Keuka Lake:

Keuka Lake Charles R. Mitchell, 2002-10-09 Nestled among the hills of western New York State is the beautiful lake Keuka the Indian word for canoe landing Once visited the loveliness and serenity of this particular lake in New York's Finger Lakes region draws people back Visitors return to stay for a week or the summer and tourists come back often annually Many who have lived or summered at the lake return to retire Keuka Lake brings back the time period from 1850 to 1960 the era of black and white photography Featured are the local grapes and wineries the steamboats the commercial activities on and around the lake and the lake itself Today the boats are no longer steam powered and the wineries are more plentiful but other aspects of life have not changed The residents are hospitable the pace is slow the lake is resplendent and inviting

Keuka ,1884 Hammondsport and Keuka Lake Charles R. Mitchell, 1998-06-01 Discover the intriguing history of these Finger Lakes towns from wineries and aerodynamics to legendary people like Glenn Curtiss This historical work covers the periods from the 1850s to the 1960s the period of black and white photography in this area At one time Keuka Lake was host to a number of wineries lining the lake's shores Several no longer exist but through the pages of this book one may look back and share in the magnificence of these businesses hey days A chapter is devoted to Glenn Curtiss an innovative man who was building and testing airplanes at the same time the Wright brothers were working in aerodynamics Hammondsport has definitely had a number of interesting characters and momentous occasions Penn Yan and Keuka Lake Charles R. Mitchell, 2004-01-01 Penn Yan and Keuka Lake share a history that is rich in architecture industry and tradition Penn Yan was established in 1833 as a village on the edge of New York A a s Keuka Lake the unique name was chosen because the first people to settle in the village were comprised of Yankees from New England and Pennsylvania The town A a s name is just one of the many distinctive aspects of Penn Yan and Keuka Lake A a s intriguing past the town has long had a commercial district much of which occupies the historic district today Still standing in the historic district are many of the elegant houses that were constructed in the nineteenth century reflecting a time when Penn Yan experimented with several architectural styles Mills railroads and steam boat businesses once thrived throughout the area Steamboats on Keuka Lake Richard S. MacAlpine, Charles R. Mitchell, 2015-06-22 The grand age of steamboats on Keuka Lake began in 1835 and was vital to the development of the region The boats carried excursionists Victorian tourists to the resorts and cottages that lined the lakeshore The communities of Penn Yan Hammondsport and Branchport that anchor the three branches of the Y shaped lake flourished This prosperity helped grow the area's grape and wine production that is so celebrated today Though the last steamboats were taken out of service in 1915 the romance and nostalgia of the period are preserved in tales of glamorous steamers the people who worked and traveled on them the resorts they served and the history they made Local historians Richard MacAlpine and Charles Mitchell capture the stories anecdotes and photos from this bygone period
