

A person is seen from behind, sitting on a wooden dock that extends into a calm lake. The person is wearing a dark jacket. The lake's surface is still, reflecting the surrounding landscape. In the background, there are steep, rocky mountains with patches of snow or light-colored rock. The sky is overcast and grey. The overall mood is contemplative and serene.

The Plan We Need for Security, Peace, and Justice George Skoglund, 2008-06 Our search for security peace and justice continues to be an individual and a collective challenge The Old Testament experiences of the patriarch Job and the New Testament experiences of the apostle Paul provide a framework for understanding the hope that enriches our lives under God's care The plan we need recognizes that we have choices to make We have decisions that influence the direction of our lives To find security peace and justice we need a plan to form and keep a right relationship with God When we lose control over the decisions that set security peace and justice in our lives we can feel like a pile of broken pieces To have security peace and justice we need to live in fellowship with God When our purpose and direction in life meet God's requirements we please God With Jesus Christ as our Savior and the Holy Spirit as our Helper God provides the support we need to find rest and renewal The foundation of our happiness now and our hope for the future is our salvation and the joy of sharing our beliefs with others When our thoughts and actions are in keeping God's will for us we can access the possibilities and power that God makes available to us as mature members in God's family This book is for anyone who feels disconnected from God For people dealing with loneliness fear despair and anger The Plan We Need for Security Peace and Justice describes a systematic way to become a functioning part of the body of Christ and to complete the connection with God

Help Yourself to God's Help Travis Monday, 2007-01-17 A creative yet concise Christian response to self help literature and philosophy Written especially for people interested in accessing God's help for themselves and others Spiritual Gifts Jennifer Anne Cox, 2018-01-18 Spiritual Gifts A Christ Centered Perspective is just that centered on Christ It provides a new perspective on spiritual gifts seeing the person and work of Christ as the foundation for the gifts of the Spirit The coming of Jesus into the world opens the way for the whole people of God to be indwelt by the Holy Spirit and to share in God's work in the world The book takes a broad New Testament approach to exploring the gifts carefully examining the meaning of the gifts by considering the Gospels Acts and the epistles The focus is on seeing each gift as an extension of what Jesus did in his ministry The gifts of the Spirit equip the church to carry on Jesus work Every gift is a means of proclaiming the gospel God gives his gifts with two purposes in mind to build the church by bringing people to Christ and to build up the church by maturing each believer Consequently Pentecostals Charismatics and conservative Christians alike must embrace spiritual gifts because God desires to transform the world through his equipped people *H.O.P.E.
