Infernal Desire Machines Of Doctor Hoffman:

The Infernal Desire Machines of Doctor Hoffman Angela Carter, 1986-03-04 The transformation of Desiderio's city into a mysterious kingdom is instantaneous Hallucination flows with magical speed in every brain avenues and plazas are suddenly as fertile as fairy book forests And the evil comes too as imaginary massacres fill the streets with blood the dead return to question the living and profound anxiety drives hundreds to suicide Behind it all stands Doctor Hoffman whose gigantic generators crack the immutable surfaces of time and space and plunge civilization into a world without the chains or structures of reason Only Desiderio immune to mirages and fantasy can defeat him But Desiderio's battle will take him to the very brink of undeniable irresistible desire The Infernal Desire Machines of Doctor Hoffman Angela

Carter, 2011-02-03 Desiderio an employee of the city under a bizarre reality attack from Doctor Hoffman's mysterious machines has fallen in love with Albertina the Doctor's daughter But Albertina a beautiful woman made of glass seems only to appear to him in his dreams Meeting on his adventures a host of cannibals centaurs and acrobats Desiderio must battle against unreality and the warping of time and space to be with her as the Doctor reduces Desiderio's city to a chaotic state of emergency one ridden with madness crime and sexual excess A satirical tale of magic and sex The Infernal Desire Machines of Doctor Hoffman is a dazzling quest for truth love and identity Tactical Readings Nicola Pitchford, 2002 Both writers novels borrow heavily from other authors and in doing so they offer strategies for a politically committed rereading of literary history and its interaction with the popular imagination The Pleasure of the Feminist Text Susanne Gruss, 2009 I would regard myself as a feminist writer because I'm a feminist in everything else and one can't compartmentalise these things in one's life Angela Carter When I became a feminist in 1968 I felt that I'd come home the first home I ever had that was feminine And it was very wild and theatrical and erotic the early feminism Michèle Roberts Angela Carter and Michèle Roberts share a keen interest in gender and sexual identity but many of their topics seem to mark them as opposites Roberts's fascination with the impact of religion motherhood and autobiography on female identity covers areas that Carter shuns in her writings In reading these two authors parallel and in contrast to each other this monograph follows a triple objective it provides a comprehensive critical introduction to the works of Roberts explores aspects of Carter's work that have not yet been analyzed sufficiently religion motherhood and masculinity and uses both authors to explore motifs and strategies of feminist writing The analyses of both authors' works are supplemented by close readings of a wide range of theoretical perspectives especially French feminism and psychoanalysis and concise theoretical outlines of the topics covered radical feminism religion motherhood and fatherhood masculinity fairy tales romances and chick lit and history and autobiography

Allegories of Telling Lynn Wells, 2021-11-22 Allegories of Telling Self-Referential Narrative in Contemporary British Fiction has as its founding premise Ross Chambers's notion that one of the important powers of fiction is its power to theorize the act of storytelling in and through the act of storytelling In this critical study Lynn Wells presents detailed readings of novels by five prominent British authors John Fowles Angela Carter Graham Swift A S Byatt and Salman Rushdie with an emphasis on how the texts self referential aspects illuminate the acts of reading and writing fiction in contemporary Britain and by extension around the world The book begins by situating contemporary British fiction historically as the product of an aesthetics of compromise arising from the realism versus experimentalism debate that consumed the English literary establishment during the 1960s In her discussion of the texts Lynn Wells then draws on a wide range of theoretical approaches from narrative and psychoanalytic theory to existentialist philosophy and the historiographic ideas of thinkers such as Walter Benjamin Michel Foucault and Giambattista Vico These original readings challenge superficial postmodern interpretations of contemporary British fiction as pessimistically anti historical and reassert the value of readerly engagement and narrative reconstruction of the past

