Helliconia Spring Brian Wilson Aldiss, 1982 A planet orbiting binary suns Helliconia has a Great Year spanning three millennia of Earth time cultures are born in spring flourish in summer then die with the onset of the generations long winter Helliconia is emerging from its centuries long winter The tribes of the equatorial continent emerge from their hiding places and are again able to dispute possession of the planet with the ferocious phagors In Oldorado love trade and coinage are being rediscovered This is the first volume of the Helliconia Trilogy a monumental saga that goes beyond anything yet created by this master among today's imaginative writers To Be Continued Hope Apple, Merle L. Jacob, 2000-10-10 Keeping track of prolific authors who write fiction series was quite challenging for even the most ardent fan until To Be Continued debuted in 1995 Now readers will be happy that the soon to be released second edition has added 1 600 new books and 400 new series To Be Continued Second Edition maintains the first volume's successful formula that featured concise A to Z entries packed with useful information including titles publishers publication dates genre categories annotations and subject terms Among the genre categories that can be found in To Be Continued are romance science fiction crime novel horror adventure fantasy humor western war Christian fiction and others The Best in Science Fiction Aurel Guillemette, 1993 A guide for readers looking for the best Encompasses 17 major fantasy and science fiction awards foreign language awards are excluded Arrangement is in five sections awards and their winners authors titles award winners only by year the best of the best by genre and the best of the best by year The data is legibly presented in tabular computer print outs Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR Geography of Time, Place, Movement and Networks, Volume 1 Stanley D. Brunn, 2024-05-23 This book describes the journey concept relating to cultural and social history of Western and non Western worlds By including time journeys negotiated by women racial minorities artists and scholars from the humanities and social natural and physical scientists the book explores time space journeys in personal professional and cultural life and place experiences The sixteen chapters in this book offer new insights into time place worlds in different contexts including history culture astronomy and science fiction The concept is one where science and art worlds intersect in the emerging worlds of the unknown With contributors from different disciplines and countries expanding our understanding of this concept this volume provides a valuable source for disciplinary and interdisciplinary classes and seminars exploring these scholarly frontiers The Cambridge History of Science Fiction Gerry Canavan, Eric Carl Link, 2018-12-31 The first science fiction course in the American academy was held in the early 1950s In the sixty years since science fiction has become a recognized and established literary genre with a significant and growing body of scholarship The Cambridge History of Science Fiction is a landmark volume as the first authoritative history of the genre Over forty contributors with diverse and complementary specialties present a history of science fiction across national and genre boundaries and trace its intellectual and creative roots in the philosophical and fantastic narratives of the ancient past Science fiction as a literary genre is the central focus of the volume but fundamental to its story is its non literary cultural manifestations and influence Coverage thus includes transmedia manifestations as an integral part of the genre s history including not only short stories and novels but also film art architecture music comics and interactive media      Le science-fictionnaire (1) Stan
