Kenro Izu:

Kenro Izu Kenro Izu, 2019-02-07 This limited edition to 15 copies comes with a sunning print signed and numbered by Kenro Izu Kenro Izu considers his own photography especially still life that he composes in the studio as a sort of conversation with himself The print of this limited edition features a mask facing to a pear He sees the mask any mask as a magic tool that transforms the person who wears it and brings him to another dimension It may even be a parallel world to the world where we live At the time of taking this photograph he was questioning himself about what is that the being behind the mask is seeing through the black holes for the eyes It actually may not even be a pear The photographer aims to capture something of the spirit or inner life of his chosen subject whether it be a still life or an ancient sacred monument Izu describes this tension between capturing the essence and beauty of the subject as an effort to hold myself at the very edge before falling into the dark hole of seduction Seduction presents the results of these efforts photographs by Izu of fruits plants and human figures all made with a large format film camera and contact printed in platinum from 8x10 to 14x20 inch negatives Kenro Izu Kenro Izu, 199? Kenro Izu Kenro Izu, 1988 Kenro Izu - Still Life Kenro Izu, 1998 Kenro Izu Kenro Izu, 1993 Kenro Izu.
