Heavenly Tree Soluble Forest:

Heavenly Tree, Soluble Forest Gerrit Lansing, 1995 Poetry Heavenly Tree, Northern Earth Gerrit Lansing, 2009-07-28

This is the inaugural volume of a new series of literary hardcovers from North Atlantic Books. This series will collect the important work of writers who have served as major influences upon and contributors to the cultural and psychic milieu from which North Atlantic evolved. A distinguished figure of American letters whose work and spirit have bridged five decades of creativity, Gerrit Lansing provides a perfect launch for the series with this collected edition of his poetry, which astonishes by the variety of its poetic forms and concerns, lyrical and cosmological. It cannot easily be fitted into niches currently fashionable. Like a seed growing secretly, to quote a favorite poet of his, Henry Vaughan, it has influenced the American cultural underground since the late 1950s. Lansing was a friend and associate of generations of creative minds as diverse as the poet Charles Olson and the legendary filmmaker Harry Smith. Poet Robert Kelly notes that he is the most learned among us and the most fun. Lansing has patiently fashioned a body of work that ranges from short poems such as The Heavenly Tree Grows Downward and In Northern Earth, from which this collection takes its title, to longer cycles like the alchemical serial poem The Soluble Forest. With themes at once personal and social, erotic and esoteric, Heavenly Tree Northern Earth manifests the creative spirit of one of the important unheralded masters of modern poetry.

Encyclopedia of American Poetry: The Twentieth Century Eric L. Haralson, 2014-01-21

The Encyclopedia of American Poetry: The Twentieth Century contains over 400 entries that treat a broad range of individual poets and poems, along with many articles devoted to topics, schools, or periods of American verse in the century. Entries fall into three main categories: poet entries, which provide biographical and cultural contexts for the author's career; entries on individual works, which offer closer explication of the most resonant poems in the 20th-century canon; and topical entries, which offer analyses of a given period of literary production, school, thematically constructed category, or other verse tradition that historically has been in dialogue with the poetry of the United States.

This Compost Jed Rasula, 2012-09-01

Poetry for Jed Rasula bears traces of our entanglement with our surroundings, and these traces define a collective voice in modern poetry, independent of the more specific influences and backgrounds of the poets themselves. In This Compost, Rasula surveys both the convictions asserted by American poets and the poetics they develop in their craft, all with an eye toward an emerging ecological worldview. Rasula begins by examining poets associated with Black Mountain College in the 1950s: Charles Olson, Robert Creeley, and Robert Duncan, and their successors. But This Compost extends to include earlier poets like Robinson Jeffers, Ezra Pound, Louis Zukofsky, Kenneth Rexroth, and Muriel Rukeyser, as well as Clayton Eshleman, Gary Snyder, Michael McClure, and other contemporary poets. Walt Whitman and Emily Dickinson also make appearances. Rasula draws this diverse group of poets together, uncovering how the past is a compost fertilizing the present. He looks at the heritage of ancient lore and the legacy of modern history and colonial violence as factors contributing to ecological imperatives in modern poetry. This Compost