Angela Carter: Surrealist, Psychologist, Moral Pornographer Scott Dimovitz, 2016-03-02 Contributing to the conversation regarding Angela Carter's problematic relationship with what she viewed as the interrelated traditions of surrealism and psychoanalysis Scott Dimovitz explores the intricate connections between Carter's private life and her public writing He begins with Carter's assertion that it was through her sexual and emotional life that she was radicalized drawing extensively on the British Library's recently archived collection of Carter's private papers journals and letters to show how that radicalization happened and what it meant both for her worldview and for her writings Through close textual analysis and a detailed study of her papers Dimovitz analyzes the ways in which this second wave feminist's explorations of sexuality merged with her investigations into surrealism and psychoanalysis an engagement that ultimately led to the explosively surreal allegories of Carter's later more complex and more accomplished work His study not only offers a new way to view Carter's oeuvre but also makes the case for the importance of Angela Carter's vision in understanding the transformations in feminist thinking from the postwar to the postfeminist generation

Cinematic Howling Hoi Cheu, 2010-10-01 Cinematic Howling presents a refreshingly unorthodox framework for feminist film studies Instead of criticizing mainstream movies from feminist perspectives Hoi Cheu focuses on women's filmmaking itself Integrating systems theory and feminist aesthetics in his close readings of films and screenplays by women he considers how women engage the process of storytelling in cinema The importance of these films he argues is not merely that they reflect women's perceptions but that they have the power to reframe experiences and consequently to transform life A major contribution to feminist scholarship that will appeal to scholars of both gender and film Cinematic Howling is written in an approachable and inviting style full of vivid examples and attention to detail which will suit both undergraduate and graduate courses in gender film and cultural studies

Angela Carter Aidan Day, 1998-06-15 The first full scale study of Angela Carter's fiction with a broad though scholarly appeal

The Cambridge Guide to Women's Writing in English Lorna Sage, 1999-09-30 This Guide aims to consolidate and epitomise the re reading of women's writing that has gone on in the last twenty five years This is an opportunity for stock taking a timely project when so much writing has been rediscovered reclaimed and republished There are entries on writers on individual texts and on general terms genres and movements all printed in a single alphabetical sequence The earliest written documents in medieval English the visionary writings of Julian of Norwich and Margery Kempe are covered in an historical and geographical sweep that takes us up to the present day The book reflects the spread of literacy the history of colonisation and the development of post colonial cultures using and changing the English language The entries are written by contributors from all the countries covered The result is a work of reference with a unique feeling for the vitality wealth and diversity of women s writing Angela Carter Linden

Peach,2009-09-09 This revised new edition reviews Carter s novels in the light of recent critical developments and offers entirely new perspectives on her work There is now extended discussion of Carter s most widely studied novels including The Passion of New Eve and Nights at the Circus and discussion of the long essay The Sadeian Woman This revised new edition reviews Carter s novels in the light of recent critical developments and offers entirely new perspectives on her work There is now extended discussion of Carter s most widely studied novels including The Passion of New Eve and Nights at the Circus and discussion of the long essay The Sadeian Woman

The Economics of Fantasy Sharon Stockton,2006 The author examines the evolution of the rape narrative in twentieth century literature What accounts for the persistence of the old story of male power and violence and female passivity and penetrability How has the story changed over the course of the twentieth century She investigates the manner in which the violation of the female body serves as a metaphor for a synthesis of masculinity and political economy Angela Carter and the Fairy Tale Danielle Marie Roemer,Cristina Bacchilega,2001 A diverse collection of essays artwork interviews and fiction on Angela Carter The World of Angela Carter Dani Cavallaro,2014-09-24 Angela Carter a prolific author who worked in numerous genres remains one of the most important British writers of the last century She was particularly renowned for her investigation of cultural mythologies which shape our lives but which we often leave unexamined This text explores a selection of Carter s novels and short stories supplemented with her perspectives on politics society and aesthetics and her attempts to redefine popular genres such as the fairy tale This critical work is a strong addition to the scholarship on this important but often overlooked writer

