Funeral and Memorial Service Readings, Poems and Tributes Rachel R. Baum, 2007-11-28 Words can fail even the most articulate when called upon to speak at a loved one's funeral or memorial occasion The bereaved desires to say something meaningful yet services are often held so quickly that there is little time to find something appropriate at the library or bookstore This book is a collection of poetry and prose appropriate for reading at a funeral or memorial service To assist the reader in finding a suitable passage the book is divided into eleven chapters There are tributes for mothers fathers children spouses and soulmates friends siblings and other close relatives soldiers and victims of war or violence pets and general readings appropriate for men women or any loved one These selections will also prove helpful for clergy counselors and hospice hospital and funeral professionals Appendices list resources and support organizations and each selection is indexed by author title and first line A special additional index references pieces by famous uses such as in a film novel or celebrity's funeral so readers can locate a passage they remember from its context Mortuary Science John F. Szabo, 2002 Now available in paperback In this first reference book devoted entirely to mortuary science Szabo presents a thorough bibliographical examination of the funeral industry and related subjects including even the most specialized area in the field

Most citations are annotated with special notes on editions and reprints Areas covered include autopsy cremation burial rites and ceremonies caskets and vaults cemeteries embalming epitaphs ethnic customs funeral dress and apparel funeral music funeral reform grave markers laws and regulations liturgies and sermons memorial societies organ and body donation premature burial pre need service restorative art and several others The text is organized by subject with author and title indexes Five appendixes feature addresses for associations and organizations information on schools of mortuary science accreditation procedures and standards of the American Board of Funeral Service Education periodicals in the field and a list of state funeral service examining boards Will be useful to students librarians and researchers as well as funeral service personnel

Remembering Well Sarah York, 2002-02-28 Remembering Well offers family members clergy funeral professionals and hospice workers ways to plan services and rituals that honor the spirit of the deceased and are faithful to that person's values and beliefs while also respecting the needs and wishes of those who will attend the services It is an essential resource for anyone who yearns to put death in a spiritual context but is unsure how to do so including both those who have broken with tradition and those who wish to give new meaning to the time honored rituals of their faith The real life stories examples and practical guidelines in this book address a wide array of important issues including the difficult decisions that survivors must make quickly when a death occurs and the sensitive topic of family alienation where possibilities for healing forgiveness and hope are explored The invaluable insights offered here will help those who grieve to prepare mind and spirit for life's final rites of passage

The Economics of Edwin Chadwick Robert B. Ekelund, Edward O. Price, 2012-01-01 Economists owe a great debt to Ekelund and Price for making us aware of Edwin Chadwick's seminal contributions Chadwick lived in the middle of the 19th century but he anticipated many of the theoretical and practical advances that culminated in the law and economics revolution of the late 20th century These include Coase's analysis of social cost and Demsetz's proposal for franchise bidding in natural monopolies Read the summary of Chadwick's ideas about railroads and consider that Britain adopted many of them but only more than a century later while the US continues to wallow in ignorance The book is full of similar examples where Chadwick's prescience is extraordinary Economists legal scholars and practitioners especially those working at the intersection of law and economics will want to read this book Sam Peltzman University of Chicago US Sir Edwin Chadwick 1800-1890 is hardly a household name among economists although he is a well known hero to sanitation engineers and utilitarian social reformers His brilliant and cunning ideas relating to contemporary economic policy are illuminated for the first time in this pioneering study The authors detail Chadwick's sophisticated conceptions of moral hazard common pool problems asymmetric information and theory of competition all of which differ starkly from those promulgated by Adam Smith and other classical economists Also examined are Chadwick's views on government versus market role in dealing with problems created by natural monopoly and whether some or all market problems justify government regulation or alterations of property rights The authors investigate Chadwick's utilitarian approach to labor business cycles and economic growth contrasting his modern view with those of his classical economic contemporaries Chadwick's enormous output and cutting edge methods undoubtedly establish him as an original and trenchant thinker in economic matters as well as a prophetic voice on contemporary issues in economics This unique look at his less familiar research will interest academic regulatory economists sociologists students and scholars of law and economics and all those interested in the fundamentals of social reform
