Industrial Restructuring In East Asia:

Industrial Restructuring in East Asia Seiichi Masuyama, Donna Vandenbrink, Chia Siow Yue, 2001-12-01 This book is about the restructuring of industry in ten East Asian economies at the start of the twenty first century It examines the dynamic aspects of the region s industrial structures the changes occurring with globalisation fuelled by liberalisation and by a paradigm shift from industrial technology to information technology The traditional flying geese concept is less relevant to explaining the economic and industrial development in the region as the pattern has become less predictable Industrial Restructuring in East Asia Jakob Lindahl, Center for Udviklingsforskning, 1999 Industrial Restructuring in the East Asia Newly Industrializing Economics and the Implications for Asean and Asean-China Economic Relations Kong Yam Tan, 1992

The Transformation of Southeast Asian Economies Teofilo C. Daquila, 2007 This book analyses the growth development and crisis experiences of the Southeast Asian economies in particular Indonesia Malaysia the Philippines Singapore and Thailand also known as ASEAN 5 The proposition is developed that the robust economic performance of the Southeast Asian economies during the past four decades has been attributed to the various factors developments and independent national policies which have been pursued by the individual member countries rather than to any regional economic framework The book covers eleven topics which is suitable for a one semester course on the economics of Southeast Asia Also it has a narrower area coverage as it focuses only on the five economies namely Indonesia Malaysia the Philippines Singapore and Thailand The sectoral treatment of the crisis impact and the analytical treatment of policy responses to the crisis differentiate this book from other publications on the same topic Finally the book provides an analysis of national developments policies and factors which have contributed to the economic transformation of the respective Southeast Asian economies Industrial Restructuring N. Mathieu, 1996-01-01 World Bank Discussion Paper No 320

Provides separate estimates of the influence of borrowing by both men and women through three credit programs on a variety of household and individual outcomes including school enrollment labor supply the asset holdings of women recent fertility and use of contraceptives consumption and the anthropometric status of children The findings show that credit provided to women is more likely to influence these behaviors than credit provided to men and has a significant effect on the well being of poor households in Bangladesh Working in Restructured Workplaces Daniel B. Cornfield, Karen

Campbell, Holly J. McCammon, 2001-07-27 What are the contemporary trends in workplace restructuring and the sociological impact on workers lives Around what concepts will work be organized and groups and individuals motivated in their work into the new century To give you definition and answers to these contemporary questions the editors of the sociological quarterly Work and Occupations assembled Working in Restructured Workplaces It addresses contradictory influences in contemporary workplace restructuring its impact on workers lives and the direction and nature of future changes in the workplace This authentic collection of sociological thought and research consists of previous works in Work and Occupations and some commissioned specifically for this book to focus on the nature causes and consequences of workplace restructuring The editors introduce a new concept of workplace restructuring to broaden your perspective and then assess implications for workers and their lives The chapters address four major themes Reconfiguring workplace status hierarchies Casualization of employment relationships Restructuring and worker marginalization Comparative labor responses to global restructuring The last two chapters chart new research agendas on the boundaries and durability of workplace restructuring Southeast Asia's Industrialization K. Jomo, 2001-10-02 Drawing on a wide range of expertise this volume addresses fundamental issues surrounding industrialization in Southeast Asia which are particularly pressing now that the region's miracle has been transformed into a debacle and the world seeks to draw lessons from the experience The contributors address crucial questions such as How did Southeast Asia industrialize What have been the consequences of domination by foreign investment Did the region's resource wealth weaken its imperative to industrialize Why else has Southeast Asia's industrialization been inferior to the rest of the East Asian region Did the countries financial systems help industrialization Was this industrialization sustainable The volume includes detailed studies of Singapore Malaysia Thailand and Indonesia

