Inequality And Christian Ethics:

Inequality and Christian Ethics Douglas A. Hicks, 2000-09-18 Inequality and Christian Ethics first published in 2000 provides a moral and empirical analysis of contemporary social and economic inequality Drawing on Christian social ethics political philosophy and development economics the book seeks to create an interdisciplinary conversation that illuminates not only the contemporary realities and trends of inequality but their moral significance as well It is necessary to examine and understand inequality in various forms which the book maps out including disparity in income education and health as well as differentials based on race ethnicity gender and nationality The book draws in particular on the theological ethics of Gustavo Guti rrez and H Richard Niebuhr to provide a Christian ethical approach to inequality and well being It considers the capability approach set forth by Amartya Sen Nobel laureate in economics Sen s framework helps Christians and other persons to add specificity to what the commitment to equality before God would demand in social and economic relations Wealth, Virtue, and Moral Luck Kate Ward, 2021-10-01 In Wealth Virtue and Moral Luck Kate Ward addresses the issue of inequality from the perspective of Christian virtue ethics arguing that our individual life circumstances affect our ability to pursue virtue and showing how Christians and Christian communities should respond to create a world where it is easier for people to be virtuous Christian Ethics J. Philip Wogaman, 1993-01-01 Reviews the history of Christian thought about ethics and discusses its views concerning politics economics and culture

The Common Good and Christian Ethics David Hollenbach, 2002-08 The Common Good and Christian Ethics rethinks the ancient tradition of the common good in a way that addresses contemporary social divisions both urban and global David Hollenbach draws on social analysis moral philosophy and theological ethics to chart new directions in both urban life and global society He argues that the division between the middle class and the poor in major cities and the challenges of globalisation require a new commitment to the common good and that both believers and secular people must move towards new forms of solidarity Economic

Compulsion and Christian Ethics Albino Barrera, 2005-09-08 Markets can often be harsh in compelling people to make unpalatable economic choices any reasonable person would not take under normal conditions Thus workers laid off in mid career accept lower paid jobs that are beneath their professional experience for want of better alternatives Economic migrants leave their families and cross borders legally or illegally in search of a livelihood These are examples of economic compulsion These economic ripple effects have been virtually ignored in ethical discourse because they are generally accepted to be the very mechanisms that generate the market s much touted allocative efficiency Albino Barrera argues that Christian thought on economic security offers an effective framework within which to address the consequences of economic compulsion Evil and Christian Ethics Gordon Graham, 2001 STUDY OF MORAL PHILOSOPHY WITH REFERENCE TO NEW TESTAMENT SCHOLARSHIP

Altruism and Christian Ethics Colin Grant, 2000-11-16 Separated from its anchorage in religion ethics has followed the social sciences in seeing human beings as fundamentally characterised by self interest so that altruism is either naively idealistic or arrogantly self sufficient Colin Grant contends that as a modern secular concept altruism is a parody on the self giving love of Christianity so that its dismissal represents a social levelling that loses the depths that theology makes intelligible and religion makes possible The Christian affirmation is that God is characterised by self giving love agape then expected of Christians Lacking this theological background the focus on self interest in sociobiology and economics and on human realism in the political focus of John Rawls or the feminist sociability of Carol Gilligan finds altruism naive or a dangerous distraction from real possibilities of mutual support This book argues that to dispense with altruism is to dispense with God and with the divine transformation of human possibilities Self Love and

Christian Ethics Darlene Fozard Weaver,2002-10-17 Publisher Description Moral Passion and Christian Ethics Robin Gill,2017-03-06 In this book Robin Gill argues that moral passion and rational ethical deliberation are not enemies and that moral passion often lurks behind many apparently rational ethical commitments He also contends that though moral passion is a key component of truly selfless moral action without rational ethical deliberation it can also be extremely dangerous Gill maintains that a reanalysis of moral passion is overdue He inspects the gap between the purely rational accounts of ethics provided by some moral philosophers and the normative positions that they espouse and or the moral actions that they pursue He also contends that Christian ethicists have not been adept at identifying their own implicit moral passion or at explaining why it is that doctrinal positions generate passionately held moral conclusions Using a range of disciplines including cognitive science and moral psychology alongside the more usual disciplines of moral philosophy and religious ethics Gill also makes links with moral passion in other world faith traditions Living Together and Christian Ethics

