Bowker's Complete Video Directory ,2000 The Mother of the Sri Aurobindo Ashram Patrick Beldio,2024-12-15 The Mother of the Sri Aurobindo Ashram Co Creator of the Integral Yoga analyzes the contributions of the Mother n e Mirra Alfassa 1878 1973 to the Integral Yoga that she and Sri Aurobindo n Aurobindo Ghose 1872 1950 co created for his ashram Scholars have ignored Mirra for Aurobindo which prevents a full understanding of their spiritual practice Scholars have also avoided examining work Aurobindo produced after they began their partnership in 1920 until his death in 1950 and privileged the written output in his journal Arya from 1914 to 1921 In this initial fertile period he put forth his innovative teaching about what he called the Supermind an emergent human faculty that he said would manifest a new humanity and a new earth through Mirra s body Mirra claimed that after his death in 1956 this manifestation happened as he foretold Mirra s work in the ashram from his death until hers in 1973 reveals important ways that she both fulfilled and changed Aurobindo s initial vision These developments are chiefly based on her experiences of mental dissolution while her body gained a new supramental form and consciousness The Documentary Handbook Peter Lee-Wright,2009-12-04 From the cinematic releases of Michael Moore to Big Brother this handbook includes interviews case studies and illustrations and presents a critical introduction to the documentary film its theory and changing practices Immigrants Out! Juan F. Perea,1997 Juan Perea has here assembled a truly interdisciplinary group of contributors to highlight the changing relationship between citizens and immigrants and the effects of economics history and demographics on that relationship Immigrants Out provides a needed antidote to the often poisonous attacks on America s most vulnerable The Art of the Documentary Megan Cunningham,2014-04-11 Documentary filmmaking is a powerful and vital element to our society and those who are responsible for bringing real stories and issues to a creative medium often have an uncanny ability to make a deep connection to us with their art. Legendary directors and cinematographers such as the Maysles brothers, D. A. Pennebaker, Chris Hegedus, Errol Morris, or Ken Burns have vividly made their marks in recent decades and continue to inspire those who enter the field. Inexpensive video camera equipment and video editing software have helped fuel a new wave of truth tellers bringing the tools of the craft within reach of amateurs and students as well as independent journalists and filmmakers on a budget. In The Art of the Documentary, the directors, editors, cinematographers, and producers behind today's most thought-provoking nonfiction films reveal the thought processes, methods, and collaborations that have guided their efforts from project conception to developing, producing, shooting, editing, and releasing some of the finest documentary films of recent decades. This richly illustrated volume, which will appeal to professional and aspiring filmmakers as well as documentary enthusiasts, features conversations with directors, cinematographers, editors, and producers including Ken Burns, The Civil War, Jazz, Baseball director/cinematographer D. A. Pennebaker, Dont Look Back, The War Room director/cinematographer Albert Maysles, Gimme Shelter, Grey Gardens director Errol Morris, The Fog of War, The Thin Blue Line director Chris Hegedus, Startup.com, Down from the Mountain editor Larry Silk, Pumping Iron, Wild Man Blues cinematographer Buddy Squires, The Civil War, Ram Dass, Fierce Grace director/producer Lauren Lazin, Tupac Resurrection, Journey of Dr. Dre editor/director Paula Heredia, The Vagina Monologues, In Memoriam, New York City 9/11/01 director/cinematographer Kirsten Johnson, Fahrenheit 9/11, Innocent Until Proven Guilty editor Geof Bartz, Lenny, Bruce Swear to Tell the Truth, He's Having a Baby, Sheila Nevins, President of HBO Documentaries and HBO Family, Alison Bourke, executive producer for IFC, Cara Mertes, executive producer at PBS for the POV series, Frazer Pennebaker, producer, and with contributions by Carol Dysinger, film editor and professor, NYU Film School, and Haskell Wexler, cinematographer. A Note About the Second Edition: In this edition of the book, we have included the original full interviews of the producers that did not appear in the first edition. Those producers include Sheila Nevins, Lauren Lazin, Alison Palmer, Bourke, Cara Mertes, and Frazer Pennebaker. The interviews of the directors, cinematographers, and editors have been left intact and are included as they appeared in the first edition. The filmographies of each interviewee have been updated to include recent works.

