Denuded Devotion to Christ Larry D. Harwood, 2013-01-14 Much of the emerging Protestantism of the sixteenth century produced a Reformation in conscious opposition to formal philosophy Nevertheless sectors of the Reformation produced a spiritualizing form of Platonism in the drive for correct devotion Out of an understandable fear of idolatry or displacement of the uniquely redemptive place of Christ Christian piety moved away from the senses and the material world freshly uncovered in the Reformation This volume argues however that in the quest for restoring true religion sectors of the Protestant tradition impugned too severely the material components of prior Christian devotion Larry Harwood argues that a similar spiritualizing tendency can be found in other Christian traditions but that its applicability to the particulars of the Christian religion is nevertheless questionable Moreover in that quest of a spiritualizing Protestant true religion the Christian God could shade toward the conceptual god of the philosophers with devotees construed as rationalist philosophers Part of the paradoxical result was to propel the Protestant devotee toward a denuded worship for material worshipers of the Christian God who became flesh

Topological (in) Hegel Borislav G. Dimitrov, 2018-01-23 The aim of this book is to critically examine whether it is methodologically possible to combine mathematical rigor topology with a systematic dialectical methodology in Hegel and if so to provide as result of my interpretation the outline of Hegel's Analysis Situs also with the proposed models build on the topological manifold cobordism topological data analysis persistent homology simplicial complexes and graph theory to provide an indication of how the merger of Hegel's dialectical logic and topology may be instrumental to a systematic logician and of how a systematic dialectical logic perspective may help mathematical model builders

Aristotle on the Nature of Truth Christopher P. Long, 2010-11-22 This book reconsiders the traditional correspondence theory of truth which takes truth to be a matter of correctly representing objects Drawing Heideggerian phenomenology into dialogue with American pragmatic naturalism Christopher P Long undertakes a rigorous reading of Aristotle that articulates the meaning of truth as a co operative activity between human beings and the natural world that is rooted in our endeavours to do justice to the nature of things By following a path of Aristotle's thinking that leads from our rudimentary encounters with things in perceiving through human communication to thinking this book traces an itinerary that uncovers the nature of truth as ecological justice and it finds the nature of justice in our attempts to articulate the truth of things Archives de philosophie ,2005