Adrian Thatcher,2002-03-21 The first positive in depth study of cohabitation outside marriage from a mainstream Christian theological perspective The Public Forum and Christian Ethics Robert Gascoigne,2001 This book addresses the question of the communication of Christian ethics in the public forum of liberal pluralist societies Drawing on debates in philosophy theology and sociological theory it relates the problem of communication to fundamental questions about the nature of liberal societies and the identity of Christian faith and the Christian community With particular emphasis on Kantian and neo Kantian ethics it explores the link between autonomy and community in liberal societies The theology of communio expressed in revealed Christian traditions can reconcile autonomy and community Any Christian attempt to communicate this vision must also reflect on Christianity s own identity especially the ways in which its own self consciousness grows in critical interaction with secularity In this light Christian ethical communication is both a witness to a distinctive identity founded in the revelation of the triune God and a vision of universal human solidarity which can reconcile autonomy and community Forrester on Christian Ethics and Practical Theology Duncan B. Forrester,2017-05-15 Bringing together articles and chapters from his considerable work in theological ethics India and the social order Duncan Forrester incorporates new writing and introductions to each thematic section to guide readers through this invaluable resource This book offers stimulating studies in three related areas Indian Christianity with particular attention to the caste system contemporary Christian theological ethics and the distinctive and challenging theological approach that Duncan Forrester has developed in relation to public issues such as prisons and punishment welfare provision social justice and poverty

Alcohol, Addiction and Christian Ethics Christopher C. H. Cook, 2006-05-04 Addictive disorders are characterised by a division of the will in which the addict is attracted both by a desire to continue the addictive behaviour and also by a desire to stop it Academic perspectives on this predicament usually come from clinical and scientific standpoints with the moral model rejected as outmoded But Christian theology has a long history of thinking and writing on such problems and offers insights which are helpful to scientific and ethical reflection upon the nature of addiction Chris Cook reviews Christian theological and ethical reflection upon the problems of alcohol use and misuse from biblical times until the present day Drawing particularly upon the writings of St Paul the Apostle and Augustine of Hippo a critical theological model of addiction is developed Alcohol dependence is also viewed in the broader ethical perspective of the use and misuse of alcohol within communities

The Political Crisis and Christian Ethics Ronald H. Stone, 2023-09-26 The Political Crisis and Christian Ethics addresses themes in political philosophy in the context of a crisis in democracy after the denial of the 2020 election by the Republican candidate for president The refusal to accept the results of the election divided the electorate and drove the president's followers to fail in their attempted coup attempt in January of 2020 Democracy is defended in Reinhold Niebuhr's writing on politics and in Barack Obama's use of the theologian's thought It is developed further in the political theory of Paul Tillich The themes of just peacemaking are reviewed in Paul Tillich's critique of John Foster Dulles work and in the author's critique of just peacemaking in the work of Glen Stassen Domestically the issues of race inequality ecology and healthcare are addressed from the perspective of prophetic realism The book concludes in terms of Alfred North Whitehead's philosophy of education and religion and a vision of the good president In summary The Political Crisis and Christian Ethics is a volume of American Christian political theory in a period of overcoming the trauma of 2016 with Christian ethics and political philosophy

Public Theology: Exploring Expressions of the Christian Faith Bonnie Miriam Jacob, Editor, 2020-09-06 This book is an important step in clarifying the issues that come up when addressing the public square It is an early effort towards a coherent theological frame for engagement in socio political issues this time rooted in the richness of a multi faith context like that of India While the church is the primary social context in which the saving power of God is made visible this book equally insists that it is in the larger arena of what God is doing in the world that the kingdom's historic presence is felt It is a fitting tribute to a man who has spent much of his life opening up the spaces where the Word is in vital conversation with the larger world Melba Padilla Maggay PhD Institute for Studies in Asian Church and Culture ISACC New Challenges for Christians Robin Gill, 2011-08-19 Theologians are involved in a wide variety of public committees concerned with ethical issues arising from modern science and are still holding their own against critics such as Richard Dawkins It is important that a wide range of people are aware of how to be responsibly involved in these discussions and to avoid the knee jerk reactions of fundamentalists Gender and Christian Ethics Adrian Thatcher, 2020-10-22 Provides strong theological arguments for replacing the binary understanding of gender and for the embracing of sexual minorities
