Antigone's Sisters Lenart Škof, 2021-05-01 In Antigone's Sisters Lenart Škof explores the power of love in our world stronger than violence and ultimately stronger even than death Focusing on Antigone Savitri and Mary the book offers an investigation into various goddesses and feminine figures from a variety of philosophical mythological theological and literary contexts The book also elaborates on the feminine aspects of selected concepts from modern philosophical texts such as the Matrix in Jakob Böhme Clara in F W J Schelling being in Martin Heidegger's Being and Time in Jacques Derrida and breath in Luce Irigaray's thought Drawing on Bracha M Ettinger's concept of matrixiality Škof proposes a new matrixial theory of philosophy cosmology and theology of love Despite its many usages and appropriations love remains a neglected topic within Western philosophy With its new interpretation of Antigone and related readings of Irigaray Kristeva and Ettinger Antigone's Sisters aims to identify some of the reasons for this forgetting of love and to show that it is only love that can bring peace to our ethically disrupted world Grave of the Fireflies Alex Dudok de Wit, 2021-04-08 On its release in 1988 Grave of the Fireflies riveted audiences with its uncompromising drama Directed by Isao Takahata at Studio Ghibli and based on an autobiographical story by Akiyuki Nosaka the story of two Japanese children struggling to survive in the dying days of the Second World War unfolds with a gritty realism unprecedented in animation Grave of the Fireflies has since been hailed as a classic of both anime and war cinema In 2018 USA Today ranked it the greatest animated film of all time Yet Ghibli's sombre masterpiece remains little analysed outside Japan even as its meaning is fiercely contested Takahata himself lamented that few had grasped his message In the first book length study of the film in English Alex Dudok de Wit explores its themes visual devices and groundbreaking use of animation as well as the political context in which it was made Drawing on untranslated accounts by the film's crew he also describes its troubled production which almost spelt disaster for Takahata and his studio Mizoguchi and Japan Mark Le Fanu, 2019-07-25 For a majority of filmgoers the names most usually associated with classic Japanese cinema are those of Kurosawa and Ozu Yet during the early 1950s at the same time that Kurosawa was becoming known to the public through the release of classics like Rashomon and The Seven Samurai another Japanese director Kenji Mizoguchi quietly came out with a trilogy of films The Life of Oharu Ugetsu Monogatari and Sansho the Bailiff that are the equal of Kurosawa's in mastery and which by any account rank among the greatest and most enduring masterpieces of world cinema As a storyteller Mizoguchi was drawn to the plight and oppression of women throughout the ages it was for him the subject of subjects So in addition to the movies just mentioned he is remembered for a string of masterly contemporary films that examined with unprecedented candour and ferocity the conditions of life in Japanese brothels and geisha houses Yet as well as being a moralist Mizoguchi was a stylist His films are considered by critics to be among the most beautiful ever made from a purely pictorial point of view Filmgoers who have responded enthusiastically in recent years to Chinese classics like Farewell My Concubine or to the colourful works of Zhang Yimou will be delighted to discover pre echoes of this cinema in such late films by this Japanese master as The Empress Yang Kwei Fei and Tales of the Taira Clan both released in 1955 works in which colour costume and decor are deployed with compelling refinement Despite his extraordinary qualities as a film maker Mizoguchi and Japan is the first full length study in English for over 20 years of a director whose work is as vibrant now as it ever was in its heyday and whom the French film review Cahiers du Cinema recently hailed the greatest of all cineastes Mark Le Fanu's preface to the new ebook edition https://media.bloomsbury.com/rep/files/revised/mizoguchi_and_japan_preface.docx A Retrospective to the 2008 edition https://media.bloomsbury.com/rep/files/mizoguchi_and_japan_retrospect.doc Nuclear War Raymond G. Wilson, 2014 Nuclear War Hiroshima Nagasaki and A Workable Moral Strategy for Achieving and Preserving World Peace Raymond G Wilson The real truth of the matter is as you and I know that a financial element in the large centers has owned the government of the United States since the days of Andrew Jackson Franklin D Roosevelt There is considerable reason to believe President Roosevelt's statement is quite true thus the financial element in the large centers shares responsibility and blame for the tens if not hundreds of thousands of war deaths in the last two decades The people of the world need protection from those responsible for provoking nations to war In the United States this responsibility lies with all elements in the highest levels of government the decision makers It lies with those who tinker with political and economic machinations most likely for the advantage of a financial element in the large centers These are probably people young enough and sufficiently uninformed to have no conception of the atrocity of the nuclear confrontations and conflagrations to which they are quite possibly leading the world This group of people may include most people serving in the U S Congress and from personal experience many in the U S Military I have my doubts whether Presidents have seen all of the results of the world's first nuclear war they are probably shielded from this Photographs of the victims were confiscated and held confidential for more than 22 years after 1945 There were well more than 210 000 victims not many photographs were made and survived You can learn from this book a tiny fraction of the truth about what happens to people caught in nuclear war Although the truth from more than 210 000 will never be heard In a future war there would be hundreds of thousands more likely hundreds of millions of victims The United States government has not revealed this kind of truth about its first nuclear war As of early 2014 no sitting president has ever visited Hiroshima or Nagasaki In Chapter 5 a solution is suggested to save us all from our nuclear madness I hate war as only a soldier who has lived it can only as one who has seen its brutality its futility its stupidity Dwight D Eisenhower we also possess the seeds of goodness and justice that humankind was given by nature and has fostered over the ages We have the ability to cultivate self control and consideration for others and to strive to live together in a humane and harmonious manner with others The revival of such true humanity not only between individuals but also between nations is an absolute necessity today for the age has come when one nation's self centered behavior could lead all humanity to annihilation Naomi Shohno 1986 America can do whatever we set our mind to Barack Obama Kon Ichikawa Cinematheque