Andrei Codrescu and the Myth of America Kirby Olson, 2005-04-13

This is one of those times a time choked in the weeds of academic and civilian formalism. To put it mildly, most of what we see in print in North America is unbearably trivial and singularly devoid of courage. Andrei Codrescu, The Disappearance of the Outside, known to the general public as a radio commentator on National Public Radio, Romanian-born essayist and poet, Andrei Codrescu has developed a variety of voices throughout his career: Transylvanian humorist on NPR, surrealist poet in his many volumes of poetry, academic essayist in his philosophical writings, and historical novelist. Taking seemingly everyday events in seemingly mundane places, Codrescu is able to link the random details into a larger whole, leading his readers and listeners to conclusions very different from those they first imagined. This work explores Codrescu's writings and how they are a part of the surrealist tradition. It examines the ways in which his poetry, essays, and novels are influenced by his upbringing in Communist Romania and the liberal attitudes he encountered upon moving to the United States and draws comparisons between Codrescu and other surrealists An interview with the author is also included Ken Burns's The Civil War Deluxe eBook (Enhanced Edition) Geoffrey C. Ward, Ric Burns, Ken Burns, 2011-06-28 Combining video and audio from Ken Burns's beloved film with animated maps and hundreds of images rare photographs as well as paintings lithographs and maps in full color this deluxe eBook brings the Civil War to life in a new way The acclaimed best selling companion volume to the celebrated PBS series the highest rated series in the history of public television has now been enhanced to create one of the richest eBook experiences available today This new edition includes Nearly an hour of video and audio from the original film We get wonderful footage re creating what life was like during the war Shelby Foote's peerless storytelling and analysis and informed commentary from other prominent historians Completely new and original animated maps of the three days at Gettysburg that make it easier than ever to follow this legendary and complicated battle Hundreds of illustrations carefully placed to maximize the reading experience without impeding the narrative flow of the text As we mark the 150th anniversary of the Civil War this deluxe eBook allows us to better understand and appreciate the greatest challenge our nation has ever faced Spotlight on America: A Nation of Immigrants Grade 5-8 Robert W. Smith, 2011-03 Encourage students to take an in depth view of the people and events of specific eras of American history Nonfiction reading comprehension is emphasized along with research writing critical thinking working with maps and more Most titles include a Readers Theater National Geographic, 2004-10 A Study Guide for Richard Wilbur's "On Freedom's Ground" Gale, Cengage Learning, 2016 A Study Guide for Richard Wilbur's On Freedom's Ground excerpted from Gale's acclaimed Poetry for Students This concise study guide includes plot summary character analysis author biography study questions historical context suggestions for further reading and much more For any literature project trust Poetry for Students for all of your research needs What Is the Statue of Liberty? Joan Holub, Who HQ, 2014-05-29 In 1876 France decided to give the United States a very big and very special present the Statue of Liberty The gift was to commemorate the 100th birthday of the United States and just packing it was no small feat 350 pieces in 214 crates shipped across the ocean The story of how the 111 foot tall lady took her place in the New York Harbor will fascinate young readers Protecting the Wild George Wuerthner, Eileen Crist, Tom Butler, 2015-02-19 Protected natural areas have historically been the primary tool of conservationists to conserve land and wildlife These parks and reserves are set apart to forever remain in contrast to those places where human activities technologies and developments prevail But even as the biodiversity crisis accelerates a growing number of voices are suggesting that protected areas are pass Conservation they argue should instead focus on lands managed for human use working landscapes and abandon the goal of preventing human caused extinctions in favor of maintaining ecosystem services to support people If such arguments take hold we risk losing support for the unique qualities and values of wild undeveloped nature Protecting the Wild offers a spirited argument for the robust protection of the natural world. In it, experts from five continents reaffirm that parks, wilderness areas, and other reserves are an indispensable albeit insufficient means to sustain species, subspecies, key habitats, ecological processes, and evolutionary potential. Using case studies from around the globe, they present evidence that terrestrial and marine protected areas are crucial for biodiversity and human well-being alike, vital to countering anthropogenic extinctions and climate change. A