Conversations with Marketing Masters Laura Mazur, Louella Miles, 2009-08-11 Conversations with Marketing Masters offers new insights by gathering the collected wisdom of the most influential marketing thinkers of our age each of whom has given a structured interview Covering a wide range of issues and illustrating concepts with cases of success and failure these seminal dialogues offer a rare look at what made each master great and a glimpse of the marketing future The Marketing Masters featured are Philip Kotler David Aaker Jean Claude Larreche Regis McKenna Don Peppers John Quelch Al Ries Martha Rogers Don Schultz Patricia Seybold Jack Trout and Lester Wunderman The conversations are free flowing dialogues in which each personality is allowed to shine through Professional Health Regulation in the Public Interest John Martyn Chamberlain, Mike Dent, Mike Saks, 2018-06-06 There are significant variations in how healthcare systems and health professionals are regulated globally One feature that they increasingly have in common is an emphasis on the value of including members of the public in quality assurance processes While many argue that this will help better serve the public interest others question how far the changing regulatory reform agenda is still dominated by medical interests Bringing together leading academics worldwide this collection compares and critically examines the ways in which different countries are regulating healthcare in general and health professions in particular in the interest of users and the wider public It is the first book in the Sociology of Health Professions series Legal Perspectives on Cultural Resources Jennifer R. Richman, Marion Forsyth, 2004 Today s archaeologists and law practitioners must have an increased awareness of legal issues pertaining to historic preservation and cultural resource management CRM Archaeological sites and finds are non renewable resources inciting numerous legal debates based upon claims of legitimacy and ownership In this edited volume of original articles law professionals and legal scholars offer their perspectives on current debates for the heritage community giving multiple viewpoints and injecting historical depth to contemporary legal controversies The contributions focus on three key issues Enforcement and Preservation International Issues and Repatriation in which insights are given on topics such as underwater cultural heritage global trade and export illegal trafficking of antiquities domestic law enforcement and indigenous people s legal rights Famous cases such as the Elgin Marbles and the Kennewick Man as well as laws such as NAGPRA and McClain doctrine are discussed at length This book will be an indispensable resource to CRM practitioners cultural property attorneys archaeologists community heritage groups tribes museums and galleries or anyone interested in the preservation of American and global cultural heritage Strategic Design Thinking Natalie W. Nixon, 2015-10-22 Who can design For too long that question has highlighted the supposed division between right brain dominant creative types and left brain dominant analytical types Such a division is not practical for preparing students to become innovative contributors to the complex world of design Strategic Design Thinking guides readers to cultivate hybrid thinking whether their background is design finance or any discipline in between This book is an introduction to an integrative approach using the lens of design thinking as a way to see the world The focus is on process instead of solution and on connecting disparate ideas instead of getting bogged down by silos of specialization Through this book students will be introduced to design management strategic design service design and experience design Reframing Qualitative Research Ethics Helen
