Hell Looks Different Now One Corpsmans Journey Back To Vietnam:

Hell Looks Different Now J. Doc McNiff, 2001-05      Welcome Home Vietnam Chuck Sanders, 2010-11 Death is often welcome for soldiers who returned from Vietnam because it appears to be the only means of peace within. Knowing that each day could and in all probability will be his last, the soldier's thought process becomes distorted and his animalistic instincts take over and allow for total abandonment of inhibitions. These soldiers answered the nation's call and they paid the price for the freedoms we as a nation hold dear. They are also the ones who continue to pay the price for the combat experience and that part of us that died in country. These men suffer from PTSD Post Traumatic Stress Disorder and this is their story.

Vietnam Rough Riders Frank McAdams, 2013-03-12 Black smoke drifted about the scene. The first thing I noticed was the huge crater yawning next to the damaged truck. In the Vietnam War, American rough riders drove trucks through hostile territory delivering supplies, equipment, ammunition, weapons, fuel, and reinforcements to troops fighting on the war's ever-shifting front lines. But all too often the convoys themselves became the front lines. Frank McAdams, a Marine Corps lieutenant, learned that the hard way during a tour of duty that began right after the 1968 Tet Offensive and the siege at Khe Sanh. In this compelling memoir, he recounts his personal battles not only with a dangerous enemy but also with an incompetent superior and a sometimes indifferent military bureaucracy. A decidedly different take on the Vietnam experience, his chronicle focuses on the ambush-prone truck convoys that snaked their way through dangerous terrain in narrow mountain passes and overgrown jungles. When an ambush occurred, strong leadership and quick thinking were required of officers like McAdams to protect both the convoy's mission and the lives of its men. McAdams describes convoys he led through hot zones like the notorious Ambush Alley stretching from Danang through Hai Van Pass to Phu Bai in the north and the provincial area in the south known as the Arizona that surrounded the villages of Phu Loc and An Hoa. He also highlights the fierce three-day firefight that ensnared him and his men near the Song Cau Du River at Hoa Vang and provides a particularly gripping account of the fighting at Thuong Duc. McAdams deals frankly with his fraught dealings with a commanding officer whose ineptness and treatment of his troops made the CO fear for his own life. And he writes movingly of his wife's love and encouragement in the face of an emotionally tough separation and also of his difficulty in re-engaging with life stateside. Fast-paced and compulsively readable, his book offers an insightful look at a largely neglected aspect of the Vietnam War while reminding us of how frequently the crucible of war reveals one's true character.      For Self and Country Estate of Rick Eilert, 2010-05-15 Vietnam was often called a teenager's war. The average age was 19.2, so in the main the War was fought by 17, 18, 19, and 20-year-olds barely out of high school and often without the income, intelligence, inclination, or focus to attend college. For everyone, the draft loomed large in our futures, so you could choose your branch of service or let the draft decide for you. This was the 60's. Fresh from sock hops and college freshman mixers, young men found themselves in a fight for their lives from the Delta to the DMZ, on animal trails, numbered hills, and in remote jungle outposts.

Teenagers witnessed the unspeakable carnage of war while trying to understand the collision of emotions and insult to the senses that is combat Thousands died there and many thousands more were wounded and maimed So the hell of combat was replaced by the painful recovery in a military hospital For me and thousands of others it was Great Lakes Naval Hospital at Great Lakes Illinois For Self and Country follows my many months of recovery along with the stories of the brave young men who surrounded me and sustained me with friendship uncommon humor and courage This is a story of family young love and the magnificent care administered by the Navy doctors nurses and revered Corpsmen Great Lakes was a place of great pain but also recovery not just from the physical damage we sustained but also the unseen emotional injuries everyone endured but rarely talked about We helped each other in our recovery by talking to each other about our wartime experiences and how we would need to cope outside the insulated and protected hospital Most of us had no expectation of surviving Vietnam now that we had we were unsure what place we would have in civilian life My Senior Trip John Reeg,2022-07-15

Howard Carson grew up in a small Indiana town It was 1968 and after graduating from high school he wasn't sure what he wanted to do He wasn't interested in college not then His job for the past year had been selling shoes He had no skills to speak of and he decided to go into the armed services He became a Marine and six months later was deployed to Vietnam This story's not about battle plans and strategies How this battle was won and another lost It's about feelings and emotions It's about getting ready for war The training and the day to day experiences of a living hell Friends shot or blown to pieces and being splattered with their blood Carrying a wounded Marine to the helicopter while under heavy fire Being on patrol during the monsoons Leeches tigers mosquitoes and snakes Booby traps and guerilla warfare A relentless and determined enemy What Howard and others had to do and how they dealt with the fear the anger and the pain It was the early 70's Howard finished his military service and started college where he was screamed at spit on pushed and hit for being in the military and serving his country This story's about a different time and a different America A different story of war Against the Flow Richard S.
