Highland Handcrafters:

Highland Handcrafters Michael Joslin, 2005 Michael Joslin a professor at Lees McRae College in Banner Elk North Carolina tells the stories of local craftspeople The Handcraft Revival in Southern Appalachia, 1930-1990 Garry Barker, 1991 Presents the essentials of the subject in a concise and practical manner concepts and procedures are illustrated with clear line drawings and photos For rehabilitation technicians An active participant in craft guilds of the southern Appalachians presents a chronological record of how vanishing crafts were rescued and the politics and economics of their continuing revival Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Hidden History of Asheville ,2019-06-17 The milestones of Asheville s long history are well known to locals but so many interesting stories are all but forgotten Thankfully the staff and volunteers of the North Carolina Room at Pack Memorial Library have unearthed the best of those hidden tales Meet daredevil aviatrix Uva Shipman and Tempie Avery who went from slavery to respected nurse and citizen Learn the poignant tale behind the sad death of former mayor Gallatin Roberts and uncover the parts of old Asheville lost to the wrecking ball These and many more historic episodes come to life in this collection compiled by North Carolina Room librarian Zoe Rhine Appalachia in the Making Mary Beth Pudup, Dwight B. Billings, Altina L. Waller, 2000-11-09 Appalachia first entered the American consciousness as a distinct region in the decades following the Civil War The place and its people have long been seen as backwards and other because of their perceived geographical social and economic isolation These essays by fourteen eminent historians and social scientists illuminate important dimensions of early social life in diverse sections of the Appalachian mountains The contributors seek to place the study of Appalachia within the context of comparative regional studies of the United States maintaining that processes and patterns thought to make the region exceptional were not necessarily unique to the mountain South The contributors are Mary K Anglin Alan Banks Dwight B Billings Kathleen M Blee Wilma A Dunaway John R Finger John C Inscoe Ronald L Lewis Ralph Mann Gordon B McKinney Mary Beth Pudup Paul Salstrom Altina L Waller and John Alexander Williams Daily Digest United States. notice they merit Because many of the artists in both categories have a clear identity with their land and culture the work is organized by geographical region and includes an essay on each region to help make connections visible There is also an introductory essay on U S folk art as a whole Those writing about folk art to date tend to view each artist as either traditional or innovative One of the major contributions of this work is that it demonstrates that folk artists more often exhibit both traits they are grounded in their cultural context and creative in the way they make work their own Such insights expand the study of folk art even as they readjust readers understanding of who folk artists are
