Post-Pandemic Realities and Growth in Eastern Europe Silvia L. Fotea, Ioan Ș. Fotea, Sebastian Văduva, 2022-10-10 As the COVID 19 crisis comes to an end leaders organizations and governments have to develop a new normal for doing business with a focus on protecting the environment integrating new technologies and adapting to new social changes Based on empirical studies and conceptual contributions from researchers and practitioners presented at the Griffiths School of Management IT s 12th Annual Conference on Business Entrepreneurship and Ethics GSMAC this proceedings volume provides a multifaceted perspective on the impact and effects of the COVID 19 pandemic on various public and private systems including education business organizations and consumer behavior In particular this book explores the impact of the pandemic on remote work and employee health sustainable development and economic growth among others It also highlights the role of data analysis in understanding trends opportunities and challenges in the above systems Education for Sustainable Development Brian Chalkley, Martin Haigh, David Higgitt, 2013-09-13 In 2005 The United Nations launched its Decade of Education for Sustainable Development which recognises that education including Higher Education is the key to the change in social attitudes that will be needed to protect the welfare of future generations This involves helping learners to live as though the future matters and to achieve ecoliteracy This includes the understanding that personal lifestyle decisions may have consequences ranging from climate change through loss of biodiversity to pollution and resource depletion that may permit environmental degradation on a planetary scale It also involves helping them to develop the skills needed to cope with such challenges This international collection of research papers and position statements from special issues of the Journal of Geography in Higher Education and Applied Environmental Education and Communication written by many of the leading practitioners in the field aims to provide resources and practical guidance for all seeking to promote and engage in education for a sustainable future Rabindranath Tagore encouraged each learner to make their actions demonstrate a harmonious union between education and environment David Orr argued that the world needs people who live well in their places to make the world both habitable and humane and that the main challenge for education is to help learners make their minds fit for life on Earth This book tries to chart a practical route towards these objectives This book was previously published as special issues of the Journal of Geography in Higher Education and Applied Environmental

Education and Communication The Nature of Transformation Darlene E. Clover, Bruno de O. Jayme, Budd L. Hall, Shirley Follen, 2013-02-11

The Nature of Transformation Environmental Adult Education is based on 15 years of educating for social environmental change around the world. It is for adult and community educators, trainers, literacy and health care practitioners, social activists, community artists and animators, labour educators and professors in higher education interested in weaving environmental issues into their educational practice. It is also for environmental activists and educators who want to link social issues to environmental issues and problems. This book is a contribution to the discourse and practice of adult education in the community and or the academy aimed to respond creatively and critically to the contemporary socio environmental crisis and to encourage hope and a stronger sense of political agency through an ecological approach to teaching and learning. The Nature of Transformation includes a discussion of key adult education theories we used to augment our educational practice, provides a plethora of educational activities, shares workshop design considerations and some of the challenges we faced in our work as well as stories from adult and community educators around the world. The book concludes with a list of resources to enhance understandings of adult education theory and practice. The Nature of Transformation illustrates how to critically and creatively integrate the rest of nature concepts of ecological and gender and justice, citizenship, critical environmental consciousness and activism into educating and learning in community settings, organisations, education institutions or workplaces. In particular, there is an emphasis on using the arts as a tool for learning and change. With its emphasis on acknowledging and confronting ecological oppression, working towards socio environmental justice, ensuring hope and fun are integral to the learning process, encouraging defiance, agency and creativity, challenging assumptions and helping people to find solutions, environmental adult education is a valuable player in any pedagogical quest for change and transformation.