companion volume to Keeping the Wild: Against the Domestication of Earth, Protecting the Wild provides a necessary addition to the conversation about the future of conservation in the so-called Anthropocene, one that will be useful for academics, policymakers, and conservation practitioners at all levels, from local land trusts to international NGOs. The National Parks Dayton Duncan, Ken Burns, 2009-09-08. The companion volume to the twelve-hour PBS series from the acclaimed filmmaker behind The Civil War, Baseball, and The War in America, s National Parks spring from an idea as radical as the Declaration of Independence: that the nation's most magnificent and sacred places should be preserved not for royalty or the rich but for everyone. In this evocative and lavishly illustrated narrative, Ken Burns and Dayton Duncan delve into the history of the park idea from the first sighting by white men in 1851 of the valley that would become Yosemite and the creation of the world's first national park at Yellowstone in 1872 through the most recent additions to a system that now encompasses nearly four hundred sites and 84 million acres. The authors recount the adventures, mythmaking, and intense political battles behind the evolution of the park system and the enduring ideals that fostered its growth. They capture the importance and splendors of the individual parks from Haleakala in Hawaii to Acadia in Maine, from Denali in Alaska to the Everglades in Florida, from Glacier in Montana to Big Bend in Texas. And they introduce us to a diverse cast of compelling characters, both unsung heroes and famous figures such as John Muir, Theodore Roosevelt, and Ansel Adams, who have been transformed by these special places and committed themselves to saving them from destruction so that the rest of us could be transformed as well. The National Parks is a glorious celebration of an essential expression of American democracy. The Concise Routledge Encyclopedia of the Documentary Film Ian Aitken, 2013. This reference work explores the history of the documentary film. It discusses individual films and filmmakers, examines national and regional filmmaking traditions, elaborates on production companies, organizations, festivals, and institutions, explores themes, issues, and representations, and describes various styles, techniques, and technical issues. A New History of Documentary Film Betsy A. McLane, 2013-03-28. A New History of Documentary Film, Second Edition, offers a much-needed resource considering the very rapid changes taking place within documentary media. Building upon the best-selling 2005 edition, Betsy McLane keeps the same chronological examination, factual reliability, ease of use, and accessible prose style as before, while also weaving three new threads: Experimental Documentary, Visual Anthropology, and Environmental Nature Films into the discussion. She provides emphasis on archival and preservation history, present practices, and future needs for documentaries. Along with preservation information, specific problems of copyright and fair use as they relate to documentary are considered. Finally, A History of Documentary Film.

retains and updates the recommended readings and important films and the end of each chapter from the first edition including the bibliography and appendices Impossible to talk learnedly about documentary film without an audio visual component a companion website will increase its depth of information and overall usefulness to students teachers and film enthusiasts

Prayer in America James P. Moore, Jr., 2009-03-12 A stirring chronicle of the spiritual life of a nation Prayer in America shows how the faith of Americans from the founding fathers to corporate tycoons from composers to social reformers from generals to slaves was an essential ingredient in the formation of American culture character commerce and creed Prayer in America brings together the country's hymns patriotic anthems arts and literature as a framework for telling the story of the innermost thoughts of the people who have shaped the United States we know today Beginning with Native Americans Prayer in America traces the prayer lives of Quakers and Shakers Sikhs and Muslims Catholics and Jews from their earliest days in the United States through the aftermath of 9 11 and the 2004 presidential election It probes the approach to prayer by such diverse individuals as Benjamin Franklin Elvis Presley Frank Lloyd Wright J C Penney P T Barnum Jackie Robinson and Christopher Columbus It includes every president of the United States as well as America's clergy immigrants industrialists miners sports heroes and scientists Prayer in America shows that without prayer the political cultural social and even economic and military history of the United States would be vastly different from what it is today It engages in a thoughtful timely examination of the modern debate over public prayer and how the current approach to prayer bears deep roots in the philosophies of the country's founding fathers a subject which remains distinct from the debate over church and state
