investment law and firm behavior This volume offers important implications for both the academic and corporate communities It will appeal to professors and students of international business and management economics and political sciences Offering groundbreaking perspectives that drive contemporary business strategy this book is also highly valuable to global managers entrepreneurs and policymakers African Economic Development Emmanuel Nnadozie,Afeikhena Jerome,2019-05-08 In a sweeping survey of African economies leading scholars offer the latest research into the biggest current influences on African growth and development taking account of relevant institutional contexts as well as significant or unique problems that have slowed Africa s progress Embedding Space in African Society Annette Froehlich,2019-05-31 This book provides a detailed insight into how space and its applications are embedded and can be further embedded into African society in support of the SDGs while taking into account the specific features needs and diversity of that society Contributions drawn from across the continent and further afield provide analyses of the particular social situations in a variety of different African countries and regions and highlight areas where space applications support the SDGs and where they can further do so The chapters cover a wide array of relevant and timely topics including basic needs like water quality education and capacity building as well as financial security and legal aspects together with facets of space technologies and infrastructure in Africa Embedding Space in African Society will be of great interest to students and professionals in sustainable development governance and space studies Regional Economic Communities O. Olutayo,I. Adeniran,2015-12-01 This book examines how the existence of overlapping regional institutions has presented a daunting challenge to the workings of various Regional Economic Communities RECs on the African continent The majority of the African countries are members of overlapping and sometimes contradictory RECs For instance in East Africa while Kenya and Uganda are both members of EAC and COMESA Tanzania which is also a member of the EAC left COMESA in 2001 to join SADC In West Africa while all former French colonies belong to ECOWAS they simultaneously keep membership of UEMOA an organization which is not recognized by the African Union AU Such multiple and confusing memberships create unnecessary duplication and dims the light on what ought to be priority Various chapters in this book have therefore sought to identify and proffer solutions to related challenges confronting the workings of the RECs in different sub regions of the African continent The discourses range from security to the stock exchange identity integration development framework labour movement and cross border relations The pattern adopted in the book involves devolution of related discussions from the general to the specific that is from the continental level to sub regional case studies Public Procurement and Multilateral Development Banks Sope Williams-Elegbe,2017-03-23 The multilateral development banks cumulatively channel billions of dollars annually in development assistance to borrower countries This finance is usually spent through processes that incorporate the public procurement regulations of the banks and it is often a condition of this finance that the funds must be spent using the procurement regulations of the lender institution This book examines the issues and challenges raised by procurement regulation in the multilateral development banks The book examines the history of procurement regulation in the banks the tripartite relationship created between the banks borrowers and contractors in funded procurements the procurement documents and procurement cycle as well as how the banks ensure competition and value for money in funded procurements The book also examines the banks approach to sustainability concerns in public procurement such as environmental social or industrial concerns as well as how the banks address the issue of corruption and fraud in funded contracts Another issue that is addressed by this book is how the banks have implemented the aid effectiveness agenda It will be seen that the development banks have undertaken steps to harmonise their policies and practices increased borrower procurement capacity taken steps to reduce the tying of aid and play an important role in the reform of borrower procurement systems all in an effort to improve the effectiveness of development finance The book also considers the contractual and other remedies that are available to parties that may be aggrieved as a result of a funded procurement The book analyses compares and contrasts the legal practical and institutional approaches to procurement regulation in the World Bank the Inter American Development Bank the African Development Bank the Asian Development Bank and the European Bank for Reconstruction and Development

Technology Transfer and Economic Growth in Sub-Sahara African Countries Nathaniel O. Agola,2016-03-21 This book provides a pragmatic analytical model grounded on the solid idea that technologies and the accompanying implementation efforts only make sense if they are successfully deployed in markets The analytical model also provides an exhaustive analysis of all critical variables at the global regional and national levels which contribute to failure or success of technology transfer efforts The model is validated by an incisive analysis of technology transfer experiences of Japan Korea Singapore Taiwan province of China and Malaysia While this book finds that these East Asian countries have had both diverging and converging models and experiences with technology transfer the enduring and fundamental aspects of technology transfer in specific industrial sectors and economic growth in these countries is then used to draw lessons for African countries This book therefore is a timely and compelling piece of research work that provides valuable answers to the increasingly urgent question of how African countries can industrialize through technology transfer to meet their economic development and growth ideals

Regional Development Poles and the Transformation of African Economies Benaiah Yongo-Bure,2020-02-17 This book argues that the development of capital goods manufacturing industries in four relatively large African economies will create regional development poles from which industrialization will spread to the smaller African countries In this book Benaiah Yongo Bure explains the need for capital goods industries in Africa and shows how manufacturing can transform economies He outlines the roles of the Democratic Republic of Congo DRC Ethiopia Nigeria and South Africa as potential regional development poles showing how the existing economies natural resources and populations of these countries make them ideal candidates while also considering possible challenges to industrialization Finally the author assesses what major infrastructural development is needed to link the countries and regions to increase the spread effects of economic growth This book will be of interest to scholars and policy makers in economic development and regional development in Africa

Infrastructure and Productivity in Asia J. Kidd,F. Richter,2005-02-11 There is a feeling that Asia is at a crossroad and is facing a new crisis The earlier crisis of 1997 98 showed that effective systems were missing Afterwards governments foreign investors and foreign managers initiated more holistic infrastructures but corruption poorly connecting systems and a lack of transparent management have ensured that these are under performing In this book well informed authors offer insights on Asia s political educational and physical infrastructures and indicate the routes leading to better integrated futures

