Goering's Man in Paris Jonathan Petropoulos,2021-01-01 A charged biography of a notorious Nazi art plunderer and his career in the postwar art world, Petropoulos brings Lohse into sharper focus as a personality and axis point from which to explore a network of art dealers, collectors, and museum curators connected to Nazi looting. What emerges from Petropoulos's research is a portrait of a charismatic and nefarious figure who tainted everyone he touched. Nina Siegal, New York Times. Readers of art history and WWII biographies will appreciate this engrossing deep dive into one of the world's most prolific art looters. Publishers Weekly. Bruno Lohse, 1911-2007 was one of the most notorious art plunderers in history. Appointed by Hermann Göring to Hitler's art looting agency in Paris, he went on to help supervise the systematic theft and distribution of more than thirty thousand artworks taken largely from French Jews and to assist Göring in amassing an enormous private art collection. By the 1950s, Lohse was officially denazified but was back in the art dealing world, offering masterpieces of dubious origin to American museums. After his death, dozens of paintings by Renoir, Monet, and Pissarro, among others, were found in his Zurich bank vault and adorning the walls of his Munich home. Jonathan Petropoulos spent nearly a decade interviewing Lohse and continues to serve as an expert witness for Holocaust restitution cases. Here he tells the story of Lohse's life, offering a critical examination of the postwar art world

Information Modelling and Knowledge Bases XXXV M. Tropmann-Frick,Hannu Jaakkola,Bernhard Thalheim,Yasushi Kiyoki,Naofumi Yoshida,2024-02

The volume and complexity of information together with the number of abstraction levels and the size of data and knowledge bases grow continually. Data originating from diverse sources involves a combination of data from traditional legacy sources and unstructured data requiring backwards modeling. Meanwhile, information modeling and knowledge bases have become important contributors to 21st century academic and industrial research. This book presents the proceedings of EJC 2023, the 33rd International Conference on Information Modeling and Knowledge Bases, held from 5 to 9 June 2023 in Maribor, Slovenia. The aim of the EJC conferences is to bring together experts from different areas of computer science and from other disciplines that share the common interest of understanding and solving the problems of information modeling and knowledge bases and applying the results of research to practice. The conference constitutes a research forum for the exchange of results and experiences by academics and practitioners dealing with information and knowledge bases. The topics covered at EJC 2023 encompass a wide range of themes including conceptual modeling, knowledge and information modeling and discovery, linguistic modeling, cross-cultural communication and social computing, environmental modeling and engineering, and multimedia data modeling and systems. In the spirit of adapting to the changes taking place in these areas of research, the conference was also open to new topics related to its main themes. Providing a current overview of progress in the field, this book will be of interest to all those whose work involves the use of information modeling and knowledge bases.

The Restoration of Paintings in Paris, 1750-1815 Noémie Étienne, 2017-02-21. The decades following the 1973 publication of Alessandro Conti's Storia del Restauro have seen considerable scholarly interest in the development of restoration in France in the second half of the eighteenth century. A number of technical treatises and biographies of restorers have offered insight into restoration practice. The Restoration of Paintings in Paris 1750-1815 however is the first book to situate this work within the broader historical and philosophical contexts of the time. Drawing on previously unpublished primary material from archives in Paris, Berlin, Rome, and Venice, Noémie Étienne combines art history with anthropology and sociology to survey the waning decades of the Ancien Régime and early post-Revolution France. Initial chapters present the diversity of restoration practice encompassing not only royal institutions and the Louvre museum but also private art dealers, artists, and craftsmen, and examine questions of trade secrecy and the changing role of the restorer. Following chapters address the influence of restoration and exhibition on the aesthetic understanding of paintings as material objects. The book closes with a discussion of the institutional and political uses of restoration along with an art historical consideration of such key concepts as authenticity, originality, and stability of artworks, emphasizing the multilayered dimension of paintings by such important artists as Titian and Raphael. There is also a useful dictionary of the main restorers active in France between 1750 and 1815. Arts Digest, 1929. MoMA Goes to Paris in 1938 Caroline M. Riley, 2023-01-31.
