The Modernization of Labour Law and

Industrial Relations in a Comparative Perspective Silvia Spattini, 2009-01-01 Not all labour law and industrial relations scholars agree on the efficacy of the comparative approach that the analysis of measures adopted in other countries can play a constructive role in national and local policy making However the case deserves to be heard and no better such presentation has appeared than this remarkable book the carefully considered work of over 40 well known authorities in the field from a wide variety of countries including Australia France India Israel Peru Poland and South Africa The volume contains papers delivered at a conference sponsored by the Marco Biagi Foundation at the University of Modena and Reggio Emilia in March 2008

Construction Law Julian Bailey, 2016-07-22 Now in its second edition Construction Law is the standard work of reference for busy construction law practitioners and it will support lawyers in their contentious and non contentious practices worldwide Published in three volumes it is the most comprehensive text on this subject and provides a unique and invaluable comparative multi jurisdictional approach This book has been described by Lord Justice Jackson as a tour de force and by His Honour Humphrey Lloyd QC as seminal and definitive This new edition builds on that strong foundation and has been fully updated to include extensive references to very latest case law as well as changes to statutes and regulations The laws of Hong Kong and Singapore are also now covered in detail in addition to those of England and Australia Practitioners as well as interested academics and post graduate students will all find this book to be an invaluable guide to the many facets of construction law

Building Chaos Gerhard Bosch, Peter Philips, 2002-11-07 This collection draws on international comparisons from the main industrialized countries in a key area the construction industry This genuinely internationally focused book has contributions from leading experts and academics in the field

Industrial Relations, Trade Unions, and Labour Legislation: SINHA, 2006 The second edition of Industrial Relations Trade Unions and Labour Legislation is an up to date interactive text primarily related to issues in India The book does however incorporate developments and practices in other countries particularly UK and USA Primarily designed for the students of management economics labour and social welfare social work commerce and similar disciplines this book will also be of interest to professionals in the field of labour relations and management

Labour Conditions for Construction Roderick Lawrence, Edmundo Werna, 2009-06-29 This authoritative guide promotes safe healthy and non exploitative working conditions for the construction industry It combines theoretical analysis and case studies from around the world offering recommendations for best practice The book results from a project funded by the Geneva International Academic Network with staff from the International Labour Office and the University of Geneva It presents and discusses the challenges and potential of local authorities to promote decent work in construction Existing literature on decent work focuses mainly on the roles and responsibilities of actors in the private sector but the contribution of the public sector should not be ignored Local authorities play a crucial role in economic development through a range of policies and programmes in the construction sector and related services Labour Conditions for Construction decent work building cities the role of local authorities includes a methodology that combines quantitative and qualitative information. It defines and validates a set of criteria to evaluate the capacity of local authorities combining criteria about decent work, the construction sector and the policies and programmes of the local authority in each case study city. The book fills an important gap in focussing on the role of local authorities in creating and promoting decent work and will be of interest to managers and policy makers in construction health and safety and labour relations as well as to researchers and students in construction management.

Industrial Relations and Labour Laws, 6th Edition S.C. Srivastava, 2012. The sixth revised edition of Industrial Relations and Labour Laws captures the significant developments that have taken place in the realm of labour laws and industrial relations in the recent past. The most notable development in the legislative sphere is the amendment in the Industrial Disputes Act 1947 in 2010. In the judicial sphere there has been a marked shift in the approach of the Indian judiciary in the area of discipline and disciplinary procedure. Moreover, new norms/principles have been evolved to determine the classification of a person as a workman, provide relief in case of illegal wrongful termination of service of workmen, determine notice period for strike/lock out in public utility services and for regularization of services of daily temporary casual or contract workers. Extensively revised and updated in line with the changes in the law, this edition also gives a new and more holistic dimension to the subject of labour management relations. Part I provides the contextual and constitutional framework of labour law and an overview of industrial relations. Part II deals with the trade union movement, employers' organizations and laws relating to trade unions, collective bargaining, unfair labour practices and victimization. Part III deals with regulation of industrial disputes, persuasive, coercive and voluntary processes for settlement of industrial disputes, grievance procedure, government's power of reference, laws relating to instruments of economic coercion, management of discipline, laws relating to change in conditions of service and lay off, retrenchment, transfer and closure. Part IV examines laws relating to standing orders. Part V is on workers' participation in management. This edition will serve as a comprehensive textbook for students of LLB, LLM, MBA, MSW, MPA, CS and masters and diploma programmes in personnel management, industrial relations and labour law. It is indispensable for personnel managers, law officers, lawyers, trade union officials, members, officials of labour department and members of the labour judiciary.
