America's encounter with Holocaust memory that links the use of Nazi imagery to liberal politics Interpreting in Nazi Concentration Camps Michaela Wolf, 2016-07-28 This significant new study is concerned with the role of interpreting in Nazi concentration camps where prisoners were of 30 to 40 different nationalities With German as the only official language in the lager communication was vital to the prisoners survival While in the last few decades there has been extensive research on the language used by the camp inmates investigation into the mediating role of interpreters between SS guards and prisoners on the one hand and among inmates on the other has been almost nonexistent On the basis of Primo Levi's considerations on communication in the Nazi concentrationary system this book investigates the ambivalent role of interpreting in the camps One of the central questions is what the role of interpreting was in the wider context of shaping life in concentration camps And in what way did the knowledge of languages and accordingly certain communication skills contribute to the survival of concentration camp inmates and of the interpreting person The main sources under investigation are both archive materials and survivors memoirs and testimonials in various languages On a different level Interpreting in Nazi Concentration Camps also asks in what way the study of communication in concentration camps enhances our understanding of the ambiguous role of interpreting in more general terms And in what way does the study of interpreting in concentration camps shape an interpreting concept which can help us to better understand the violent nature of interpreting in contexts other than the Holocaust The Creation of Doctor B Richard Pollak, 1998-04-06 Demythologizing biography of world famous Vienna born psychoanalyst bestselling author and authority on troubled children Empathy in the Context of Philosophy L. Agosta, 2010-04-29 Integrating continental and Anglo American traditions the author exposes empathy as the foundation of the being with one another of human beings The interpretation of empathy is applied to story telling literature and self psychology rescuing empathy from the margins and revealing its role in the understanding of the other and human community Holocaust Diaries as "Life Stories" Amos Goldberg, 2008 Emotions, Politics and War Linda Åhäll, Thomas Gregory, 2015-07-03 A growing number of scholars have sought to re centre emotions in our study of international politics however an overarching book on how emotions matter to the study of politics and war is yet to be published This volume is aimed at filling that gap proceeding from the assumption that a nuanced understanding of emotions can only enhance our engagement with contemporary conflict and war Providing a range of perspectives from a diversity of methodological approaches on the conditions maintenance and interpretation of emotions the contributors interrogate the multiple ways in which emotions function and matter to the study of global politics Accordingly the innovative contribution of this volume is its specific engagement with the role of emotions and constitution of emotional subjects in a range of different contexts of politics and war including the gendered nature of war and security war traumas post conflict reconstruction and counterinsurgency operations Looking at how we analyse emotions in war why it matters and what emotions do in global politics this volume will be of interest to students and scholars of critical security studies and international relations alike

Weapons of the Weak James C. Scott, 2008-10-01 Weapons of the Weak is an ethnography by James C. Scott that studies the effects of the Green Revolution in rural Malaysia. One of the main objectives of the study is to make an argument that the Marxian and Gramscian ideas of false consciousness and hegemony are incorrect. He develops this conclusion throughout the book through the different scenarios and characters that come up during his time of fieldwork in the village. This publication based on 2 years of fieldwork 1978-1980 focuses on the local class relations in a small rice farming community of 70 households in the main paddy growing area of Kedah in Malaysia. Introduction of the Green Revolution in 1976 eliminated 2/3 of the wage earning opportunities for smallholders and landless laborers. The main ensuing class struggle is analyzed being the ideological struggle in the village and the practice of resistance itself consisting of foot dragging, dissimulation, desertion, false compliance, pilfering, feigned ignorance and sabotage acts. Rich and poor are engaged in an unremitting if silent struggle to define changes in land tenure, mechanization and employment to advance their own interests and to use values that they share to control the distribution of status, land, work and grain.

Freedom and Culture in Western Society Hans Bloklund, 2019-03-07 Critically examining conceptions of freedom of some of the leading contemporary philosophers from Isaiah Berlin to Charles Taylor, Hans Bloklund explores the value and significance that freedom has acquired on our political consciousness. He looks specifically at positive and negative freedom, freedom of the individual, freedom and society, emancipation and paternalism, freedom and cultural politics.

Attachment in Adults Michael B. Sperling, William H. Berman, 1994-04-29 Reflecting the emerging understanding of the significance of attachment in adult life, contributions in this volume cover recent research on the fundamentals of human life including courtship and marriage, the determinants of resilience and of depression and the vulnerability of some to suicidal ideation and action. Together these chapters illuminate the contribution of early and current attachment to psychopathology in adults, the application of research findings to therapeutic interventions and the physiological substructure of attachment in adults and children. This book will be of value to psychologists, psychotherapists, psychotherapy researchers and other mental health practitioners working with adult attachment issues.

Bearing Witness Philip Rosen, Nina Apfelbaum, 2001-11-30 This resource guide will help readers locate over 800 first person accounts, fiction, poetry, art, interpretations and music by Holocaust victims and survivors as well as videos relating the testimony and experiences of Holocaust survivors. In addition to the few well known writers, artists and musicians whose work so eloquently captures their experience during the Holocaust, this guide will introduce the reader to the lives and work of more than 250 lesser known or unrecognized writers, artists and musicians from many countries who documented their experience of persecution at the hands of the Nazis. This guide will help students gain firsthand knowledge of what it was like to experience the Holocaust and how ordinary people coped and created art and meaning from the ashes of their lives. The entry on each writer, artist and musician features a biographical sketch and list of his or her works with full bibliographic data. Entries on literature and videos are annotated and include recommendations for age appropriateness. The work is divided into five parts writers of memoirs diaries and fiction poets artists composers and musicians and videos that feature testimony by survivors Each part features an introductory overview of the artists and art created in that genre out of Holocaust experience Title artist writer and nationality indexes will help the reader select materials and an index organized by age appropriate levels will help teachers and librarians to select literature and videos for students Understanding Trauma Laurence J. Kirmayer, Robert Lemelson, Mark Barad, 2007-01-15 This book analyzes the individual and collective experience of and response to trauma from a wide range of perspectives including basic neuroscience clinical science and cultural anthropology Each perspective presents critical and creative challenges to the other The first section reviews the effects of early life stress on the development of neural systems and vulnerability to persistent effects of trauma The second section of the book reviews a wide range of clinical approaches to the treatment of the effects of trauma The final section of the book presents cultural analyses of personal social and political responses to massive trauma and genocidal events in a variety of societies This work goes well beyond the neurobiological models of conditioned fear and clinical syndrome of post traumatic stress disorder to examine how massive traumatic events affect the whole fabric of a society calling forth collective responses of resilience and moral transformation Bettelheim: Living and Dying David James Fisher, 2008-01-01 Preliminary Material Introduction Psychoanalytic Cultural Criticism and the Soul Towards a Psychoanalytic Understanding of Fascism and Anti-Semitism Perceptions From the 1940 s On Parenting and Playing The Relationship and Debates Between Bruno Bettelheim and Rudolf Ekstein In Memoriam Rudolf Ekstein 1912 2005 A Final Conversation With Bruno Bettelheim The Suicide of a Survivor Some Intimate Perceptions of Bettelheim s Suicide Homage to Bettelheim An Open Letter to Newsweek Concerning Bruno Bettelheim A Reply To Former Patients From The Orthogenic School Two Letters From Bettelheim To The Author About the Author References Index Acknowledgements A History of Private Life Philippe Ariès, Antoine Prost, Georges Duby, Gérard Vincent, 1987 Library has Vol 1 5