Angela Carter's Pyrotechnics Charlotte Crofts,Marie Mulvey-Roberts,2022-01-13 Representing a shift in Carter studies for the 21st century this book critically explores her legacy and showcases the current state of Angela Carter scholarship It gives new insights into Carter s pyrotechnic creativity and pays tribute to her incendiary imagination in a reappraisal of Angela Carter s work her influences and influence Drawing attention to the highly constructed artifice of Angela Carter s work it brings to the fore her lesser known collection of short stories Fireworks Nine Profane Pieces to reposition her as more than just the author of The Bloody Chamber On the way it also explores the impact of her experiences living in Japan in the light of Edmund Gordon s 2016 biography and Natsumi Ikoma s translation of Sozo Araki s Japanese memoirs of Carter

provocations to laughter and her enchantment with ludic narrative strategies are two key aspects of her aesthetic practice neither of which has been the focus of sustained study Ludics and Laughter as Feminist Aesthetic Angela Carter at Play responds to this lacuna in Carter criticism This international collection of eleven essays from acclaimed Carter scholars and emerging voices in the field of Carter studies seeks to reclaim play as a serious undertaking for feminist writing and scholarship and to foreground laughter as a potent affect While Carter's work turned to comedy in the later years from the first publication in 1966 until her last in 1992 her fiction poetry and journalism engaged in sharp social and cultural critique she habitually engaged this critique through ludic structures and wickedly funny narratives that challenged conventional norms and ways of thinking Contributors explore the diverse ways in which Carter compelled a complex and often uneasy laughter by means of a controversial aesthetic that merges a persistently ludic sensibility with a biting intransigent wit This volume draws on theories of play surrealism feminism as well as studies of feminist humour and Carter's own journals and diaries to reveal the ways in which her work moves readers towards the unexpected This volume will be of relevance both to scholars of Carter's work and of feminist humour more generally as well it will be of interest to students and general readers of Carter's fiction journalism and poetry

Engendering the Subject Sally Robinson, 1991-09-20 Robinson sets up a dialogue between feminist critical theory and contemporary women's fiction in order to argue for a new way of reading the specificity of women's writing Through theoretically informed readings of novels by Doris Lessing Angela Carter and Gayl Jones the author argues that female subjectivity is engendered in discourse through the woman writer's strategic engagement in representational systems that rely on a singular figure of Woman for coherence Through this engagement women's self representation emerges as a process through which women take up multiple and contradictory positions in relation to different hegemonic discursive systems and through which they engender themselves as subjects Finally Engendering the Subject suggests how women's fiction can provide a model for a feminist practice of reading that would simultaneously work against the historical containment of Woman and for the empowerment of women as subjects of cultural practices

Decadent daughters and monstrous mothers Rebecca Munford, 2015-11-01 Decadent daughters and monstrous mothers interrogates the vexed question of Angela Carter's feminist politics through the dusty lens of European Gothic It illuminates her ambivalent relation to some of her most contentious European literary forebears reveals her rich knowledge of French literature and offers fresh insights into her literary practices afforded by newly available archival material This book analyses Carter's textual engagements with a dirty lineage of European Gothic that can be mapped from the Marquis de Sade's obsession with desecration and defilement through Baudelaire's perverse decompositions of the muse and decadent imaginings of infernal femininity to surrealism's violent dreams of abjection It argues that Carter's most troublesome engagements with her European Gothic forefathers are unexpectedly those which are most vital to a consideration of her feminist politics Decadent daughters and monstrous mothers will be of interest to researchers and students working on contemporary women s writing the Gothic and comparative literature Re-Visiting Angela Carter R. Munford,2006-09-05 Focusing on questions of intertextuality authorship and representation this book offers a re examination of one of the twentieth century s most important British writers A provocative collection both offers new readings of Carter s opus and contributes to contemporary critical debates concerning gender postmodernism and intertextual theory Political Bodies/Body Politic Darlene M. Juschka,2014-12-05 Political Bodies Body Politic draws on feminism gender studies and queer theory to examine how myth symbol and ritual express belief systems The book explores the operation of gender in a variety of social and historical contexts ranging from feminist speculative fiction and systems of belief to popular culture and ancient historical texts Political Bodies Body Politic makes an original contribution to religious and feminist studies in its examination of gender in human communication and belief systems Radical Blake S. Dent,J.

Whittaker,2002-10-02 Blake has maintained an enduring popularity amongst a large and diverse audience as a poet artist and engraver There are probably more artists writers filmmakers and composers working under the influence of Blake than any other figure from the Romantic era Radical Blake traces his influence and afterlife across a range of major themes such as Metropolitan Blake Blake and Nationalism and Blake and Women
