.
