Democracy and the Paradox of Developmental State in Nigeria's Fourth Republic Janet Monisola Oluwaleye, Olatunji Ebenezer Olugbenga, Olamide Temitayo Ojogbede, 2025-04-29. In Democracy and the Paradox of Developmental State in Nigeria's Fourth Republic, selected scholars delve into the intricate dynamics between democratic governance and the aspirations of a developmental state in Nigeria's contemporary political landscape. This thought-provoking work critically examines the tension between the principles of democracy and the need for effective state intervention in economic development, exploring how the Fourth Republic has navigated this complex interplay. Through a comprehensive analysis, the book unveils the contradictions inherent in Nigeria's political and economic structure, revealing how democratic ideals often clash with the realities of governance, policy implementation and economic progress. With empirical evidence and insightful theory, the book highlights the challenges and opportunities faced by Nigeria as it seeks to balance the imperatives of democratic accountability with the goals of state-led development. This book will be of great benefit to policy makers globally and constitutes an important contribution to the literature on developmental issues.

The Handbook of Social Work and Social Development in Africa Mel Gray, 2016-10-26. All recent books on international social work mention Africa only briefly and few engage with the broader field of development studies. This book focuses solely on the unique African context, engaging with issues relating to social work and development more broadly, thus enabling a deeper examination and more complex and nuanced picture to emerge. Unlike most academic works, this book highlights multiple practitioner voices with authors or co-authors that have recently been or are currently practising social workers. As an edited book, it draws from both academic research as well as lived practice experience, supported by strong theoretical positioning and guidance in introductory chapters drawing on African literature wherever possible. Looking at case studies from Lesotho, Botswana, Kenya, Zimbabwe, Ethiopia, Namibia, Uganda, Nigeria, Kenya, South Africa, Rwanda, Zambia and Tanzania, and covering established areas of practice such as child protection, working with older people, working with people with disabilities, mental health and mainstream services targeting women, as well as emerging areas of developmental social work practice such as humanitarian assistance in post-conflict situations, work with immigrants and refugees, and the training of community-based workers, this book takes a future-oriented perspective that aims to move beyond well-worn critiques to envision constructive and sustainable futures for social work and social development in Africa from a critical perspective.