International Human Rights Law in Africa Frans Viljoen,2012-03-29 Providing a comprehensive and analytical overview of human rights in Africa this book deals particularly with the African regional system of human rights protection Among the issues it explores are poverty HIV AIDS and the tension between international standards and national implementation

African Renaissance in the Millennium Emmanuel Ike Udogu,2007-01-01 The book brings into sharp focus some of the major political social and economic issues that might impede Africa s development project in the 21st century It debates and suggests ways that policy makers might tackle these issues in order to promote the vision of the continent s transformation in the millennium

IQ and the Wealth of Nations Richard Lynn,Tatu Vanhanen,2002-02-28 Lynn and Vanhanen test the hypothesis on the causal relationship between the average national intelligence IQ and the gap between rich and poor countries by empirical evidence Based on an extensive survey of national IQ tests the results of their work challenge the previous theories of economic development and provide a new basis to evaluate the prospects of economic development throughout the world They begin by reviewing and evaluating some major previous theories The concept of intelligence is then described and intelligence quotient IQ introduced Next they show that intelligence is a significant determinant of earnings within nations and they connect intelligence with various economic and social phenomena The sociology of intelligence at the level of sub populations in nations is examined and the independent national IQ and dependent various measures of per capita income and economic growth rates variables are defined and described They then provide empirical analyses starting from the 81 countries for which direct evidence of national IQs is available the analysis is then extended to the world group of 185 countries The hypothesis is tested by the methods of correlation and regression analyses The results of statistical analyses support the hypothesis strongly The results of the

analyses and various means to reduce the gap between rich and poor countries are discussed A provocative analysis that all scholars students and researchers involved with economic development need to confront Africa's Geography Benjamin Ofori-Amoah,2019-04-30 Africa s Geography presents a comprehensive exploration of the world s second largest and most culturally diverse continent Author Benjamin Ofori Amoah challenges common misconceptions and misrepresentations of Africa from a geographical perspective harnessing the power of modern geographic mapping technology to explore this unique continent This text provides thorough coverage of the historical cultural economic and political forces that continue to shape Africa applying geographic context to relevant past and contemporary issues Coverage of economic development climate and biogeography transportation and communication manufacturing and commerce and mining and agriculture provides foundational knowledge of this vast and complex continent Ideally suited for multiple areas of classroom study this text offers an effective and flexible pedagogical framework Coverage of the entirety of Africa enables students to develop a cohesive portrait of the continent as a whole and identify the dynamism of its nations cultures and economies Engaging and accessible narrative strengthens comprehension while examples of historical and contemporary events increase student interest Innovative and unique Africa s Geography is an essential resource for cross disciplinary investigation of this fascinating part of the world Trade and Industrial Development in Africa Moyo, Theresa,2015-03-02 This book revisits the perennial challenge that scholars economists and politicians have been grappling with since the 1960s Development in this book has been defined in a context that projects it as a multidimensional and complex process which seeks to enhance the human social economic and cultural welfare of the people This book calls for a rethinking of trade and industry for Africa s development It uses data drawn from national development plans and strategies and trade and industry issues have been prioritized at the continental level in key policy documents On the whole Africa s industry and trade performance have been poor in spite of national regional and continental plans The contributors to this volume propose some alternative strategies and policies which are necessary for trade and industry to grow and to contribute to the well being of Africa s people It calls for a developmental trade and industry policy which fundamentally must be people centred African states should invest time energy and resources to develop policies which will take into consideration African realities The different contributors are aware that Africa has experienced strong economic growth in the recent past but this growth has largely been due to a strong demand for Africa s primary commodity exports It has also been a result of increases in productivity and domestic investment and remittances from Africans living in the Diaspora It is important to note that despite this unprecedented growth performance the impact of trade and industry on development has been limited The book argues that a structural transformation of Africa s economies is inevitable if Africa is to achieve the shift from the dominant paradigm of production and export of primary goods The various contributors to this book agree that there is need to rethink policy and strategy in order to achieve industrial development in Africa There is no unique solution or answer that can fit all situations as African countries are not the same While Africa can draw lessons from other regions which have successfully industrialized this book argues that policies and strategies will have to be adapted to country specific situations and circumstances Economic Development of Botswana H. K. Siphambe,2005 A Critical Evaluation of Conservation and Development in Sub-Saharan Africa Paul Andre DeGeorges,2008 Geography of Sub-Saharan Africa Samuel Aryeetey-Attoh,2010 The physical and human geography of Sub Saharan Africa are explored with a systematic thematic approach in this multi faceted reference Designed to expose readers to a variety of contemporary ideas theories and concepts in African geography and their applicability in real world situations each chapter is written by an expert in the field Key definitions and basic geographic principles are specified in each chapter providing a more comprehensive view of the themes presented Completely revised this edition examines recent developments and data that are important to understanding the geography of the region Introduction Understanding Africa in a Global Context The Physical Environment Human Environmental Impacts Forest Degradation and Desertification Historical Geography of Sub Saharan Africa Opportunities and Constraints Political Landscape of Sub Saharan Africa From Instability to Democratization Culture Conflict and Change in Sub Saharan Africa Population Geography of Sub Saharan Africa Geography and Development in Sub Saharan Africa Transport Communication and Information Technologies in Sub Saharan Africa Digital Bridges Over Spatial Divides Urban Geography of Sub Saharan Africa Geography Gender and Development in Sub Saharan Africa Medical Geography of Sub Saharan Africa Agricultural Development in Sub Saharan Africa Spatial Organization and Distribution of Economic Activity Industry and Entrepreneurship in Africa Looking Ahead Prospects for Africa in a New Global Economy A useful reference for anyone interested in learning more about current issues in sub Saharan Africa