New Economic Spaces in Asian Cities P. W. Daniels, Kong-Chong Ho, Thomas A. Hutton, 2012 The East and Southeast Asia region constitutes the world's most compelling theatre of accelerated globalization and industrial restructuring Following a spectacular realization of the industrialization paradigm and a period of services led growth the early twenty first century economic landscape among leading Asian states now comprises a burgeoning New Economy spectrum of the most advanced industrial trajectories including finance the knowledge economy and the new cultural economy In an agenda setting volume New Economic Spaces in Asian Cities draws on stimulating research conducted by a new generation of urban scholars to generate critical analysis and theoretical insights on the New Economy phenomenon within Asia New industry formation and the transformation of older economic practices constitute instruments of development as well as signifiers of larger processes of change expressed in the reproduction of space in the city Asia's major cities become the key staging areas for the New Economy driven by the growing wealth of an urban middle and professional class higher education institutions city based inter regional movements and urban mega projects New Economic Spaces in Asian Cities animates this New Economy discourse by means of vibrant storylines of instructive cities and sites including cases studies situated in cities such as Tokyo Seoul Shanghai Beijing Shenzhen and Singapore Theoretical and normative issues associated with the emergence of the new cultural economy are the subject of the book's context setting chapters and each case study presents an evocative narrative of development interdependencies and exemplary outcomes on the ground New Economic Spaces in Asian Cities offers a vivid contribution to our understanding of the ongoing transformation of Asia's urban system including the critical intersections of global and local regional dynamics in processes of new industry formation and the relayering of space in the Asian metropolis The synthesis of empirical profiles normative insights and theoretical reference points enhances the book's interest for scholars and students in fields of Asian studies urban and cultural studies and urban and economic geography as well as for policy specialists and urban community planners Asian Economic and Political Issues ,1998 It is predicted by some observers that the 21st century will be remembered as the Asian Century Many of the countries in the region seem to be able to take the economic and trade baton when one of the others experiences problems The region in general continues to grow economically politically and militarily The articles presented in this book examine the current political and economic situations in nations across Asia particularly focusing on economic developments Southeast Asia's Misunderstood Miracle Jomo K.S.,2019-06-04 The debate on the major factors contributing to Southeast Asian industrialization continues unabated As might be expected there is much at stake in this debate The debate is largely ideological in nature and partly centers on the role and contribution of state interventions and other institutions in market processes in the context of late industrialization At the risk of caricaturing the debate on the one hand one finds the dominant and more influential position held by those who blame the state for all that has gone wrong and credit the market for all that has turned out right on the other hand the minority statist extreme position basically credits most major economic achievements in East Asia to appropriate interventions by developmentalist states While very few people would actually fully identify with either of these caricatured extremes much of the discussion actually gravitates around either of these poles Political Economy of Malaysia's Industrial Policy Firdausi Suffian,2021-02-22 This book examines the national automotive policy in Malaysia to help readers gain an understanding of the country's industrial policy making processes Addressing a gap in analysis of the political economy of the national automotive policy the research presented combines the new institutional theory and the developmental state approach to provide new insights into elite policymakers measures to shield domestic automotive enterprises from pro market reforms The formation of the national car project marks a turning point for Malaysia's industrial development as a country which it envisions will lead to it becoming a major player in the global automotive market However the domestic institutional factors embedded in ethno economic interests and patronage constrain national car makers limiting their potential to grow and instead causing a slowdown in the industry Allowing readers to understand the background to Malaysia's heavy industrialisation programme and the birth of its national car projects this book critically discusses the significance of institutional context in policy outcomes and highlights how institutions and policies have impact growth or decline It is a valuable resource relevant to analysts researchers and students who are interested in the political economy of the national industrial policy and automotive industry in Malaysia and beyond Rethinking Asia's Economic Miracle Richard Stubbs,2017-09-08 In the new edition of this important contribution to understanding both the Asian economic miracle and the 1997-8 crisis Richard Stubbs assesses the main explanations to date and updates the analysis to take account of globalization and the remarkable economic rise of China Regional Economic Cooperation Among SAARC Countries S. N. Raghavan,1995 Global Industrial Relations Michael J. Morley,Patrick Gunnigle,David

Collings, 2006-11-22 Breaking new ground and drawing on contributions from the leading academics in the field this notable volume focuses specifically on industrial relations Informative and revealing the text provides an overview of the industrial relations systems of nine regions North America South America Western Europe Eastern Europe the Middle East Australia and New Zealand Asia Africa and India and is divided into two distinct sections covering regional variations in global industrial relations systems contemporary themes in global industrial relations Combining both systems and thematic issues this important new text is invaluable reading for postgraduates and professionals in the fields of human resources management industrial relations and business and management as well as anyone studying or interested in the issues surrounding global industrial relations

Restoring East Asia's Dynamism Seiichi Masuyama, Donna Vandenbrink, Siow Yue Chia, 2000 This volume addresses issues that are critical to defining a new paradigm for East Asian economic growth Specifically the authors examine the strategies adopted in coping with the crisis policy responses to rectify weaknesses that might have induced or aggravated the crisis and structural problems to be resolved in order to bring East Asian economies back firmly to a path of long term growth
